Be Aware of Panhandlers and Scams -- Dwight Police

The Dwight Police Department has issued the following alert to Dwight residents:

Panhandlers who are currently residing in Dwight have been begging in front of local businesses. Subjects have used several excuses to try to con people into giving them money.

These people have gone door to door in neighborhoods within the community. They have even solicited at the local nursing home, demanding money and drugs (prescription medications). To date police have made two arrests.

Chief Henson is asking the residents and business owners to be cautious and call Dwight Police Department 815-584-3131 immediately so corrective action can be taken.

If there is no answer, please call 911. Thank you for helping make Dwight a better and safer place to live.

Braidwood Generating Station to Host Community Info Night

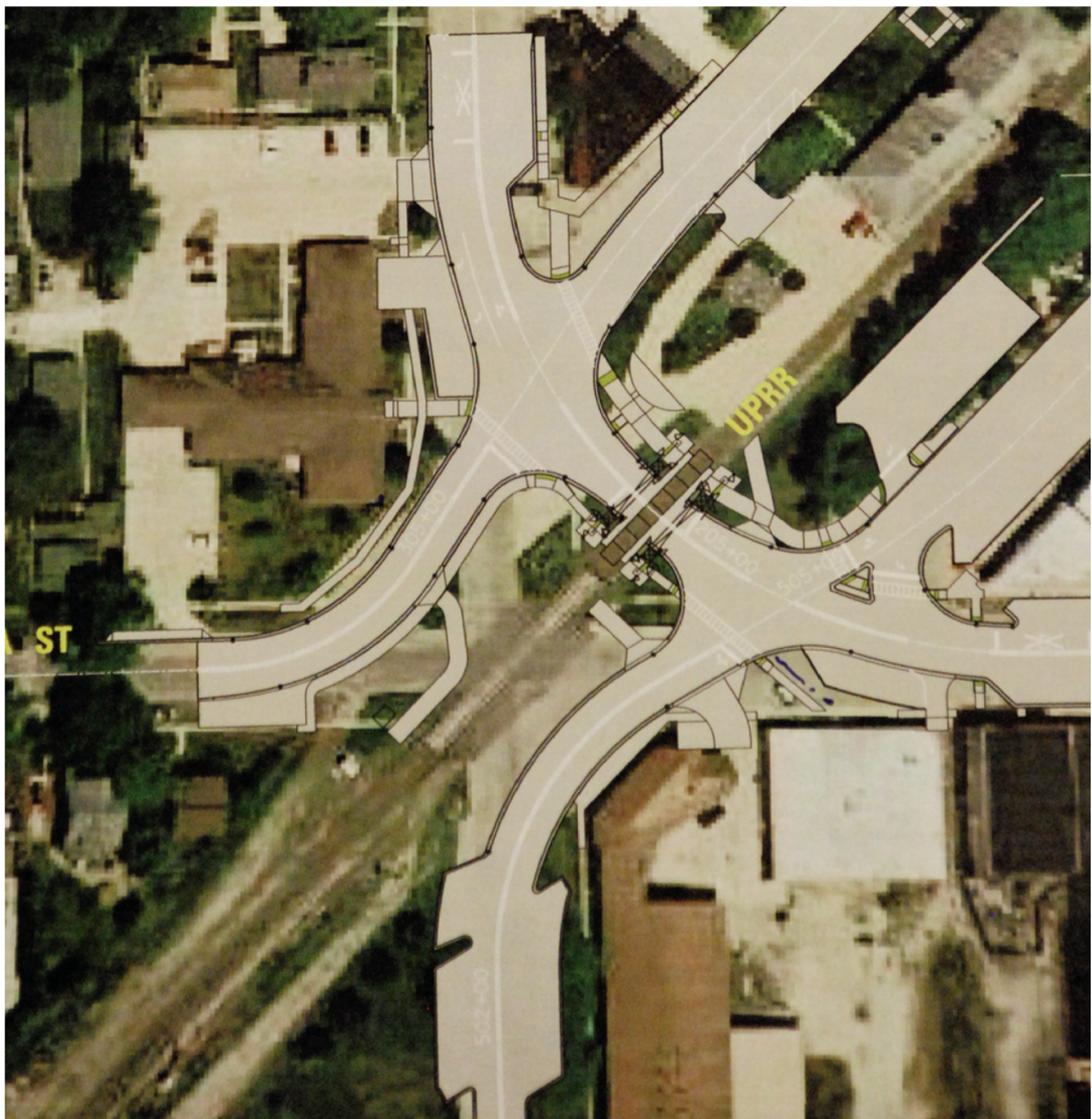

Ever wonder how electricity is generated at a nuclear power plant or what goes on in a plant's control room? At a Community Information Night hosted by Braidwood Generating Station find the answers to those questions and more.

The free, child-friendly open house will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16, at Exelon's Services and Training Center at 36400 S. Essex Rd., Wilmington.

Braidwood Station employees will be on hand to talk with visitors about plant operations, enhancements to the station and the many benefits of nuclear energy.

Visitors can tour the main control room simulator used to train reactor operators and have an opportunity to meet and view demonstrations by Neutron, the Braidwood Police Department's crime fighting dog. Informational handouts and refreshments will be provided.

Braidwood Generating Station is approximately 60 miles southwest of Chicago. The station's two nuclear energy units can produce a total of more than 2,300 megawatts of carbon free electricity – enough to power more than 2 million typical homes.

A HIGH SPEED RAIL architect's depiction of the revised Prairie Avenue / Chippewa St. crossing in Dwight is shown above. Crossing changes will also take place at the Rt. 17 / Franklin St. intersection.

Dwight's High-Speed Rail Crossing Improvements Slated for 2015

Concerns Raised at October 6 Public Meeting

by Madelyn Fogarty
madelynfogarty@yahoo.com

It is clear that the Chicago to St Louis High Speed Rail project is going to have an impact on Dwight's downtown area, but what exactly that impact is still is not clear. At a special meeting on October 6, Village Officials along with concerned business owners and residents gathered to ask questions and learn more about the proposed plan for downtown Dwight crossing improvements.

crossing and the Mazon Avenue / Franklin Street crossing. A main concern with both crossings is that these streets intersect on the railroad tracks – something that will have to be changed. The Mazon / Franklin crossing will be moved with Franklin Street being curved west through a currently vacant corner lot where it will then meet Mazon Avenue. The Chippewa / Prairie intersection will be rerouted as well, shifting it to the north. Both changes will eliminate the intersections from crossing on the rail tracks. In addition, secured crossings with new gate systems will be added.

The street reconfiguration along with ADA sidewalk requirements mean a critical change for business owners in the area – a loss of parking spaces. Local business owners expressed their concerns about this potential impact.

"Our goal is a neutral impact to parking," McCormick told the group. "We plan to put in as many spaces as we take out."

However, where these new spaces are located may not be conducive to giving easy access to the downtown area businesses impacted. For example, business owners along the 100 block of E. Chippewa Street will see the mandatory removal of eight parking spaces in one section and could see four of six parking spaces removed in another with no new spaces added in the immediate area.

Concerns were also raised regarding aging water mains which run under the areas slated to be reconfigured, but according to McCormick, water line issues will not be addressed.

"It is beyond our scope to replace village owned utilities," said McCormick.

Village Administrator Kevin McNamara conceded that, if funds were available, it would be a good time to replace water mains under the Mazon Avenue area; however, that project would come with an estimated $1.2 million price tag. McNamara also suggested that, with the downtown area work that would need to take place, it would be an ideal time to rebuild downtown sidewalks, curbs, add new street lights and repave downtown areas adjacent to East and West Main streets – a project with an estimated price tag of $2 – $2.5 million – all monies outside of the project scope and without a current source. However, part of the project, and paid for with project funds, will be asphalt resurfacing of East and West Main Streets.

McCormick will take concerns along with detour suggestions back to IDOT and the Illinois Commerce Commission for consideration before final plan approval.

Foster Mother Found Guilty of First Degree Murder

On October 7, a Livingston County jury returned guilty verdicts against Heather Lamie, the foster mother charged in the death of four-year old, Kianna Rudesill.

Rudesill, who along with several other siblings had been placed in the foster-care of Lamie, was transported to Pontiac's hospital on the afternoon of May 3, 2011, suffering from seizure-like symptoms. It was determined Kianna had suffered serious head trauma and was experiencing bleeding on her brain. She was then Life-Flighted to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria, where she underwent surgery in an attempt to reduce swelling of her brain. Ultimately, doctors' efforts were unsuccessful and Kianna was pronounced dead on May 4, 2011. An autopsy determined her death was caused by a subdural hematoma and cerebral injuries due to blunt force trauma.

Lamie was charged in June of 2013 and her trial commenced on September 22, 2014. Following jury selection and eight days of testimony, the jury began deliberations on the afternoon of October 7 and returned its verdicts just before noon. Lamie was found guilty of First Degree Murder and Endangering the Life or Health of a Child.

"I believe the jury followed the evidence and reached the right verdict. There are no winners in a case like this, but it's my hope that this verdict will help provide some amount of resolution for Kianna's family. The person responsible for Kianna's death will now be held to account for her actions," said Livingston County State's Attorney Seth Uphoff, who tried the case with Kankakee County Assistant State's Attorney Scott Ripley.

Following the verdicts, Lamie was taken into custody and a sentencing hearing is scheduled for November 21, 2014. Due to the age of the victim, Lamie now faces a mandatory sentence of "natural life in prison" on the First Degree Murder conviction.

Dwight's High-Speed Rail Crossing - - -

Dwight's high-speed rail portion is expected to be complete by the end of 2015. According to IDOT, the high-speed rail improvements will result in Amtrak trains reaching and sustaining speeds of 110 miles-per-hour over more than 150 miles across Illinois. The high-speed rail upgrade is part of Governor Quinn's $31 billion Illinois Jobs Now! program, which claims to be supporting more than 439,000 jobs over six years. Illinois Jobs Now! is the largest construction program in Illinois history, and is one of the largest construction programs in the nation.

Pontiac-Oakland Automobile Museum Celebrates Third Year

The Pontiac-Oakland Automobile Museum and Resource Center recently celebrated its third anniversary. The museum is the result of a collaboration between Pontiac car collectors Tim and Penny Dye and the City of Pontiac. Over the course of the last few years, the museum has seen thousands of visitors and experienced some impressive growth.

The displays in the museum are regularly changed, keeping it fresh, even for return visitors. On average, there are 15 to 17 classic Pontiac or Oakland autos on display. Most have been lovingly restored, although there are a few that have been preserved as "barn finds." The museum relies on memberships and donations to fund its operations.

In September, the museum co-hosted the GTO AA regional meet and show where over 200 classic Pontiac cars filled the downtown Pontiac square. Hundreds of car enthusiasts admired some wonderful classics and seemed to have a great time. Special guest at the event was Bill Porter, one of the original designers of the Pontiac GTO.

According to Tim Dye, Director of the Museum, "It was a great weekend event. The weather was cooperative, the cars were very cool, and the city did its usual job of welcoming everyone." The meet and show have been scheduled to occur in Pontiac next year as well.

Route 66 Attraction Gets Something New

The 1942 Illinois State Police District 6 headquarters, one of the truly unique attractions along historic Route 66, recently added a new element. An iron silhouette of a State Police Motorcycle Officer has been erected at the site of the old HQ.

The building served as the ISP District 6 headquarters from 1942 through 2003, when a new building was constructed inside the city limits of Pontiac. The HQ was one of the very few that was located directly on old Route 66. Part of the building's charm can only be seen from an aerial view. When seen from above, it becomes clear that the building was designed in the shape of a handgun.

Currently the building is vacant, although there have been discussions about how to utilize the facility in the future.

Shop Local, Shop Illinois

The Dwight Economic Alliance, Illinois Main Street and the Illinois Department of Agriculture are challenging every household to buy Illinois products.

If everyone in Illinois would pledge to spend just $10 each week on products grown or made in Illinois, more than 47 million dollars would be re-invested in the Illinois economy in just one month. That is a tremendous amount of support for this state's businesses, many that are owned by or employ family and friends.

To take the pledge or view a list of Illinois agricultural products, visit the Illinois Department of Agriculture website at www.agr.state.il.us/markets.

Dwight Historical Society To Meet October 20

The Dwight Historical Society will hold its regular meeting of business in the Village Depot on West Main Street Monday, October 20, at 7 p.m.

The program for the evening will be viewing the interview with Harley Schmitt recorded by Alex McWilliams shortly before Harley's death at the age of 101. The video and display by Mary and Bill Flott was a highlight of Harvest Days.

The business portion of the meeting will include election of officers for 2015 and plans for the upcoming Ghost Walk on November 1 at 6, 7 and 8 p.m. "The Spirits of Dwight - A Walking Tour" will include the Country Mansion, Prairie Creek Public Library, the Keeley office building (across the street from the Country Mansion), Fox Center, Emling Florist and Hotel Frances.

Tours are limited to around 20, so reservations will be made by calling Bev Jensen at 815-584-3728.

The tour will begin on the patio at the Country Mansion and continue to Main Street. A fee is asked to be collected at the time of the tour since bad weather could require cancellation of the event.

All who have an interest in Dwight history are welcome to attend. Meetings of The Society are open to the public.

Dwight Historical Society Extended Temporary Exhibits Until Nov. 8

The Dwight Historical Society is extending two temporary exhibits until November 8. Both were created for Harvest Days weekend, but with the many available activities during those days, many people may not have had the opportunity to visit the museum.

Anyone interested in life in Dwight and on the farm from the early 1900's until the present will appreciate the collection of the late Harley Schmitt, as well as the video Alex McWilliams made with Harley shortly before his passing. Harley was a great storyteller with a wonderful memory, and the video captures great insight into Harley and the times he lived.

Equally interesting is the Dwight Woman's Club display showcasing the 100-year history of that organization.

The museum is open on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month and by appointment.

Reservations are still being accepted for the first ever Dwight Historical Society Ghost Walk - "The Spirits of Dwight." The walking tour will take place Saturday, November 1, with groups leaving the Country Mansion patio at 6:00 p.m., 7:00 p.m., and 8:00 p.m.

Call Bev Jensen at 815-584-3728 for more information and to guarantee a place on the tour.

DTHS Drama Department to Perform "Play On" November 6 and 7

The DTHS Drama Department will be presenting its annual fall play Thursday, November 6 and Friday, November 7 in the DTHS Auditorium. Both performances will begin at 7 p.m. and tickets will be available at the door.

"Play On," a comedy by Rick Abbot, is the hilarious story of a theater group trying desperately to put on a play in spite of maddening interference from a haughty author who keeps revising the script.

Act one features a rehearsal of the dreadful show, act two is the near disastrous dress rehearsal, and the final act is the actual performance in which anything that can go wrong does. It's sure to be a 'can't miss' performance by the DTHS Drama Department.

Gardner Southeastern Grundy County Senior Citizens Meet

The Gardner Southeastern Grundy County Senior Citizens met for their regular monthly meeting at the Gardner Restaurant.

Eight members in attendance placed their order from the menu, which was served by Kim.

The group recited the "Lord's Prayer" for the table grace.

With the sound of the gavel, Pres. Lorraine Hansen opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag. All who were able, stood.

The birthdays for the month were: Linn Winter and Margaret Fjelde. Linn was in attendance, Margaret is recuperating from hip surgery. Happy Birthday was sung.

Shirley and Randy Clapp celebrated 52 years of wedded bliss on October 18.

The secretary's report was next on the agenda. It was read and approved by a voice vote.

The treasurer's report was given - anticipating some changes of funds at the November meeting.

Shut-ins and Honorary Members were mentioned. They were: Rosemary, Evelyn, Irene, June and Florence.

Jackie Marks submitted no card report.

Birthday and Card Party was held on Thursday.

Barb Brooks served cakes as her hostess treat.

Coming Community Events:

- Saturday, October 18 - Church of Hope - Beef and Chicken Supper, 4:30-6:30 p.m.

- Friday, October 31 - Treat in the Trunk at Church of Hope, 4:00-6:00 p.m.

The Gardner Archives at Village hall will be open 1:00-3:00 p.m. the second Wednesday of each month.

Florence Kennedy will be 97-years old on November 4. A card will be sent.

The next meeting (Thanksgiving meal) will be hosted by the club.

The "Share Time" was given by Barb Brooks. She passed for viewing her husband's (Bill) baby cup, sterling silver with his initials engraved (W.L.B.) on it. A gift of the Treasure family (the cup is 77-years old).

Another item was a Whatsit? It was decided it was an ornate bottle cap from some cosmetic.

Ida Schopp showed two ribbons she won at the Corn Festival Hobby Show - first place for the division and the large ribbon for the best of show; a hand-crocheted bedspread made from a pattern of Irene Huston's was a winner.

Mary Ann will be the next Show and Tell.

Ida gave a report of a very informative program she attended in Morris, given by the Community Foundation of Grundy County. The subject, "Is Grundy Co. a retirement friendly community?"

There were four main points:

- 1) need affordable housing
- 2) transportation
- 3) healthcare
- 4) close to family so they can stay in their own homes
- 5) an additional need was mentioned - handyman availability.

The meeting was adjourned by Pres. Hansen, telling a reminiscing story of Merlan Melbourne, a custodian at Gardner Grade School for 38 years. How he'd take kids aside and polish their shoes.

The next meeting will be on November 4 - same place, same time.

Open Enrollment: A Great Time to Review Your Retirement Plan If you work for a medium-to-large company, you may now be entering the "open enrollment" period — that time of year when you get to make changes to your employee benefits. Your benefit package can be a big piece of your overall financial picture, so you'll want to make the right moves — especially in regard to your employer-sponsored retirement plan. Take a close look at your 401(k) or similar plan, such as a 403(b), if you work for a school or a nonprofit group, or a 457(b), if you work for a state or local government. And keep these possible moves in mind: Boost your contributions. If your salary has gone up over the past year, or if you just think you have a reasonable "cushion" in your disposable income, boost your contributions to your employer-sponsored retirement plan. Even if you can't afford to contribute the maximum amount — which, in 2014, is $17,500, or $23,000 if you're 50 or older — to your 401(k) or similar plan, try to put in as much as you can afford. Remember the key benefits of these plans: Your money can grow tax deferred and your contributions can lower your annual taxable income. (Keep in mind, though, that you will eventually be taxed on your withdrawals, and any withdrawals you take before you reach 59½ may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty.) Don't miss the match. Try to take full advantage of your employer's matching contribution, if one is offered. Your employer may match 50% of employee contributions, up to the first 6% of your salary. So if you're only deferring 3% of your income, you are missing half the match — or leaving money "on the table," so to speak. Rebalance, if necessary. You may be able to change the investment mix of your employer-sponsored retirement plan throughout the year, but you might find that the best time to review your holdings and rebalance your portfolio is during open enrollment, when you're reviewing all your benefit options. Try to determine if your investment allocation is still appropriate for your needs or if you own some investments that are chronically underperforming. And always keep in mind the need to diversify. Try to spread your money around a variety of investments within your plan, with the exact percentages of each investment depending on your goals, risk tolerance and time horizon. As you near retirement, you may need to lower your overall risk level, but even at this stage of your career, you'll benefit from a diversified portfolio. While diversification can't guarantee a profit or protect against loss, it can help reduce the impact of volatility on your holdings. Review your beneficiary designations. Your retirement plan's beneficiary designations are important and, in fact, can even supersede the wishes you express in your will. So if you experience changes in your life — marriage, remarriage, a birth or an adoption, etc. — you'll need to update the beneficiary designations on your 401(k) or similar plan. It won't take much time today — and it can help prevent a lot of trouble tomorrow. You work hard for the money that goes into your retirement plan —so make sure your plan is working hard for you. ### Tri-Point NHS Activities for 2014-15

The Tri-Point National Honor Society has elected officers and begun planning activities for the upcoming school year.

Elections were held at the September meeting; current members include Katy Haag (president), Lauren Mohler (vice president), Lindsey Margewich (secretary), Jared Haeme (treasurer), Gail Sievert (historian), Brandon Wilkerson, Katy Malone, Cara Kelley and Braden Ifft.

The group has already completed one project, which was a food drive during Homecoming week. They were able to donate 750 items to the Piper City food pantry.

The group also plans to help with a local toy drive for Christmas to support the Cullom Christmas Giveaway. They will have their Christmas Spirit Week, December 1 through 5, to collect toys for the drive.

A spaghetti supper at the high school in Cullom is scheduled for Friday, January 23.

Along with these events, members visit the nursing home in Piper City monthly and make crafts with the elderly.

The group is also running a candy gram program where students will receive a bag of candy with an inspirational quote for the week.

The goal is to offer encouragement to the students of Tri-Point and give them a reason to smile.

NHS also plans on having a 5k run on May 17, 2015, at the Cullom Park. Last spring the 5k Run/Walk for the American Cancer Society generated $8,065.44. Two-hundred people attended, 66 of which were runners. The top female runner was Ashley Outhouse, and the top male runner was Chris Koerner.

More information about the National Honor Society can be found at their homepage, www.triointschools.org; click on high school clubs and organizations.

Local zombies will take to the street to perform Michael Jackson's Thriller dance in unison with over 90 other events in 16 different countries to date. Each event has the opportunity to raise funds for a charity of their choice.

The zombies have ranged in ages from four to 67, and anyone can learn the dance.

Free classes to learn the entire Thriller dance are held at Ne's Place in Piper City every Tuesday from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Not only will you learn the dance, you will be given a practice CD and the step sheet to practice at home.

For those unable to make it to the classes, there will be a crash course to learn the dance on the day of the event, starting at noon. Go as you are or zombie up for a bit of fun.

To the Electors of the State of Illinois:

The purpose of a state constitution is to establish a structure for government and laws. There are three ways to initiate change to the Illinois Constitution: (1) a constitutional convention may propose changes to any part; (2) the General Assembly may propose changes to any part; or (3) a petition initiative may propose amendments limited to structural and procedural subjects contained in the Legislative Article. The people of Illinois must approve any changes to the Constitution before they become effective.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 8.1 OF ARTICLE I OF THE ILLINOIS CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I – BILL OF RIGHTS

SECTION 8.1. CRIME VICTIMS' VICTIM'S RIGHTS.

- (a) Crime victims, as defined by law, shall have the following rights ~~as provided by law:~~
  - (1) The right to be treated with fairness and respect for their dignity and privacy ~~and to be free from harassment, intimidation, and abuse~~ throughout the criminal justice process.
  - (2) ~~The right to notice and to a hearing before a court ruling on a request for access to any of the victim's records, information, or communications which are privileged or confidential by law.~~
  - (3) ~~(2)~~ The right to timely notification of all court proceedings.
  - (4) ~~(3)~~ The right to communicate with the prosecution.
  - (5) ~~(4)~~ ~~The right to be heard at any post-arraignment court proceeding in which a right of the victim is at issue and any court proceeding involving a post-arraignment release decision, plea, or sentencing, make a statement to the court at sentencing.~~
  - (6) ~~(5)~~ The right to be notified of information about the conviction, the sentence, the imprisonment, and the release of the accused.
  - (7) ~~(6)~~ The right to timely disposition of the case following the arrest of the accused.
  - (8) ~~(7)~~ The right to be reasonably protected from the accused throughout the criminal justice process.
  - (9) ~~The right to have the safety of the victim and the victim's family considered in denying or fixing the amount of bail, determining whether to release the defendant, and setting conditions of release after arrest and conviction.~~
  - (10) ~~(8)~~ The right to be present at the trial and all other court proceedings on the same basis as the accused, unless the victim is to testify and the court determines that the victim's testimony would be materially affected if the victim hears other testimony at the trial.
  - (11) ~~(9)~~ The right to have present at all court proceedings, subject to the rules of evidence, an advocate ~~and~~ ~~or~~ other support person of the victim's choice.
  - (12) ~~(10)~~ The right to restitution.
- (b) ~~The victim has standing to assert the rights enumerated in subsection (a) in any court exercising jurisdiction over the case. The court shall promptly rule on a victim's request. The victim does not have party status. The accused does not have standing to assert the rights of a victim. The court shall not appoint an attorney for the victim under this Section. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to alter the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the prosecuting attorney. The General Assembly may provide by law for the enforcement of this Section.~~
- (c) The General Assembly may provide for an assessment against convicted defendants to pay for crime victims' rights.
- (d) ~~Nothing in this Section or any law enacted under this Section creates a cause of action in equity or at law for compensation, attorney's fees, or damages against the State, a political subdivision of the State, an officer, employee, or agent of the State or of any political subdivision of the State, or an officer or employee of the court, or in any law enacted under~~
- (e) ~~Nothing in this Section or any law enacted under this Section shall be construed as creating (1) a basis for vacating a conviction or (2) a ground for any relief requested by the defendant appellate relief in any criminal case.~~

EXPLANATION

The Constitution sets forth substantial rights for crime victims. The proposed amendment expands certain current rights:

- 1) Victims are currently entitled to fairness and respect throughout the criminal justice process. The amendment would also provide that they shall be protected from harassment, intimidation and abuse.
- 2) Victims currently can make a statement to the court when a criminal defendant is sentenced to punishment. The amendment would allow a victim to be heard at any proceeding that involves the victim's rights, and any proceeding involving a plea agreement, release of the defendant or convicted individual, or sentencing.
- 3) Victims may obtain information about conviction, sentencing, imprisonment or release. The amendment would require prosecutors and the court to notify victims of those events before they happen.

The amendment would also grant additional rights to crime victims:

- 1) A victim would have a right to formal notice and a hearing before the court rules on any request for access to the victim's information which is privileged or confidential information.
- 2) A victim would have the right to have the judge consider the victim's safety and the safety of his or her family before deciding whether to release a criminal defendant, setting the amount of bail to be paid before release, or setting conditions of release after arrest or conviction.
- 3) The victim would have the right to assert his or her rights in any court with jurisdiction over the criminal case, but would not have the same rights as the prosecutor or the criminal defendant and the court could not appoint an attorney for the victim at taxpayer expense.

The proposed amendment would not alter the powers, duties or responsibilities of the prosecutor. Further, a criminal defendant would not be able to challenge his or her conviction on the basis of a failure to follow these provisions.

FORM OF BALLOT

Proposed Amendment to the 1970 Illinois Constitution

Explanation of Amendment

The proposed amendment makes changes to Section 8.1 of Article I of the Illinois Constitution, the Crime Victims' Bill of Rights. The proposed amendment would expand certain rights already granted to crime victims in Illinois, and give crime victims the ability to enforce their rights in a court of law. You are asked to decide whether the proposed amendment should become part of the Illinois Constitution.

YES For the proposed amendment of Section 8.1 of Article I of the Illinois Constitution
NO

The people of Illinois must approve any changes to the Constitution before they become effective.

The proposed amendment adds a new section to the Suffrage and Elections Article of the Illinois Constitution. The section would ensure no person could be denied the right to register to vote or cast a ballot based on his or her race, color, ethnicity, status as a member of a language minority, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or income. At the general election to be held on November 4, 2014, you will be called upon to decide whether the proposed amendment should become part of the Illinois Constitution.

Dwight Township High School Art Teacher, Mark Fiske, Wins Best of Show at Corn Festival

This year, at the Grundy County Corn Festival Art Show, Mark Fiske, the art teacher at Dwight Township High School, won Best of Show for his painting, "Love and Respect."

Based on the values he and his wife, Erin, hold most important to their marriage, the painting was created using a picture of their hands. Their rings, which are engraved with words (his with "Love" and hers with "Respect"), are highlighted in the photo by which the piece was inspired.

Growing up in Morris and graduating in 2002, Mark knew he wanted to become a teacher like his father, who was a high school band director. Fiske then attended Joliet Junior College, and, later on, Olivet Nazarene University, to study education. It was then that he really began to discover his joy for painting.

However, Fiske spends most of his time creating fantasy characters that he hopes will one day become the cast of a children's book, with one such character also taking first place at the art show.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Homecoming Activities

To the young and old that were enjoying the homecoming activities of a couple weeks ago. With that enjoyment they were throwing toilet paper at trees.

When they got to my street they must have run out of toilet paper and trees. They used eggs and broke my window. I had to have the window fixed and it cost a number of peace meals to do it.

So all I'm asking is do not throw at windows, for behind that window might be a grandpa, grandma, kid sister or brother and they could get cut. My father gave me good advice 70 years ago that I will share with you, "Do unto others as you wish to have done unto you."

-Sad Jack on Wilmac

Rauner Time

If Bruce Rauner wins the Governor's race, he will inherit one of the worst states in the nation, one with a $100-billion deficit in its pension funds; $8-billion worth of aging unpaid bills; a state that ranks 49th out of 50 in attracting business.

Allied Van Lines said that Illinois has the second-highest rate of households moving out, second only to New Jersey, the only state in the nation with higher property taxes than Illinois!

Things are not good in Illinois, and they aren't good in Dwight either.

Quinn and his gang gutted a big part of the Dwight area's economic life when they closed the Dwight Correctional Center, using bogus numbers about savings and about fewer female inmates. The Illinois prison system will have 50,000 inmates next year, it spent a record $60-million in overtime last year, and treats inmates like sardines (the Feds are investigating).

Rauner won't miss the millions he's invested in the Governor's race, but it's a paltry sum compared to the taxpayer funds Quinn promises to give back to us before every election — for everything from pretending to fight crime in Chicago (the Feds are investigating) to building bike paths... handouts to get votes from us chumbolones.

If you're Governor, you don't need money to make those promises, you can just issue bonds... more debt for the grandkids — if they haven't moved to Indiana.

Can Rauner solve these problems? Someone has to. Soon. Someone new.

Aren't you tired of living in the worst state in America? -- Tom Tock

Devin Fisher of Gardner South Wilmington High School Crowned Corn Festival Queen

At this year's Corn Festival, Devin Fisher, of Gardner South Wilmington High School, won the title of Queen.

A Junior at GSW, Devin was chosen to be the sole representative of her school at the coronation ceremony out of four other candidates. The process involves an initial vote to determine four candidates from each school in the county. This includes Coal City, Morris, Gardner South Wilmington and, usually, Minooka. However, due to unfortunate scheduling, Minooka's homecoming dance was scheduled for that Friday, and they were unable to attend this year.

The 12 girls are then narrowed down even further, with their classmates picking a single girl out of the four to represent their school. Though this is done ahead of time, all of the girls participate in the coronation, with the winning girls from each school announced on stage.

The Queen is then selected using a drawing, with the former Queen making the ultimate pick. This year, Peighton Shannon drew Devin Fisher's name, upon which she was crowned as the Corn Festival Queen.

The other girls selected to represent their schools this year were: Isabela Garcia of Morris Community High School and Skyler Hibbard of Coal City High School.

The girls on the court host the Kiddie Parade as well as a pie eating contest on Saturday during the Corn Festival, in addition to riding together in the Parade on Sunday.

"Devin loves children," said Jennifer Fisher, Devin's mother. "One of her favorite things about receiving this title has been interacting with them; they all kept asking her if she was a princess."

Interestingly enough, Devin wanted to be a part of the contest because her sister, who is two years older, was picked as an attendant, but was not picked as a candidate. "Devin is extremely honored," her mother commented. "It's been a lot of fun, and she's loved every moment of it."

Devin is the daughter of Brad and Jennifer Fisher.

OBITUARIES

Nathan Severson

EMINGTON – Long before he could drive a tractor, Nate Severson knew he wanted to be a farmer. He grew and worked to realize his dream, spending his time doing what he loved best – caring for his family, friends, and fields. He was proud he was the fifth generation of his family to live and farm in Garfield Township, Grundy County.

Sadly, however, on Saturday, October 4, a tragic farm-related accident ended this dream. Surrounded by his family, on Monday morning, October 6, 2014 at Riverside Hospital, Kankakee, he one last time, as he would phrase it, "paid it forward," to others in need through organ donation.

Nathan "Nate" Dean Severson of rural Emington was born March 30, 1970 in Streator, son of Everett and Dorothy Severson. On a snowy, icy evening, February 12, 1993, he married the love of his life, Sheila Rae Hoegger, in St. Paul Catholic Church, Odell.

He was educated in Reddick and Goodfarm Grade Schools and graduated with the Class of 1988 from Dwight Township High School. He earned an associate degree in diesel mechanics from Wyoming Technical Institute at Laramie. For a brief time he was employed at Hogan Implement as a mechanic.

Surviving are his wife, Sheila; son, Scott Colton (special friend Ali Borgstrom) of rural Dwight, and Garrett Levi, at home; his parents, Everett and Dorothy Severson of rural Gardner; and Sheila's parents, Ray and Jo Ann Hoegger of Odell.

Nate's survivors also include his brother, Evan (Lynne) Severson of Clinton, and sister, Heather (Josh) Betsworth, rural Gardner; brothers-in-law, Ron (Lori) Hoegger of Cabery and Jim Hoegger of rural Odell; sister-in-law, Debbie Hoegger of Pontiac; and Joni (Kevin) Masching of Odell.

Surviving nieces and nephews are: Devin Severson; Nolan Severson (special friend Reagan Pinkerton); Tory, Eileen and Marissa Betsworth; Lindsey Hoegger (special friend Clay Watters); Hailey Hoegger (special friend Matt Maubach); Nick Hoegger; Jacob (Kaitlin) Hoegger; Kyle Masching (special friend Brittany Hillary); and step-niece, Ashley Howard (special friend Will Smith).

An infant brother-in-law, Gary Ray Hoegger, is deceased.

Nate, known affectionately by his family as "Mr. Clean," especially enjoyed visiting, backyard bonfires, catsup, homemade chocolate chip cookies, frozen blueberries, Mom's brownies, old farming pictures and stories, family trips, especially to Ozarks and Norway, using JD equipment, and working a backhoe.

His smile and warm, genuine friendliness will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

His Funeral Mass was Saturday, October 11, at 11 a.m. in St. Patrick Catholic Church, Dwight.

Visitation was from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m., Friday, October 10, in St. Patrick's Church.

Burial: Round Grove Cemetery, rural Dwight.

Memorials may be made to St. Paul School, St. Patrick Catholic Church, DTHS FFA, or donor's wish.

Condolences may be left at hagermemorial.com

Arrangements were handled by Hager Memorial Home of Dwight.

It's that time

It's that time of the semester where, if there was a giant pause button for life, you would definitely utilize it. It's the time of the semester where your theory of "teachers coordinate to put their tests on the same week" seems like more of a fact than a theory. It's the time of the semester where dinner becomes a synonym for "I'm going to look at my study guide." With so many things being thrown at you at once, you almost want to ask Neo from the Matrix for advice on how to handle it all. This inevitably causes stress, and sometimes a lot of it. It's important, though, that whatever happens in life, we remember to stay grateful. I listened to a podcast last week and it was about staying grateful in every moment, rather than being grateful for every moment. The two obviously go hand in hand somewhat but every moment is another opportunity to be grateful. Although that portion of the podcast was only a few minutes long it really put things into perspective. Every moment is another moment to be grateful for whatever you want to be grateful for. It's another moment to love your family, or love tacos, or be grateful that you're employed. Whatever it may be every moment is another chance at that. You don't have to be grateful for that moment, but that moment gives you another chance to be grateful for something. It's hard to enjoy the journey sometimes, we get caught up in the destination, always "looking forward" to something but never enjoying the right now. If you have tacos (I must really want tacos) tonight for dinner enjoy them; savor the taste. Make those the best tacos you've ever had, don't just casually eat them waiting for the next big event in your life. Enjoy all the small experiences that lead up to it; be grateful. All of this was inspired by a short little podcast that only took about 10 minutes out of my day, but sometimes we need things like that to get us refocused, and get our aim back on what really matters in life.

Danish Brotherhood Lodge #34 Celebrates 125th Anniversary

by Bridget De Waard

Danish Brotherhood Lodge #34 of Dwight, part of the Midwest District, is celebrating its 125th Anniversary this year. Instituted in Dwight on October 12, 1889 and then chartered on October 16 of that same year, the organization was originally called the "Danske Brodersamfund, Freden Loge," which translated means "Danish Brotherhood Peace Lodge."

The Danish Brotherhood was established by Danish immigrants who wished to, after beginning new lives in America, retain and pass on important aspects of their heritage, as well as preserve their native language. Originally, their meetings were conducted in Danish, though as the years passed, English was eventually introduced into their meetings, with only officers continuing to speak in their native tongue.

The Danish Brotherhood emblem is composed of three symbols, an anchor, a key, and a plumb, meant to embody the values and goals of the organization. The anchor is a symbol of hope; the hope that the Brotherhood will always be able to withstand the storms of adversity. The key represents security and protection, which is indicative of their work and their desire to keep the secrets of their work within their hearts as though it were under lock and key. Lastly, the plumb is meant to signify that the deeds of their organization, as well as of each member, must always be true and correct.

The Dwight Lodge merged with the Gardner Lodge, #280, in 1948. Though people got busier over the years and there was a lull in the membership around the 1960's, by the 1970's local interest in the organization began to pick up. At first, there were always two meetings conducted; a business meeting, which was only open to men, followed by a social meeting, which was open to women. Eventually, in 1974, the members voted to become a family lodge and admit wives and women to membership.

Monthly meetings have been held at various places in Dwight as the Brotherhood continued to grow; from gathering in Art Nielsen's basement, to the VFW, the American Legion, and then, finally, at the Country Club, which has been the group's meeting spot for the past three to four years.

They now meet every second Monday of the month except for certain one of the fundraisers the Brotherhood uses to assist in their mission to help those in the Dwight community, as well as members within the organization. Aebleskiver, which has been compared to a mixture of pancakes and doughnut holes, is a sweet danish dessert, which would have traditionally been served with syrup, jam or powdered sugar. The breakfast takes place once in the spring and once in the fall, typically March and November.

"We even used to have a Viking ship in the parade," Mortensen remembered fondly with a laugh.

"Though that hasn't been around for a few years.

Tjelle enjoys doing the breakfast as well. "We've had people come from all over - Kankakee, Coal City, Fairbury - and I love seeing them taste this delicious dessert for the first time, discovering that this is certainly one breakfast they must return to again and again." Tjelle, who became a part of the Brotherhood due to her parents involvement within the organization, also enjoys being a part of the activities, in addition to regaining that connection with her own heritage. "It's so exciting to meet with members from the Chicagoland area, and get to discover more about who I am through others with a similar background."

The funds are also used towards scholarships, other organizations within the community who might need additional funds, and assistance for the public schools, such as helping with programs like Project Graduation.

As part of their 125th anniversary, the group had a meeting on October 13 which featured a Danish student speaker who, though now attends school in Gibson City, spent most of his life in Denmark. They also brought pictures, as well as old artifacts, books, and things the group has collected over the years to look back on the Brotherhood, and its history within the community.

"It's been a great organization to be a part of," Tjelle said warmly. "We try to do as much as we can to support not only our own members but our community as well, and it is my hope that this wonderful organization can continue to grow and continue assisting others in preserving their culture and personal heritage."

months which end up being too busy for members to gather conveniently.

Throughout the years, the Brotherhood has offered a wide variety of activities for its members to engage in and enjoy. "Back in the 1930's, members got together and played cards, held dances, and even organized masquerades," Margene Tjelle, the Brotherhood's current President, commented. "Now, we have golf outings, trap/target shoots, darts, and bowling events."

"I have loved participating in the golf and bowling events the most," said Bill Mortensen, a current member of the Brotherhood. "I chose to get involved in this organization to be a part of these activities, and get to know those with a similar heritage as myself." Mortensen also spoke fondly of the bi-annual Aebleskiver breakfast,

Dwight Rotary Club Hears Illinois Regional Economic Manager

John Whalen, North Central Regional Manager of the Illinois Regional Economic Development office, spoke at the October 8 meeting of the Dwight Rotary. He told the Rotary club and the Dwight Economic Committee what was needed to be done to attract businesses.

Mr. Whalen's job is to create jobs and grow communities with mostly federal money. Most of those funds go for building or updating infrastructure in local communities. Businesses need reliable water, sewer, natural gas, and roads to operate and communities need them to compete.

Mr. Whalen said the Dwight Economic Committee must lead a coordinated effort of citizens and village government in order to attract and keep business. Dwight needs a designated person to coordinate and oversee the effort. The committee should perform an honest self-evaluation of Dwight's advantages (good points) and its disadvantages (bad points). Then maximize the good and reduce or eliminate the bad points. The committee must also decide what incentives Dwight can offer and have them approved and in place. Then, know what state and federal loans and grants are available to augment those from the village.

Whalen's greatest emphasis was get prepared with all zoning done, all sites optioned or price agreements in place, and infrastructure to the sites in place.

Mr. Whalen said a community's effort must be open so the effort has the residents' support. He told the members and guests after getting the needed work done, where their sites should be advertised.

DTHS TROJANS FOOTBALL

Friday, October 10
Dwight vs. PBL
Varsity -

The Trojans lost a heartbreaker on Friday night to Paxton-Buckley-Loda, 16-13, as PBL's TD run with under a minute to go squashed Dwight's comeback.

After a scoreless first half, PBL was able to take Jack Davidson down in his own end zone for a safety, putting them on the board first.

PBL's Matt Poll would run in a six-yard touchdown three minutes later, to give them a 9-0 lead over the Trojans.

Early on in the fourth, however, Justin Fox would connect with Jace

Kennedy on a 20-yard TD, which would get Dwight to within two points after Trimi Asllani's extra point.

With 3:41 remaining in the game, Davidson would redeem himself, going for a 19-yard touchdown run and giving his team a four point edge with little time left.

PBL's Poll wouldn't allow his team to fall, though, and he would find the end zone one more time on a four-yard run with 32 seconds left, giving PBL a permanent lead.

Fox threw for 145 yards in the game, with the TD pass and three picks.

Jace Kennedy had four grabs for 73 yards, with the touchdown. Brandon Allen made a 52-yard catch. Jayson Powell had 14 reception yards on two catches. Jack Davidson caught two passes for six yards.

On the ground, Brandon Allen ran for 59 yards. Davidson had 43 yards and the touchdown. Tony Bernardy had three carries for 16 yards.

Bernardy led the Dwight defense with six tackles total. Brandon Allen had a tackle for a loss and an interception. Ryan Beier had a pick and a tackle. Ryan Gaston also had a tackle.

Dwight is now 1-6 this season and goes up against Iroquois West on Friday night at Iroquois West's field.

Just A Senger in a Rock n Roll Band

Week 4 Paper Bowl XIV

Normal's Sara Senger is our Champion of week four, but it wasn't easy. All of our swamis are beginning to figure out these football teams, and the results show it. Senger tied three other swamis with an 11-3 record in week four. The tiebreaker, all points scored in all games combined, this week was 723. Senger claimed our $25 Paper Bowl Gift Certificate with a tiebreaker guess of 648 (-75). Dwight's Blake Banks guessed 500 (-223) on her tiebreaker, and Dwight's Carissa Gunty missed filling out her tiebreaker score. Oops.

Sara Senger

One hundred and five entries were scored this week. Seventeen of those finished with 10-4 records.

They included Dwight's Dana "you should meet my" Taylor, Keith "Cubs in 2015" Lauritzen, Karen "Yub a Dub" "Grubbs, Jane Dixon, Lee Dixon (2x), Tom Lenzie, Wayne German, Jayson "Colonel" Powell, Bill Martin (2x), Anne Martin & Ken Gamble, Braidwood's Andy Bailey, Braceville's Tim Humbert, Buckingham's Martha Schneider and Morris' Zack Landers. Twenty five entries finished 9-5; 23 were 8-6, and the remaining entries were .500 or below.

You may enter three times this week for a chance at our next $25 Paper Bowl Gift Certificate. Our drop locations this week are at Planning Associates, LTD, Jerry Danko, State Farm, and Dwight Dairy Queen. You can enter once at each drop location. Get in today.

Perfection For Dagan

Week 5 Paper Bowl XIV

Well, it doesn't get any better than this. Braceville's Vickie Dagan mastered the match-ups in week five and scored a perfect 14-0 en route to our latest $25 Paper Bowl Gift Certificate. She didn't need the tiebreaker for her victory, but her guess of 648 was only 6 points shy of the weekly tally of 654. Impressive. Most Impressive.

Vickie Dagan

Ninety entries were collected in week five. Six entries finished the week with 12-2 records. They included Dwight's Larry Davis, Glenda German and Andrew German, Odell's Terrence Schook (2x), and Coal City's Skyler Vaughn. Fourteen entries were 11-3. # Mammography Screenings Really Do Save Lives.

These simple guidelines from the American Cancer Society can help detect breast cancer early:

- A monthly breast self-exam for all women starting in their 20s. Any changes in how breasts look or feel should be reported to your healthcare provider.
- A clinical breast exam, for women in their 20s and 30s at least every 3 years. After age 40, women should have a breast exam by a healthcare provider every year.
- A yearly mammogram for women age 40 and older (as long as they are in good health). While mammograms can miss some cancers, they are still a very good way to detect breast cancer.

Call 815-942-4105 to schedule your mammogram at Morris Hospital or the Morris Hospital Ridge Road Campus in Channahon.
A physician's order is required.

Dwight Grade School to Create Schoolyard Habitat October Board Actions

by Madelyn Fogarty madelynfogarty@yahoo.com Stepping outside the classroom and into an environment focusing on nature and wildlife can add a new and exciting dimension to learning.

According to the National Wildlife Federation website, these wildlife habitats become places where students not only learn about wildlife species and ecosystems, but also outdoor classrooms where they hone their academic skills and nurture their innate curiosity and creativity.

Mr. Bailey's proposal utilizes school property that runs along the creek to the north and west side of the school for the creation of the wildlife habitat which would include things like walking trails and paths, a butterfly garden, a reading area, trees and various types of plant life.

To certify, a school yard habitat must incorporate the four elements of habitat (food, water, cover and places for wildlife to raise their young) and be registered with NWF.

The board agreed unanimously to allow the use of school property for the habitat and for Bailey to move forward with the project.

Mr. Bailey anticipates getting the project underway next spring.

In another matter, Food Service Director Sharon Soto was on hand to report to the board information and changes with regard to the school's breakfast and lunch programs provided through Arbor Management Inc.

including whole grain rich products and fruits with a maximum of 400 - 500 calories.

The board also: approved Gary Beier, Volunteer 6th Grade Boys Basketball Coach.

approved Board Policy Manual Updates - Second Reading.

approved a three-year lease agreement with Midwest Transit for an activity bus at the cost of $7,451 per year.

approved the permanent transfer of $2,500 from Working Cash to Debt Services.

approved the recommended status of closed session minutes.

heard a presentation from Principal Bailey regarding a new teacher evaluation instrument and the concept of evidence-based evaluation for scoring and rating teachers.

Mark your calendars - Parent Teacher Conferences are scheduled for October 22 and 23.

The next meeting of the District 232 Board of Education will be Wednesday, November 12, at 6 p.m. in the DGS Library.

FARM FRESH

Grown Together

by Ronda Addy

When two or more crops are cultivated at the same time on a field, the process is called intercropping. The theory behind intercropping is that the crops planted aren't likely to be plagued by the same insect pests and diseases, raising the potential for growth.

The concept of intercropping has been around for some time. In the South, velvet beans or cowpeas were planted in standing corn in rows wide enough to let the sunlight in. The beans or peas would climb the cornstalks, allowing them to be harvested together in the fall and saving on manual labor.

Deciding what crops to plant in intercropping requires careful consideration of a number of factors, including the climate and soil. The crops used can be from different plant families or different varieties of the same crop species as long as they don't compete with each other for water, nutrients, sunlight or space. One crop will be more important than the other due to its contribution to food production. However, because one crop will mature before the other, the competition between the two will be reduced.

There is more than one method of intercropping. Some of these include:

- Mixed or multiple intercropping, in which two or more crops are grown on the field at the same time without any row arrangement.
- Relay intercropping, in which the second crop is planted with the first crop in its reproductive stage but before harvesting.
- Row intercropping, in which two or more crops are grown at the same time with at least one of them planted in rows.

• Strip intercropping, in which two or more crops are planted together in strips wide enough to allow machine crop production but close enough to interact. There are two types of strip intercropping. Contour strip cropping follows the layout of a rotational sequence and the contour of the field during tillage. Field strip cropping follows the general slope of the land with strips of the same width.

The benefits of intercropping are numerous. Some of these include:

- Reduction of insect pests
- Reduction of plant diseases
- Reduction of weeds
- Reduction in hillside erosion
- Increased topsoil protection
- Attraction of beneficial insects
- Better use of farm area
- Better production and profitability

Although intercropping is most common on farms, it can also be done in backyard gardens through companion planting. Planting flowers or herbs among vegetables with the same nutrient and moisture needs can add color to the garden and attract more beneficial insects than harmful ones. Isn't that something?

Fall Pricing Options

by Rodney Connor

Friday's USDA report confirms a large corn and soybean crop for the 2014 season. Now that the October report is behind us, the markets will closely follow yield reports from the field to make sure they are in line with expectations and look forward to the USDA's next production numbers in January of 2015.

While locally, many producers are dealing with record, or near record production for both corn and soybeans, the cash price for both commodities are down significantly because of the large crop, and leaves most producers very close to breaking even this year. The most urgent issue producers are dealing with is what to do with the crop they do not have space for at home, since most are not happy with the cash price they would receive if they delivered it to an elevator.

Commercial storage would usually be the answer, but this year many elevators are short on space and are not able to offer enough storage to make room for everyone that needs it. In most cases, Grainco FS included, the elevators are trying to steer producers toward alternatives that allow the commercial elevator to ship grain while letting the producer keep his pricing options open. With bigger yields and lower prices, it is more important than ever for a producer to understand his contracting options at different locations.

For those not interested in cash contracts, I am focusing on two types of contracts that help producers move their grain and still take advantage of any higher prices we may see later in the year, Delayed Pricing and Minimum Price.

Delayed Pricing, or DP, looks a little different this year to compete with the farmer's preference for storage. On corn, we are charging 19 cents to get to January 15th and shrinking you from 15% to 14%. In addition, we charge 4 cents per month after that. That is 2 cents cheaper than storage. We are also letting the producer forward price his DP contracts, rather than making him use today's price. Most producers using this option will hope the market rallies between now and January and forward sell the contract to cover the cost of the in charge. For example, our spot price in Mazon Friday was $2.96. If DP was chosen instead of cash, it would cost 19 cents to get to January 15th and an additional 4.5 cents in shrink. At the same time, the producer could sell January cash for $3.19, but after the charges, his net price would be $2.955. Since that is about a wash, most will not forward price today and hope the price goes up down the road.

A minimum price contract allows the producer to deliver today, lock in a floor price, and retain upside potential on his cash contract. An example from Friday would be to sell the $2.96 cash and buy a July 3.70 corn call for 25 cents with July trading at 3.64. This lowers the cash price to $2.71, allows upside participation if the market goes up anytime between now and July, and guarantees that the price will not go down. It does this because a call option gives the owner the right, not the obligation, to buy corn at the strike price (in this case 3.70) at expiration in June. Once this contract is in place, we start looking at July futures at the Chicago Mercantile Exchange to see what the contract price would be. If at the end of June, July futures are trading at 4.50, we add an additional 70 cents. If it were to go to 2.50 instead, the option would expire worthless at no additional cost to the producer.

While these two pricing options are going to be very popular this year, they may not be a fit for your operation. For a more specialized pricing solution, call Rodney Connor of Grainco FS at 815-374-0364.

Out Of The Dark Ages

by Tresa Erickson

Imagine spending day after day in the hot sun walking behind a plow pulled by oxen. The year is 1830, and it will take you 250 to 300 hours to produce 100 bushels of wheat. Of course you will have to do most of the work by hand with crude instruments, like a brush harrow, sickle and flail. Jump ahead 157 years, and it will take you just three hours to produce the same amount of wheat with more sophisticated equipment, including a tractor, sweep disk, drill, combine and truck. Farming has come a long way and is advancing every day with new technology. Here are some of the earliest inventions that have contributed to the advancement of farming:

- Cotton Gin
- Reaper
- Steel Elevator
- Grain Elevator
- Steam Tractor

These are just some of the many fascinating inventions that have revolutionized farming. More are sure to follow, making farming easier and more efficient.

A New Era In Agriculture

In today's ever-changing global economy, running a successful farm operation can be challenging. It takes careful planning, hard work and more than a little ingenuity. And it's important to have a bank you can count on.

Got Corn? Got Storage?

by William C. Bailey

As discussed in a recent column, Illinois farmers are on track to set new production records for this year's corn and soybean crops. That means we will see a lot of semi-trucks on the roads hauling the grain to storage. Assuming one of the semi-trucks you end up following is hauling 850 bushels of corn, it would take nearly 3 million of those trucks to haul this year's Illinois corn crop. Even the much smaller soybean crop would need about 700,000 semis. So, expect to see a lot of grain trucks on the road.

As good as the news of a record crop is, the abundance does present a problem — where to store this year's crop? The crop will be needed all year long, so the abundance from harvest needs to find someplace to spend part, or all, of the next 12 months, until the next harvest. This could prove to be a challenge, particularly if the weather remains good and harvesting continues at a rapid pace.

Corn and soybeans have two places to be stored — on-farm and off-farm. About half of this year's Illinois corn crop could fit into existing off-farm storage facilities — the grain elevators that mark the skyline of many small Illinois towns. The other half of the crop could be stored on-farm, in one of the grain bins some Illinois farmers have near their home. And the remainder of the state's storage capacity, either on-farm or off-farm, could accommodate the soybean crop. So, if all of the on-farm and off-farm storage facilities were empty and ready to accept this year's crop, storage problems could be kept in check. But those facilities are not empty because there is still some of last year's crop in storage. So, taking into account the corn left from last year's harvest and this year's record crop, is there a storage problem?

A recent report, from the US Department of Agriculture, provides some help to answer that question. Nationwide, on September 1, 2014, the amount of corn still in storage was 50% larger than September 1, 2013. All states, in the report, had significantly more corn in storage this year than last year except for one — Illinois. While Iowa's corn stocks increased from 2013 levels by 30% and Indiana's doubled, Illinois corn stocks declined by 10% — freeing up a lot of needed storage.

During times of huge crops and limited storage, it is not unusual to see corn stored outside — what I call horizontal storage. In the past, you may have seen these piles of corn, after harvest, around the state. For short periods of time, the experts say outside storage does not hurt the quality of the corn. However, given the availability of storage, it is doubtful that much corn will need to be stored outside. But there still will be a lot of trucks on the road, helping move the corn from the field to a new home.

SOYBEAN PRODUCTION IS FORECAST AT A RECORD 3.93 billion bushels, according to agweb.com, up slightly from September and up 17 percent from last year. Based on October 1 conditions, yields are expected to average a record high 47.1 bushels per acre, up 0.5 bushel from last month and up 3.1 bushels from last year. Area for harvest in the United States is forecast at a record 83.4 million acres, down less than 1 percent from September but up 9 percent from last year. Acreage updates were made in several States based on a thorough review of all available data.

Town and Country 4-H Celebrates National 4-H Week

More than six million young people across the country have celebrated National 4-H Week, an annual celebration of 4-H during the first full week of October. Town and Country 4-H Club showcased the great things that 4-H offers young people and highlighted the incredible 4-H youth in the community who work each day to make a positive impact on the community.

Town and Country 4-H Club kicked off National 4-H Week October 5, with a Rocket Launch at noon at Ray's Ranchhouse, Essex. 4-H National Youth Science Day was October 8 and this year's science experiment was called "Rockets to the Rescue" designed with the help of Astronaut Mike Hopkins. This year's National Science Day explored how aerospace engineering can help solve real world problems, like responding to natural disasters!

In addition, Town and Country 4-Hers decorated a display at Ray's Ranch House in Essex to showcase all that is possible through 4-H, from community service, individual projects in areas like small engines, fishing, hunting, art, clothing, photography, science, moviemaking and so much more. Membership is open to all area youth from ages 8-18. Town and Country 4-H meets at the Essex United Methodist Church on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. Anyone interested in joining should call (815) 365-2368 or attend a meeting.

Research has proven that participation in 4-H has a significant positive impact on young people. Recent findings from the Tufts University 4-H Study of Positive Youth Development indicate that, when compared to their peers, young people in 4-H are:

- Nearly four times more likely to contribute to their communities,
- Two times more likely to pursue healthy behaviors and,
- Two times more likely to engage in Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) programs in the out-of-school time.

4-H, the nation's largest youth development and empowerment organization, cultivates confident kids who tackle the issues that matter most in their communities right now. In the United States, 4-H programs empower six million young people through the 109 land-grant universities and Cooperative Extensions in more than 3,000 local offices serving every county and parish in the country. Outside the United States, independent, country-led 4-H organizations empower one million young people in more than 50 countries. National 4-H Council is the private sector, non-profit partner of the Cooperative Extension System and 4-H National Headquarters located at the National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) within the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). Learn more about 4-H at www.4-H.org, find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/4-H and on Twitter at www.twitter.com/4H.

DWIGHT FFA REPRESENTATIVES WHO ATTENDED LEADERSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL WERE: Dylan Mann, Jenna Stevenson, Daly Galloway, Megan Charlton, Brittany Hillyer, Dylan Emm.

Dwight FFA Attends Leadership Training School

Daly Galloway, Dylan Mann, Dylan Emm, Brittany Hillyer, Megan Charlton and Jenna Stevenson of the Dwight FFA Chapter attended the Section 10 FFA Leadership Training School at Kankakee Community College.

The Illinois FFA Leadership Training School is designed to prepare local FFA chapter officers and members both in high school and middle school for leadership roles in their school district for the upcoming year. It also informs each chapter of the new programs available to all FFA members and allows officers to exchange ideas with other FFA chapters in their area.

The 2014-2015 Section 10 FFA Officer Team planned and conducted this workshop to encourage the participants to develop their leadership potential, to challenge them to set personal and chapter goals for the year and to motivate the students to take advantage of the many opportunities available to them through the FFA.

The 2014 theme was "Proud Traditions Sparking Ambitions". Members left ready to promote FFA, agricultural education and agriculture in their schools and communities.

This year, Renee Kinzinger, State FFA Secretary from New Athens, conducted a workshop to get FFA members motivated for the coming year and challenged them to get involved in the many opportunities FFA has to offer.

FILL IT UP...Harvest season is here and so the process of shipping local grain worldwide begins. Pictured above are empty grain train cars waiting to be filled with corn at CGB in Dwight. This particular train will be released full and carted to Georgia. Many more trains will come and go throughout the season.

Celebrate Farms and Schools

by Kathie Starkweather

In October, America celebrates the harvest, and specifically initiatives to put healthy, locally grown food on our children's plates at school. And it all starts with America's farmers and ranchers.

Many of us who raise our own food, whether in a pot or a small garden, do so as a hobby. If there's too much heat, not enough rain or too many pests, we are disappointed and frustrated but the love of growing fresh, nutritious foods pulls us through tough times.

I know two young women who started a small vegetable farm. They have off-farm jobs as do many farmers and ranchers in rural America. While they are fortunate to have jobs they enjoy, their true passion is growing and providing food. They want children to eat tasty squash, peppers, and carrots. And they want kids to know where their food comes from.

They toil in 100 degree heat. They stoop to pull weeds. They invest in their farm with season-extending hoop houses to provide a few more months of fresh vegetables. It's hard work, but they think it's worth it if just one more child can experience the taste of a fresh green bean or learn that asparagus tastes pretty darned good.

Remember the kids and the farmers during this harvest season, and find ways to support Farm to School efforts in your area.

Tom Bennett Endorsed by Farm Bureau ACTIVATOR

Illinois Farm Bureau ACTIVATOR is proud and excited to announce that Tom Bennett, candidate for the 106th Illinois House of Representatives district, has been endorsed for the November 4 election.

Local ACTIVATOR Trustees have endorsed Tom Bennett based on his commitment to serve the citizens of the 106th district with honor, integrity, and the commitment to work hard to address the problems in our state capitol.

"Tom Bennett's strong work ethic will be a reflection of the hard working men and women of his rural district," said Kevin Semlow, Director of State Legislation for the Illinois Farm Bureau. "Tom Bennett will bring a common sense approach to the state capitol in addressing the challenges our state faces."

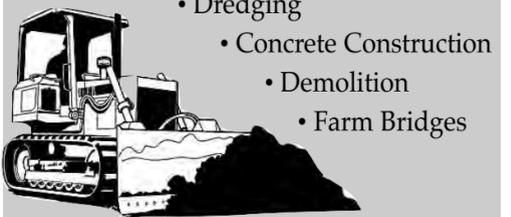

The endorsement by IFB ACTIVATOR places Tom Bennett in a group of select individuals in the state who understand the leading role Illinois agriculture plays in the global marketplace, and the far-reaching impact of its products. "This endorsement shows that we believe Tom Bennett comprehends the benefits of agriculture, and that those benefits extend far beyond the vital function of feeding Illinois, the nation, and the world," added Semlow. "We look forward to working with Tom Bennett on important issues facing the agricultural community and the state as a whole."

ACTIVATOR, Illinois Farm Bureau's Political Involvement Fund, is a voluntary, non-profit, segregated fund promoting the economic and social well being of farmers. ACTIVATOR trustees are local Farm Bureau leaders representing each county in the Illinois General Assembly Legislative District.

Livingston County Retired Teachers Association – October 21 Meeting

by Navana Ahrends

The annual Fall Luncheon of the Livingston County Retired Teachers Association will be held at the St. Mary's Parish Hall in Pontiac on Tuesday, October 21. It is requested that the Chicago St. entrance be used. Registration for this meeting will begin at 10:00.

The regular meeting will begin at 10:30 with a memorial service conducted by Louise Masching for our twelve members who have passed away since our October meeting of 2013.

Following this service, the business meeting will be held. Of particular interest to the group will be a report by Don Gibb, legislative chair, on the latest information regarding the pension situation. Alberta Kinate, membership chair, will give an update of membership, and Navana Ahrends will bring the membership up-to-date on the insurance offered for the 2015 year in Livingston County.

One of the highlights of the day will be recognition of our two $250 scholarship winners for this year. This is particularly exciting because this is the first year we have given scholarships.

Musical entertainment will be provided by a boys quartet from Pontiac Township High School who call themselves "We'll Take It from Here". They are under the direction of Joseph Durbin, choral director at the high school.

A full turkey dinner will be prepared by the St. Mary's Women's Guild, with Diane Hanley serving as chairman. St. Mary's students will serve the meal to our guests.

The program for the day will consist of a panel made up of the current members of the legislature who represent their respective districts of our membership in Livingston County. Mark Jontry, Superintendent for the Regional Office of Education #17, will also be in attendance. The two candidates who are running for the 106th House District seat, William Nutter (D) and Tom Bennett (R) will be represented. Don Gibb is the moderator for the panel.

Reservations are still being taken, but we have requested that they be prepaid if at all possible. The cost of the luncheon is $12 and checks should be sent to Sue Schnell at 102 Western St. in Cornell. These reservations should be made by Wednesday, October 15, but no later than Friday, October 17. If you find that you need to phone the reservation first, please contact Sue Schnell at (815) 358-2669 or Navana Ahrends (815) 842-0579.

At this time information for all members needs to be updated for the records and also unit dues should be paid if you have not done so already. Prospective members will also have the opportunity to join at this time.

Since this is the last meeting for the year, we request that you support the 50/50 drawing that will be available before the meeting starts. This money goes to help defray the cost of our scholarships.

Any retired teacher who taught in Livingston County or who now resides in Livingston County is invited to attend the meetings and is eligible for membership. There are four meetings a year. The next meeting will not be until April 21, 2015.

LCRTA officers are: Navana Ahrends, President; Roger Tuttle, Vice President; Dee Dee Raube, Secretary; and Susan Michel and Sue Schnell, Co-Treasurers.

What is the U.S. Food Waste Challenge?

On June 4, 2013 the U.S. Department of Agriculture in collaboration with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency launched the U.S. Food Waste Challenge, calling on everyone across the food chain – farms, agricultural processors, food manufacturers, grocery stores, restaurants, universities, schools, and local governments – to join efforts to reduce, recover, and recycle food waste. The goal is to raise awareness about food waste and provide resources that help organizations and individuals:

Reduce food waste by improving product development, storage, shopping/ordering, marketing, labeling, and cooking methods.

Recover food waste by connecting potential food donors to hunger relief organizations like food banks and pantries.

Recycle food waste to feed animals or to create compost, bioenergy and natural fertilizers.

For organizations that are engaging in activities that reduce, recover, or recycle food waste and join the U.S. Food Waste Challenge, the USDA will highlight your activities and share your story. Businesses and organizations can also work with experts from the Environmental Protection Agency to measure food waste and attain reduction goals. As more organizations add their voice to the movement, momentum will build until we see real changes in the way we manage food and food waste in the United States.

What is World Food Day?

World Food Day is a day of action against hunger. On October 16, people around the world come together to declare their commitment to eradicate hunger in our lifetime. Because when it comes to hunger, the only acceptable number in the world is zero.

World Food Day celebrates the creation of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) on October 16, 1945 in Quebec, Canada. First established in 1979, World Food Day has since then been observed in almost every country by millions of people.

In North America, grassroots events and public awareness campaigns engage diverse audiences in action against hunger. From hunger walks and World Food Day dinners to meal packaging events and food drives, there are many ways for people to be a part of solutions to hunger.

Each year, advocates come together to raise awareness and engage Americans and Canadians in the movement to end hunger. Led by the FAO Liaison Office for North America, the World Food Day USA & Canada Network includes over 60 organizations, universities and companies that are working to achieve a zero hunger world.
