Mammoth Search for Evidence Ends; No Reportable Results

by Tom Tock

If a weekend 26-acre search for evidence pertaining to the homicides of Donna and Kelly Denker in Dwight was productive — nothing was being officially reported by investigators Monday.

Members of the Illinois State Police, Dwight Police, Morris Police, fire department personnel from divisions 15 and 25 Mutual Aid Box Alarm Systems, and the LaSalle County Sheriff's Office combed a 26-acre area near the Sheridan Correctional Center beginning at 8 a.m. Sunday, August 3.

The purpose of the search was to locate evidence that could assist in solving the Denker homicides and also burglaries that occurred in Grundy County near the time of the murders.

The area of the search was not originally disclosed for security reasons. The area was cordoned off to restrict the search to authorized personnel only.

More than 100 law enforcement and fire personnel worked the 26-acre site.

The Denkers died of gunshot wounds inflicted during the early morning hours of June 14 in their home at 200 W. North Street in Dwight.

A third, officially unidentified, person was wounded in the shootings, but has recovered. He was able to identify the killer as a white male wearing an orange hoodie. The hoodie was just one of the items being sought in the weekend search. Investigators did not give a reason why the particular area near the correctional center was selected for the search.

No suspect in the murders has been officially identified by authorities, but a more substantive report from the Livingston County States Attorney is being sought before next week.

In answer to a question from The Paper, Katcho, Dwight's sniffer dog, was not used in the weekend search because his handler, police officer Watson McKee, is not available for duty with the dog until September 19. McKee and Katcho are on unpaid administrative leave from the village until that date.

From Sea to Shining Sea... Peddling from Portland (OR) to Portland (ME)

Two members of "The Terrible Trio" stopped in Pfaff's Bakery the morning of Saturday, August 2. Neal Thomas, an attorney from Tempe, AZ and Mike Kirk, a retired aerospace engineer from Phoenix, AZ, talked with local residents about their travels. The third member of their group is Roger Simmons, also from Arizona, who was unable to participate due to health issues.

The trip began in Portland, Oregon, where their bikes had been shipped from Arizona. After a four day checkout of the equipment, they rode to the coast to dip the rear wheels of their bikes in the Pacific Ocean. The trip will end when they dip the front wheels in the Atlantic Ocean, at Bar Harbour in Portland, Maine. The excursion will cover approximately 5,000 miles. It started on May 29th and will end in mid-September. As of Dwight, they have clocked approximately 3,500 miles.

The men use bicycle maps to plan the route but often "wing it" to visit small towns that would be bypassed.

Most nights are spent in the tents packed on their bikes but they do get invites to stay with people they meet. A mix-up with lodging plans for Friday night resulted in camping out near the edge of Dwight. As they traveled out West, the long stretches of emptiness were compensated by the friendliness of the people they've met in "small town America." As Neal put it: "The Midwest way of life is real."

When designing their "card", they originally wanted an image featuring the American flag. Instead they found the picture of a long, straight, two-lane road between vast fields of wheat which appears on their card. Neal explained it symbolizes their trip on "the road to everywhere and nowhere at the same time."

When the trip has ended they may throw their bikes into the Atlantic Ocean and they promised to Email a picture to The Paper if they do.

You can follow their adventure at <http://theterribletriotravelers.blogspot.com/>

Above: Mike Kirk, left, and Neal Thomas enjoy refreshment and local conversation at Pfaff's Bakery. Below: The two are ready to resume their journey once they visit a few points of interest in Dwight.

Village of Dwight Audit Without Issue July 28 Village Board Actions

by Madelyn Fogarty
madelynfogarty@yahoo.com

No issues of concern were noted when the Fiscal Year 2014 audit report was presented to the Village of Dwight on July 28 by Mack & Associates Certified Public Accountants of Morris.

Following the presentation of the audit, Village Administrator Kevin McNamara noted the decline in EAV, dropping from $77 million in 2009 to $65 million currently — a $12 million decline over five years.

National Farmer's Market Week August 3-9

Every day this summer communities are converging to celebrate a simple miracle: farmers, as stewards of rural America, coming together to share a harvest that's feeding the local families. The result? More viable regional economies, increased access to fresh, nutritious food; and stronger social networks that help keep communities strong.

United States Secretary of Agriculture, Tom Vilsack, proclaimed August 3-9 as National Farmers Market Week. Since the USDA began declaring National Farmers Market Week the number of markets has steadily increased to over 8,000 in 2013 with over 347 in Illinois alone. The numbers continue to increase in 2014.

"That is a challenge faced by all municipalities," said the auditor.

In matters addressed by the Dwight Village Board of Trustees at its regular session, a recommendation from the Properties Committee received board approval which will allow for the repair of eleven free-standing picnic tables at Renfrew Park which are in serious need of repair. The board approved repairing the tables with laminated planks and stainless steel nuts and bolts at a cost not to exceed $7,500. A second recommendation by the committee to address foundation leaks in the Public Services Complex basement was also approved. Pulverized black dirt will be spread along the foundation in an effort to build up the ground along the building and improve drainage. A report from the Properties Committee also noted that the MFT street repair project for this summer should now be complete. Also, downtown businesses are reminded that dumpsters are not allowed on Village streets or Village parking places due to street damage caused by the dumpsters.

In new business, the board reviewed two requests from Al and Carol Seniw for property located at 1200 East Mazon Avenue (New Lenox Machine). The requests are pursuant to the Compassionate Use of Medical Cannabis Pilot Program. The Seniws wish to operate a cultivation center which would involve areas for cannabis cultivation, processing, storage and business administration. The board referred an associated Special Use request to the Plan (continued on Page 6)

Dwight Man Arrested After Multi-Agency Effort

On July 29, Joliet Metropolitan Area Narcotic Squad (JMANS) Agents, assisted by Grundy County Sheriff's Deputies, arrested 43-year old Charles L. Johnson Jr. of 7375 S. Holm Rd. in Dwight, on charges of "manufacturing and delivery of cannabis."

Sheriff Kevin Callahan said an outdoor cannabis grow in rural Grundy County was detected by the Illinois State Police Air Operations Unit. The cannabis grow was put under surveillance and confirmed by Joliet MANS Agents. A search warrant was obtained in Grundy

County and executed by Grundy County Sheriff's Deputies and JMANS Agents. As a result of the search warrant, 206 cannabis plants, three firearms, five pounds of cannabis bagged for sale, and US Currency was seized.

"I'm very proud of the work done by the MANS Agents, Sheriff's Deputies, and the ISP Air Operations Unit. They conducted a thorough investigation which resulted in the arrest of Charles Johnson," said Sheriff Callahan.

Johnson is currently in the custody of the Grundy County Jail.

EQUAL HOUSING LENDER

Dwight Fire Protection District

by Justin Dyer

The Dwight Fire Protection District and its members have been very busy lately with fire prevention, public education and extra volunteer activities.

The members dedicated extra time to make the following activities a success:

- Participated in a parade in Braceville for their annual Summer Kick-off festival
- Played a large role in the homecoming and send-off of two local Marines
- Assisted with the Casey Kohlmeier charity bike run
- Showed operations of the newest engine during a car show at the Dwight Methodist Church and at Station 343
- Stood by for the 4th of July fireworks, as well as held the waterball fights for children, and
- Assisted the Dwight Grade School in May with a Fire Safety Drill.

Also, some members dedicated their off time to help with the local Habitat for Humanity home being constructed in Dwight. Members spend countless hours training, responding to emergency calls as well as many activities to help the community.

Eight members of the District also took part in a Severe Weather Spotting Class hosted by the Morris Fire Protection District. This class was a fundamental training seminar geared towards training the public and first responders in how to identify potential emergencies related to weather incidents.

People from surrounding communities took part in this class and learned very valuable techniques in storm tracking, safe positioning, and identifying. All eight members are now trained and available to assist and protect the community with early notification for potential weather threats. Dwight Fire has responded and assisted Dwight ESDA in the past with weather spotting when the National Weather Service issues a watch or warning in the area. Extra eyes on the sky are always a great help when trying to keep the residents safe.

Members of Dwight Fire,

Dwight EMS and Dwight ESDA participated in a training class recently held at the Dwight Fire Department. Pontiac Police hosted the Safe Weapons Handling Class where students learned valuable skills on safe handling of loaded weapons, proper ammunition removal, proper storage and safety. All students demonstrated hands on practicals with over a dozen different styles of hand guns ranging from revolvers, single shot compact guns and semi-automatic weapons.

Firefighter Kyle Adamic has been promoted to the position of Fire Apparatus Engineer.

Engineer Adamic's main responsibility will be operating the vehicles to and from emergencies. He is going to help with the record keeping of maintenance as well as development of future maintenance checks and inspections. The command staff would like to congratulate Engineer Adamic on his promotion and thank him for his continued dedication to the Dwight Fire Protection District.

Sgt. John Mitchell's Report

Odell Village Board Told of 27 Calls; 4 Citations Issued in June

The Village of Odell Board of Trustees met in the Odell Council Room Monday, July 14, at 7 p.m. with Mayor Terry Joyner presiding.

Roll call showed Brian Verdun, Gary Wykes, Matt Weaver, Jamie Johnson and Herman Fearman, trustees, present, along with Rich Ribordy, staff member; and Ed Legner, village attorney.

Guests present were: Sgt. John Mitchell, Michelle Akan, Eren Akan, Jim Schott, Diane Schott, Lonnie Schott, Patrick Doggett, and Heidi.

Following the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Mayor Joyner, Brian Verdun moved to approve the minutes of the June 9 regular board meeting; seconded by Trustee Fearman. All approved by roll call vote.

While the clerk, Iris Thorne, and treasurer, Jim Rebholz, were absent, Mayor

Joyner reported the treasurer had supplied copies of a YTD Fund Summary and an MTD treasurer's report, with bank balances for the month ending June 30 as follows:

Odell Checking	$43,647.64
Odell Savings	$81,640.52
Illinois Fnds Gen.
Fund Check.	$249,114.37
Illinois Funds
MFT Check.	$120,969.36
General Fund
CDs	$224,275.09
Odell Tourism	$26,916.44

Trustee Johnson moved to approve the treasurer's report, and Trustee Verdun seconded. All approved.

All due bills for the Village and all due bills for Tourism - for July - were presented and payment approved. Additional bills, not on the Board Listing Reports, were presented for payment: Larry's Sales & Service, $407.53; Route 66 Accessories Co., $368.87; and Debbie Mosher, $60.00. Trustee Weaver moved to approve payment of bills on the Listing Reports plus additional bills; seconded by Wykes, with approval by all.

Sgt. John Mitchell reported 27 calls and four citations issued in June. He also reported that surrounding towns were recipients of solicitation from the KKK; no threats, just information thrown in residents' yards.

Attorney Legner explained that the language in the garbage contract has been updated, and the contract is ready to be signed by the Mayor. The contract will expire May 31, 2016.

Mayor Joyner reported that estimates are not complete for the Elk Street Project, which was tabled until the August meeting.

The Appropriation for Fiscal Year 2014-15 was presented. Johnson moved to approve the Appropriation, seconded by Verdun. All approved.

The Clearwell update was moved to executive session, entered at 8:15 and exited at 8:36 p.m.

Under miscellaneous business, Fearman mentioned that the Odell Historic Gas Station was recently featured in an article in Midwest Living magazine. The Village made a donation to the Odell Library in memory of Dale Welch, the Village Building Inspector for several years, who recently passed away.

Michelle Akan of Kenevir Farms Pharmaceutical Cannabis Manufacturing gave a presentation to the board of their proposed Cannabis Manufacturing plant, which if they receive a permit from the State, would be located just within the city limits on the northwest corner of Odell. She pointed out the benefits the plant would bring to the community and asked for support from the community.

Lee Cleary submitted a petition for a variance on the height of a proposed shed on his property. The petition will be moved to the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Trustee Wykes will research whether there are grants available to replace the lighting at the American Legion Miller Park ball field.

Trustee Weaver suggested that the Village begin a program to replace sidewalks within the Village. The Mayor stated the engineers are researching available grants for that type of project.

At 8:37 p.m., Trustee Johnson moved the Board go into executive session for the purpose of discussing personnel salary and benefits. Trustee Verdun seconded, and all approved. After exiting executive session at 9:05 p.m., the meeting was adjourned.

President Rita Mills called the meeting to order by giving the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. She thanked Pam and CNN.

There was a silent prayer for the ill and deceased members, elected officials, and the military. A sympathy card was signed for the Nicols on their loss of their son-in-law.

Anne Holohan, from Quality Home Health, reminded members of all the services available to them for care in the home and brought cookies and prizes for Bingo.

Members sang Happy Birthday to Doris Nicol, and Shirley Kiss offered a reading.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved.

Door prizes went to Frank Phillips, Shirley Kiss and Helen Griffiths.

Shirley Kiss made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Lou Witt seconded.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, August 19, with Euchre starting at 10:30 a.m. and Bingo following the business meeting.

Anyone 60 or older is invited to lunch for a small donation. Make a reservation by calling Community Nutrition Network at 815-941-1590.

Chatsworth Corner

by Mare Reardanz

Chatsworth is fortunate to have dedicated citizens like Jim and Ruth McGreal. They have been collecting and displaying Chatsworth memorabilia for ages. The McGreal museum is open to everyone during McGathering events. This last weekend hosted a Corvette club from Downers Grove called the Windy City Corvettes. The Club takes periodic drives to enjoy their cars and get out of the city. There were many Corvettes participating and enjoying lunch in beautiful downtown Chatsworth. Some of the exhibits in the museum include:

McGreal's father's Model B 1936 steel wheeled tractor. His Dad and this tractor were highlighted in the 1942 Farm Journal's Feature story from 1942. The tractor has been fully restored and is one of the highlights in McGreal's collection.

There are the bird mounts made by Mrs. Stodemeyer for her Chatsworth High School science classes back about the 1930's. These beautiful taxidermy birds are still housed in the custom case Mr. Bill Haberkorn made with his Industrial Arts Classes at the school. You will find artifacts from the Chatsworth train wreck, including the actual lunch box that held the lunch for a passenger on that fateful night. The theater stage curtain from the Grand, and advertising signs from local businesses that adorned that curtain back in the day.

On the North wall, mahogany and glass display cases are filled with items that have been donated and are dear to local families. These cases are 20 feet long and were lovingly dismantled and relocated from the Fairbury Paint store when it closed.

The miniature diorama of the "modern" kitchen including a refrigerator, stove and wringer washing machine showed customers how well they fit into the home. The detail is precise.

There are two baseball uniforms from Chatsworth's traveling baseball team hanging from the ceiling. Joe Smith's 1940 uniform from Larry's Farmall fast pitch softball team and Jerry Birkenbeil's Uncle's uniform from Bartlett Lumber hangs beside it. These were two of the quite popular traveling baseball teams from Chatsworth. Of course Chatsworth only remembers the wins, but the team held their own and traveled extensively.

Finally is the huge 1918 map of the United States. Its reverse side is the State of Illinois donated by Gordon Schroen. It is amazing to see the changes from the map of today. Imagine, no interstate highways! These are just a few of the wonderful memories Chatsworth holds. Jim delights in teaching viewers

Trinity Lutheran Church 160 Year Anniversary and Organ Re-dedication

AMONG THOSE WHO WERE instrumental with the refurbishment of the organ at Trinity Lutheran Church are, from the left: Lois Hahn, original organist Barbara Morphe, Elwood Hahn and Paul Roeder.

The Trinity Lutheran Church, located at 515 E. Stonewall Rd, Dwight, will be celebrating its one hundred and sixtieth Anniversary of Lutheran Church and a rededication of the refurbished pipe organ. Paul Roeder, who initially suggested the organ be restored, also participated in the refurbishing directed by Ron Hartman, along with Elwood (Woody) and Lois Hahn, and Barbara Morphe.

The church held its first worship service in August, 1854, by Mr. and Mrs. Fruehwirth. Reverend Henry Wunder was key to its first location, on Goodfarm Road. The congregation also built the first sanctuary in 1861, later moving to their present location in 1864. They went on to build a second building in 1975, which served as the Education Building.

In 1899, the new church was built, with much of the labor being donated. A new fellowship hall was added in 1991, and both are still in use today.

The Hymn Festival and re-dedication is planned for August 17, with refreshments following afterward. The congregation's original organist, Barbara Morphe, along with several guest organists, including George McComb, Verona; Fred Kieslar, Mazon; Mrs. Linda Beiswanger, Texas; and David Green, Indiana, will play at the celebration.

The organ, which is 115 years old, is a tracker mechanical playing system, according to Ronal Harman, containing four ranks of manual pipes and one set of pedal pipes, totalling 300 pipes. Interestingly, the parts for this instrument are still manufactured, as compared with present day electronic organs which, in another 20 to 25 years, may not have parts readily available. The organ has been with the church since 1899.

Roeder contacted Hartman after the electric organ stopped working. Hartman currently refurbishes instruments as a hobby. The cost of the restoration was primarily funded by donation, with 50 to 75 percent of the organ being taken apart.

Several of the church members assisted in the refurbishment, washing pipes, sanding foot pedals, and breathing new life back into an instrument that hadn't been played in about 50 years.

"There were pipes of all sizes laid out on the table," said Lois Hahn. "They ranged from the size of a small pen to the size of the table." Lois also washed out the pipes, discovering there was coal dust left over from the early days of the church, when the sanctuary was heated using coal.

Paul Roeder, who also assisted, described the entire process, which included sending the keys to Milwaukee, and the installation of a new reservoir. The organ, when built in 1899 was hand pumped to get keys to play, which created a sweaty job for one lucky parish; one in the summers. The old reservoir had to be replaced because it was leaking air.

"It was fun," said Roeder. "We all learned a great deal about the organ, as well as our church."

Minutes with Boma

Lollapalooza

Lollapalooza 2014. The first one I've ever attended and I only attended one day of it, the Sunday of the three-day event. Never have I attended any event that had an overlying atmosphere like this did. Every second was filled with excitement even when nothing was happening. It was something out of a movie. Being someone who really appreciates live music, it was better than what I could've hoped for going into it. The day was interesting from the get-go because of the rain, there were probably four or five times throughout the day where it rained hard enough to want to not be in the rain at all. The first time, we didn't really know how to react so our first choice of cover and clearly the most logical was to hide in porta potties to avoid the rain. Little did we know that it would turn into the second coming of the Alamo because after about 10 minutes of rain it turned out that people actually had to use the bathroom, and since that's what the intended purpose of the porte potties is, it led to them not being very happy about the fact that almost every one of them was locked. The Alamo pt 2 ended differently though in the fact that none of us died, but it was interesting holding ground in that environment until the rain stopped. The first show we really wanted to see wasn't until 6:45 and about 10 minutes before, it poured, and not your run of the mill pour, if I had brought shampoo and body wash that would have counted as my shower for the day. Normally that would be terrible but it kind of added to the set, full of energy for an hour, everyone was soaked, just an amazing feel throughout the show. This all led up to the headliner that I had wanted to see all day which was Chance The Rapper. I've never seen a performer radiate so much positive energy throughout a set. Over 50,000 people attended his set and he even brought out R Kelly at one point. It was Chicago's biggest stage, and Chicago's newest star took full advantage of the opportunity, the trumpets, the choir to back him, the keys everything added together to make it the best overall live show I've taken in. It was truly captivating.

Your Legacy Is in Your Hands

Unless you keep close track of obscure holidays and observances, you probably didn't know that August is "What Will Be Your Legacy? Month." Still, you might want to use this particular month as a useful reminder to take action on what could be one of your most important financial goals: leaving a meaningful legacy.

A legacy isn't simply a document or a bunch of numbers — it's what you will be remembered for, and what you have left behind that will be remembered. It's essentially your chance to contribute positively to the future, whether that means providing financial resources for the next generation, helping those charitable organizations whose work you support, or a combination of both.

To create your legacy, you'll need to do some planning. And you can start by asking yourself a couple of key questions:

What are your goals? When you think about leaving a legacy, what comes to mind? First and foremost, you may well want to leave enough money to help your own grown children meet their financial goals. After that, you probably have other things you'd like to accomplish. Perhaps you want to provide resources for your grandchildren to attend college? Or set up a scholarship at your own alma mater? Give financial support to a cultural, social, religious or scientific group? By thinking about your goals and putting them on paper, even in an informal sense, you'll be taking the important first step in leaving the legacy you desire.

How can you turn your goals into reality? If you don't take some concrete steps, your legacy just won't materialize. And the most important step you need to take is to create a comprehensive estate plan. Your estate plan can be quite involved, because it may involve several legal documents, such as a will, living trust, health care power of attorney, and so on. In creating these materials, you will need to work with your legal and tax advisors because estate planning is definitely not a "do-it-yourself" endeavor.

You probably shouldn't wait until you are deep into retirement to take action on your estate plan because developing the necessary documents and arrangements can take a fair amount of time — and you'll want to make these preparations when you're in good mental and physical health. Also, the longer you wait to set up your estate plan, the less likely it will be that you've communicated your wishes clearly to your family members, who may end up unsure about what you want and what their roles are in carrying out your plans — and that's an outcome you certainly don't want to see.

In fact, clear communications are essential to developing a successful estate plan. You should not only tell your family members — and anyone else affected by your estate plan — what you are thinking of doing but also inform them about the professionals with whom you are working and the locations in which you are storing any vital documents, such as your will.

By identifying your goals, working with the appropriate professionals to create an effective estate plan, and communicating regularly with your family members and other "key players" in your life, you can go a long way toward leaving the legacy you desire. So, do what it takes to launch that legacy.

WGGGS To Hold Meeting Aug. 9

The Will/Grundy Genealogical Society will hold their monthly meeting on Saturday, August 9, at 10:00 a.m. at the Coal City Public Library, 85 N. Garfield, Coal City.

The program will be given by Gary Ward, the president of the Lockport Genealogical and Historical Society. Entitled "Brunson-Sisson Cemetery Revisited," it will tell the story of an old pioneer cemetery which was threatened by encroaching development and was moved in 1998.

Gary had presented an earlier version of this program to WGGGS, and now with newly added material, he will give another look at the cemetery's history. Further details of the people, their life stories, and more pictures will update the powerful presentation.

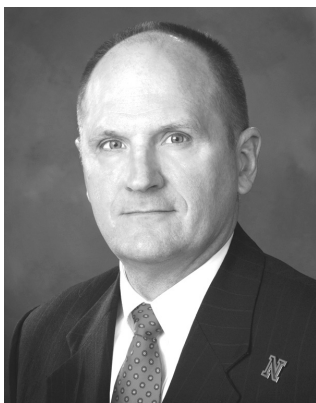

Also at this meeting, there will be the election of WGGGS officers for the 2014-2015 year. Members and guests will be treated to an old-fashioned ice cream social.

Curt Weller Named Fellow of ASABE

The American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers (ASABE) has named 12 individuals as ASABE Fellows. They were inducted at a ceremony on July 14 during the 2014 ASABE Annual International Meeting, held in Montreal, Quebec.

Named to the class of 2014 ASABE Fellows was former Dwight resident Curtis L. Weller, PE, director, Department of Food Science and Technology, University of Nebraska, for his outstanding contributions in teaching, curriculum development, assessment, ABET accreditation, professional service, engineering licensure, research, and outreach in food security.

To be considered for the grade of ASABE Fellow, an individual must demonstrate unusual professional distinction, with outstanding qualifications and experience in the field of agricultural engineering. Twenty years' membership in ASABE is also required. Only about two percent of the active members of ASABE have achieved the grade of Fellow.

The American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers is an international scientific and educational organization dedicated to the advancement of engineering applicable to agricultural, food, and biological systems. Its members, from more than 100 countries, are consultants, managers, researchers, and others who have the training and experience to understand the interrelationships between technology and living systems.

Benzik Baby Benefit

On Saturday, August 23, the Benzik Baby Benefit will be held at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, located on the corner of Rt. 17 and Rt. 47, Dwight. Lunch will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and supper will be served from 4 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., with a silent auction taking place during both of these times.

The benefit will feature a Spaghetti Supper with all the fixings, the aforementioned silent auction, and various local entertainers.

Currently, the entertainment scheduled for the day is as follows: Ben Montalbano, 11 a.m.; The Bruce Richardson Barber Shop Quartet, 12:15 p.m.; Miss Alexandra Lee (time to be determined); The Vermillion Valley Show Choir, 6 p.m.

As the benefit draws closer, more information on additional performers will be available, so watch closely for updates in The Paper.

Gardner Village Board Approves Ditch Cleaning

The Gardner Village Board opened their regular meeting on July 28 with a discussion and approval of the bid of $2,750 from Fatlan Construction to complete cleaning of the East Street drainage ditch and pursue reimbursement from the owners.

Village Attorney Scott Belt reported the property appears to be owned by Ellis Enterprises and he spoke to one of the listed owners and they are interested in working with the village to correct the issue. Based on a conversation between Belt and Village Building Inspector Dean Rankovich, the owners appear interested in redirecting the water to the existing culvert. Belt also commented it is Rankovich's belief that allowing Fatlan to complete the ditch is the Village's best option.

Belt next verified with the Board that they received his memo stating the Village did not violate the Open Meetings Act as was alleged in a recent complaint. The complaint regarded a special meeting the board held to advance TIF funds to the Gardner Fire Protection District. The complaint suggested the lack of public comment at the meeting violated the Act. Regarding a zoning issue carried over from the previous two meetings, Belt commented that based on his research, the Cooper/O'Hare property is zoned B2 commercial rather than manufacturing, placing the signs in question in violation of the current code. The signs have since been removed and Belt stated the landlord is in dialogue with the village and is cooperative.

Commissioner Dick Hileman reported he has not been able to contact United Lutheran Church President Joe Spezio regarding the used clothing box in front of the church. A neighbor has complained that the box, being on Village property, presents an eyesore. Church member Don Phillips, who was in attendance as a resident and member of the press, stated if all that needs to be done is for the box to be on Church property, he will see that the box is moved and communicate with the Church Council. The board agreed moving the box would solve the issue and thanked Phillips for his assistance. Hileman is also checking the status of the agreement between the Village and the Church of Hope regarding the status of the church's gravel parking lot, which was allowed on a five-year, temporary basis pending church funds.

The board entered executive session at 7:22 p.m.

Station 343 hosted its 2nd annual car show recently, where they held a 50/50 raffle in which proceeds were donated to the Dwight Fire Protection District. Station 343 donated their half, as well as some additional money to the District. Herb Wyeth, who is coordinator of the Morris Illinois Cruise nights, also sent a donation for the Dwight Fire Protection District. The donations totaled $300 and will be used to help with the upcoming Basic Operations Fire Academy being hosted in Dwight this fall. All of the members, as well as the District trustees, would like to extend a big thank you to Station 343, all their staff, Herb Wyeth, as well as all of the participants and visitors during the car show. Above, Station 343 owner, Pete Meister, center, presents the check to the Dwight Firemen.
