MANY HANDS . . . Friends and neighbors of the family of Nate Severson combined their efforts in recent weeks to assist with the harvest of beans and corn on the Severson family farms. During the past weekend pickers lined up, above, and made their way through a cornfield north of Campus. Nate Severson of rural Emington died October 6 from injuries he suffered in a farm-related accident.

'Kruzin With The Bileckis' Under A Purple Colored Sky

by Marty and Geri Bilecki

To start out this "Kruzin With" article we must first, with deep sorrow and sadness, report the following to our friends and fellow Route 66 roadies. After a wonderful second half of the 2014 summer season the bad news began to happen.

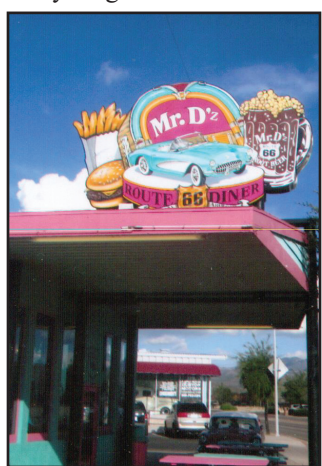

The City Clerk of Braceville, IL, who was a go-getter for Route 66 in the community, Lois Akau-Passafiume, age 34, passed away on Sept. 14.

Then we heard about Annabelle, the beloved wife of Harley, from Erick, OK. They were such a bright spot for so many groups and individuals traveling the road. Their songs and lively shows surely brought many smiles to us and tourists along the way.

Our favorite rock'n roll performer, Paul Revere, of Paul Revere and the Raiders, passed on October 4 with his beloved wife Sydney at his side. He performed many years for our troops and along Route 66 at the many casinos along the route.

Finally, Sam Reichert, of Plainfield, IL, and "Just Off 66," our local friend of the road, who owned a wonderful establishment full of Route 66 memorabilia. He was also a friend of the Federation. He and his wife, Lynn, hosted so many people over the years graciously. At age 58 he was much too young to leave us all.

Mr. "D's" in Kingman, AZ our strategic headquarters for the festival. Purple sky in background.

We offer our sincere condolences to all of their friends and families.

Now on to a more positive note - "We Were Drivin' Along Minding Our Business Under a Purple Colored Sky" when we ended up at the Route 66 International Festival in Kingman, AZ. Weather, road conditions were great with our many stops on Route 66 along the way from our home in Illinois.

Everyone rolled their eyes when we said we were going to travel to Arizona in August in our '57 Chevy (not air conditioned), but we just rolled down the windows and enjoyed the ride and scenery of our beautiful country. We allowed six full days of travel each way and had overnights in five states on our trip of 3,951 miles round trip.

The communities along Route 66 are still suffering, but have figured out a way to survive and supply the (continued on page 3)

Dwight Free Leaf Pickup Days Underway

Can Less Salt Save Village Streets?

by Madelyn Fogarty
madelynfogarty@yahoo.com

Dwight will provide free leaf pickups for its residents on the first three Mondays in November - November 3, 10, and 17. Leaves must be in biodegradable Kraft style paper bags, cardboard boxes, or rigid trash containers - no plastic bags are allowed. Leaves should be placed out for pickup by 6:00 a.m. Dwight residents are reminded that burning leaves is prohibited at all times within the village. In addition, raking or blowing leaves into village streets is an ordinance violation and not allowed.

In another matter at the October 27 meeting of the Dwight Village Board of Trustees, local resident Mike Compasso, addressed the board requesting action on a proposal he presented earlier this year. In May, the Prospect Avenue resident requested that the board consider the elimination of winter residential street salting noting reasons such as damage to streets, shrubbery and lawns caused by the salting chemicals, along with a potential significant cost-saving for the village. He suggested that village streets that are along the school bus route continue to be salted along with the Routes 17 & 47 highways which run through the village, but that all other residential streets be plowed only. He estimated the average resident would only have to travel the length of a football field in order to get to a salted street.

According to Compasso, during the 2013-14 winter, the village spent $26,000 on road salt for village streets. He indicated his proposal could save the village $20,000 annually while greatly reducing the environmental impact

"The benefits of this plan are huge," Compasso told the board. "We are destroying our streets quicker than we can repair them."

Gardner Village Board Donates Funds, Approves Waiving Water Bills

by Don Phillips

The Gardner Village Board met in regular session on September 29 with Commissioner Dick Hileman serving as Mayor Pro-Tem in the absence of Mayor Tom Wise.

Hileman made a motion to donate monies from the Entertainment Fund, including $1,500 each to the athletic programs at both Gardner-South Wilmington High School and Gardner Grade School, $1,500 each to The Church of Hope and United Lutheran Church, $500 to the Gardner Lions Club, $500 to the Gardner Senior Citizens, and $250 to each of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. Each of the donations passed.

The Board next approved waiving water bills for the month of December, as they have done for several years. The board finished by approving the storm sewer project to be completed in 2015.

The village will host their annual Veterans' Day Ceremonies at 11:00 a.m. on November 11, sponsored by the Gardner American Legion Auxiliary. This year's ceremony will take place in the Gardner Fire Station, regardless of weather, and the public is invited. The Gardner Archives will be open for viewing in the council chambers that day.

Prepare Far Ahead for Long-term Care Costs

November is Long-Term Care Awareness Month - a month dedicated to educating the public about the need to prepare for the potentially devastating costs of long-term care. And the more you know about these expenses, the better prepared you will be to deal with them.

To begin with, just how expensive is long-term care? Consider this: The average cost for a private room in a nursing home is more than $87,000 per year, according to the 2014 Cost of Care Survey produced by Genworth, a financial-services company.

And the average cost of an assisted living facility, which provides a level of care that is not as extensive as that offered by a nursing home, is $42,000 per year, according to the same Genworth study. All long-term care costs have risen steadily over the past several years, with no indication that they will level off.

Many people, when they think about long-term care at all, believe that Medicare will pay these costs - but that's just not the case. Typically, Medicare only covers a small percentage of long-term care expenses, which means you will have to take responsibility. Of course, if you are fortunate, you may go through life without ever needing to enter a nursing home or an assisted living facility, or even needing help from a home health-care aide. But given the costs involved, can you afford to jeopardize your financial independence - or, even worse, impose a potential burden on your grown children?

To prevent these events, you will need to create a strategy to pay for long-term care expenses - even if you never incur them. Basically, you have two options: You could self-insure or you could "transfer the risk" to an insurer.

If you were going to self-insure, you would need to set aside a considerable sum of money, as indicated by the costs mentioned above. And you would likely need to invest a reasonably high percentage of this money in growth-oriented investments. If you chose this self-insurance route, but you never really needed a significant amount of long-term care, you could simply use the bulk of the money for your normal living expenses during retirement and earmark the remainder for your estate. However, if you did need many years of nursing home care, you could end up going through all your money.

As an alternative, you could transfer the risk of paying for long-term care to an insurance company. Many plans are available these days, so, to find the choice that is appropriate for your needs, you will want to consult with a professional financial advisor. Here's a word of caution, though: The premiums for this type of protection rise pretty rapidly as you get older, so, if you are considering adding this coverage, you may be better off by acting sooner, rather than later.

None of us can know with certainty what the future holds for us. Ideally, you will always remain in good shape, both mentally and physically, with the ability to take care of yourself. But, as you've heard, it's best to "hope for the best, but plan for the worst." So, take the lessons of Long-Term Care Awareness Month to heart and start preparing yourself for every scenario.

When we finally arrived in Kingman, AZ, on August 12 we could instantly feel the community spirit and excitement of the festival and arrival of so many "66'ers" from around the world. We tried to participate in all of the events featured and feel the community went all out for all of us.

The first ever "Route 66 Film Festival" at the old Elks Lodge was one of our first adventures. What a treat to see some of the movies great "66" minds come up with. This included the first documentary of our Route 66 friend, Zdenek Jurasek, of the Czech Route 66 Association. His second documentary is on the way with a premiere shortly.

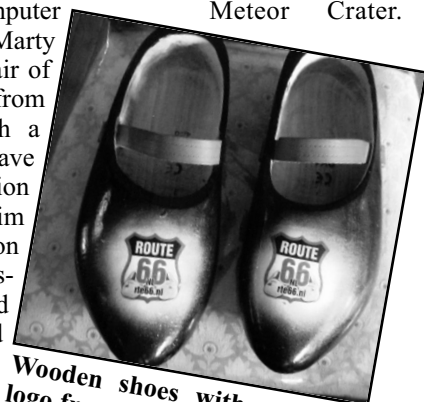

Our four days were enhanced over and over as the City Park West on Andy Devine Ave. and Beale Street overflowed with live entertainment by many groups including the "Route 66 Road Crew." Our place of operation turned out to be Mr. D's on Andy Devine Ave. - good food and great atmosphere by their hosts Michelle and Armando. On Friday night the brick laying ceremony was impressive and across the avenue we went to the museum for wonderful snacks and mingling with all from around the world. Next door to Mr. D's was the TNT Auto Center with the Bob Waldmire exhibit attended by many.

Saturday had us at the speakers forum and also a car show on Andy Devine Ave. where we hated to say goodbye to our many friends. We also were able to attend the "e" breakfast and met many of our "computer friends of Route 66." Marty was lucky to win a pair of men's wooden shoes from the Netherlands with a Route 66 logo. We have been in communication with Dries to thank him for his unusual donation which we proudly display. (Have not tried them on yet - worried about splinters!) At the authors, artists and association exhibit we renewed our friendships again. Beautiful turnout.

After a wonderful six day visit we hate to turn our car east on "66" but this is where we got our title for this article. One of our favorite things about traveling the road (besides meeting such wonderful people along the way) is the "purple sky" in New Mexico and Arizona. Here in Illinois we are lucky to get an occasional blue sky! We finally took time on this trip to visit the Painted Desert and observe the beauty of nature - also the Petrified Forest and Meteor Crater.

Wooden shoes with route 66 logo from the Netherlands.

All are terrific side trips.

Again, we met wonderful people from all over the world - we kept a list of how many people from different countries we met and the list totaled 16! Where else can you go in our country and meet such a variety of travelers. They seem to enjoy, as we do, the nostalgic times and small town values so proficient along the way.

We will continue to write accolades, but it is up to you

VETERANS DAY CELEBRATIONS

Veterans Day Facts

by Sam Erickson

Veterans Day is a holiday that has come to mean more since September 11, 2001, and the U.S. military involvement in Iraq and Afghanistan. Originally started after World War I, the increasing number of veterans in recent years and the military commitments have made the holiday more important to contemporary society. More schools and businesses close, and observances have blossomed across the country. Despite those developments, there are still some questions about this national holiday.

There's even some question about the actual name of the day. Does the day belong to veterans? Should the name have an apostrophe? If so, does it belong to one veteran or all veterans? There is no apostrophe in the name because it is a day to honor all veterans.

How is it different than Memorial Day? Memorial Day is meant to honor and remember veterans who have died in the service of their country or because of wounds from service. Veterans Day is meant to honor all veterans. It has taken on an increased awareness of living veterans, their service and the contributions they have made to national security in recent years.

Veterans Day is not only a national holiday in the United States. Dating back to World War I, Canada, Australia and Great Britain all observe Remembrance Day on November 11. The celebrations are a little different in each place, but the overall intent is the same: to honor those who have served to protect the country. Parades, wreath laying and ceremonies mark observances in all three countries.

While Veterans Day is a federal holiday, it is not universally observed. There is no requirement for businesses or state offices to close, although all federal services are suspended for the day. There is no federal law requiring all schools to close as there is for other federal holidays, so each school district decides whether to follow the observance. Unlike other national holidays that have been moved to Monday to create a long weekend, Veterans Day is always observed on November 11 regardless of the day on which it falls. Veterans groups have long lobbied for special recognition. Schools can and do choose to observe the holiday on different days of the week.

The practice of wearing poppies on Memorial Day is a tradition that has gone largely unobserved by many in recent years. Many wonder if it is appropriate for Veterans Day as well.

Officially, the wearing of poppies to remember war dead is precisely that—a remembrance for those who have died—and, because Veterans Day honors all veterans, the wearing of remembrance flowers is not a common practice. Many communities, however, are developing rituals and ceremonies to mark the holiday honoring all veterans.

Veterans Day Observances in Grundy County Area

Since the armistice that ended World War I on Nov. 11, 1918, Veterans Day has stood as an opportunity for the United States, both the nation and its citizens, to pause and honor American veterans of all wars – and thus a day very close to all veterans' organizations.

As has become an honored tradition in Grundy County, all across the county our citizens and their communities will gather on Tuesday November 11, 2014 to recognize our veterans.

Here are some of the Grundy County community events scheduled to recognize veterans:

- Coal City – The Coal City Public Library District will sponsor a Veterans Day event starting at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, November 11, with a flag raising ceremony, comments by the commanders of the American Legion and VFW and a reception to follow along with a display of WWI memorabilia. For more information contact Carla Welch 815-634-4552.

- The Coal City Library District and the St. Juvin VFW will also be hosting the Hines Mobile Medical Unit on Wednesday, November 12, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the library.

- Minooka – The community is recognizing Veterans Day with events occurring in each school in the Minooka grade schools; contact your school for details. The Minooka American Legion Post 1188 is sponsoring these events with the schools. There will also be a gathering of students in Veterans Park with Mayor Brennan as part of this observance.

- Morris – The Morris American

Legion will be hosting the annual Veterans Day parade and observance on Tuesday, November 11, 2014. The parade will start from Chapin Park about 10:30 a.m. and end at the Grundy County Courthouse where an observance will be held at 11 a.m. The public is welcome to participate in the parade, no registration required, just be at the park by 10:15 a.m.

- Gardner – The Gardner American Legion will be helping host the annual Veterans Day observance at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, November 11, at the Gardner Fire Protection District.

- Mazon – American Legion Post 352 hosts an observance in Mazon, please contact the post at 815-448-2550 for more details.

Joliet Junior College will host an event on Monday, November 10, at noon on the main campus at the center bridge.

Many schools will host events to honor and recognize their veterans and families; please contact your local school for details and information on how you might be able to attend with your children.

There are many businesses offering specials for veterans, many of these offers can be found at:

- <http://themilitarywallet.com/veterans-day-free-meals-and-discounts/>
- <http://www.militaryconnection.com/deals.aspxhttp://militarybenefits.info/veterans-day-discounts-sales-deals-free-meals/>

There are many offers, and veterans appreciate all of these businesses recognizing and supporting our military and veteran community.

Veterans have given us freedom, security and the greatest nation on earth. It is impossible to put a price on that. It is important to remember and appreciate them.

OGS Veterans Day Program

On November 11, at 9 a.m., the Odell Grade School invites all to its Veterans Day Celebration.

Veterans' Stories Lead To Understanding

by Sam Erickson
Time in the armed forces can be complicated. Many people are very proud of their service and eager to tell their tale. Some are more reticent, leery of reliving their time in the service.

One way that you can learn about military service during times of war is by working with the Veterans History Project. Established in 2000 by Congress and signed into law by President Bill Clinton, the Veterans History Project is housed in the Library of Congress and collects first-hand accounts of service members from World Wars I and II, Vietnam, Korea, the first Gulf War and the current conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. It also collects stories from those who supported the war efforts through their work, including private contractors, USO workers and medical personnel.

If you know a veteran, consider conducting and preserving an interview as a gift, perhaps for Veterans Day. On this holiday designed to honor all living veterans, some thoughtful reflection on their service reported and recorded for prosperity can be of great benefit.

Many veterans find a therapeutic value in sharing their stories, particularly with someone they know well. These stories can serve as a final contribution to a national dialogue about the experiences of individuals during wartime.

If you are a veteran or know someone who is, you can get involved in the Veterans History Project. The first step to recording a story is to get a Field Kit from the Veterans History Project. It provides detailed instructions on how to get the best interview, and there is even a comprehensive video that demonstrates best practices for interviews. The project is ongoing, so there is no deadline for submitting materials. If you are interested in interviewing someone but don't know a veteran, the program relies on volunteers and a set of veterans service organizations in communities. You can be in touch with a group like the American Legion or your local Veterans of Foreign Wars department to see if they can help you contact a veteran.

By preserving an oral history, a variety of voices and perspectives can be heard about military service, not just the voices of a few in the history books. The Project also collects artifacts from service members that include photos, diaries, memoirs and other historic documents.

If you are interested in learning more about the Project, there is a broad-ranging website that provides all of the tools and information you need to get involved, whether you are a veteran yourself or are interested in interviewing someone. The Project provides a unique window into the daily experiences of veterans in all branches of the military, a window you can explore to learn more about modern history and honor the service of veterans.

An Organization For Veterans; Support Your VFW

by Sam Erickson

The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) is the oldest surviving veterans service organization in the United States. The national organization began in Denver in 1899 as the first official post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and was officially chartered by Congress in 1914. Dedicated to working on behalf of veterans, it lobbies Congress for health care and benefits for veterans. It is also an important civic organization dedicated to integrating veterans into their local communities.

One of the organization's many goals is to promote awareness through community involvement. The VFW has a long-standing relationship with the Boy Scouts of America and sponsors thousands of units across the country. It also sponsors scholarships like the Scout of the Year award, focused on citizenship and national service. It is also committed to helping the local community. With several thousand posts in diverse communities across the country, the organization offers programs based on local need and coordinates many volunteer efforts, including blood drives, community food kitchens and visits to hospitalized veterans. The primary focus is to develop community service and increase active citizenship in communities, with a heavy focus on shaping young people into model citizens.

In addition to its work in the community, the VFW connects active military units with locals in a number of ways. It provides free phone calls to deployed service members and those in the hospital recovering from injury. It helps local posts support active units through welcome-home and going-away events. It provides assistance to families who are deployed and have unexpected financial hardships.

If you are looking for a way to support veterans in remembrance of this Veterans Day, consider making a charitable contribution to your local VFW post. While it is a government-chartered non-profit organization, it receives no government contributions and relies solely on local contributions to keep its services afloat.

Dwight Economic Alliance Happenings

Here's a look at what the Dwight Economic Alliance has been doing the last couple of months:

Marketing materials have been created and are being shared with brokers looking for new locations for businesses. On November 5 the group will attend a Rail Summit with representatives of the Grundy Economic Development Council.

Ideas continue to be shared for a repurposing of the prison grounds.

A sign has been hung above the pumps at the Ambler/Becker station. This Dwight, IL sign will appear in all photos taken by visitors around the world and shared with friends and family.

The group's website is in production and should be launched by the end of the year. They will make that information known as soon as the website is up and running.

The DEA has closed the Ambler/Becker station for the winter. Over 9000 visitors signed the guest book and many more stopped when the station was closed. The group couldn't have greeted all these visitors without the help of all the wonderful volunteers. One hundred volunteers donated over 1300 hours to help greet these visitors from around the world.

Here is a look at what the group is working on now:

Dwight Economic Alliance Dollars are now available. These gift certificates, redeemable at any of our member businesses, are available in $5, $10 and $20 denominations. A list of member businesses will accompany every certificate. These certificates encourage shopping local and make great gifts for those who are a challenge to buy for.

The DEA will celebrate Small Business Saturday November 29. Be sure to shop our local businesses and show your support.

The Dwight Christmas Parade will be held Friday, December 5 beginning at 6 p.m. Floats, bands, costumed characters and local units will lead Santa downtown. There is still room for anyone wanting to participate in the parade. Entry forms are available at the Alliance office in the Depot.

Santa will visit with children after the parade in his new house. The freight building south of the Depot will serve as Santa Headquarters this year. He will return three additional times for visitors. Letters to Santa may also be dropped in his mailbox. Make sure to include full name and address so Santa will be able to answer the letters.

A new program this year will be Adopt-A-Tree. Businesses, organizations and families may adopt a tree from the Alliance and decorate in a theme of their choosing. These trees will be placed throughout the downtown to create a Winter Wonderland.

Adoption forms are available at the Alliance office in the Depot.

The DEA's 2015 membership Drive will begin soon. Several membership levels are available for individuals, organizations and businesses.

Anyone that has any questions concerning the organization is encouraged to talk to a board member or stop by the Dwight Economic Alliance office in the Depot. The group is available Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Shoppers Needed for Dwight Christmas for Kids

The Christmas for Kids program in Dwight needs volunteers to shop for the children using their "Wish Lists" and funds from the Christmas for Kids Committee.

To become a shopper, you may go to Dwight United Methodist Church, 701 S. Columbia St., between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Thursday, November 13, to pick up a list. Lists are distributed on a first come, first served basis.

Gifts purchased will need to be wrapped and properly labeled when dropped off at the church Thursday, December 11 between 11 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

If you have any questions, contact the Christmas for Kids Committee at 815-584-2179.

Heart Quilt Guild to Meet

Pieces from the Heart Quilt Guild will meet on Friday, November 7, at The First Midwest Bank Building on the third floor, 220 W. Main St., Morris.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. There will be a short business meeting, followed by a program presented by Jill and Vickie from Yellow Creek Quilt Designs, Pearl City. Visitors are welcome, but will be charged a small fee to attend.

On Saturday, November 8, Jill and Vickie will teach a workshop with a project from a new book they have written. If interested in attending the workshop please contact Debbie at 815-671-1546 for additional information, a supply list and for the cost of the workshop.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

'Justice for All'

In March of 2011, I received a court summons relating to the sale of my house in September 2009, a year and a half later.

The case is still open and was again continued until April 2015, meanwhile I am enduring the aggravation and the attorney fees keep mounting. The court fees and attorney costs have bankrupted me, and they are still accruing. I thought every U.S. citizen has a right to a speedy trial, but that has not been my experience. We will go back to court April 2015 to hear the final judgment, that is unless the case is continued yet again!

Wired

It’s always preached to chase your dreams, and make sure that you love your occupation, and tonight (Sunday) I watched a man who did both those things, but he also happens to be one of the dumbest people in the world. Nik Wallenda walked across two wires Sunday in Chicago, both of which were upwards of a couple hundred feet in the air. His family has been doing it for generations and generations, dating all the way back to before his family came over to the United States from Europe. This isn’t the first time he’s done something incredible, and probably won’t be the last as he holds multiple world records. There are many passions one could have, I would assume that most of them don’t involve taking a wrong step, and that wrong step potentially ending your life, but the possibilities are endless. Odd that something that could end so tragically draws in human interest more than any other form of entertainment, it was like that during the Roman Empire and it’s still like that. When Wallenda crossed the Grand Canyon over 1 billion people viewed the event, not all of which were live, but 1 billion. That’s roughly 1/7th of the world’s population. That’s unreal. This guy has a net worth of a million dollars, but is uninsurable because of his line of work; the guy is really an oddball when it comes to being a person. One time during a walk, he faked a slip to increase the ratings, needless to say, ABC wasn’t very happy about that. If you have the time I would highly suggest researching more on this man, as he is very interesting. It also just goes to show that there is something for anyone. Be passionate about something, (I would advise picking something safer than this,) but it’s really cool to hear about people loving what they do even when it is very, very odd, and dangerous.

Galloway Takes First in Lisle Class A Sectional, On To State

Daly Galloway

GSW PANTHERS CROSS COUNTRY

Saturday, November 1
 GSW at Lisle
 Class A Sectional

Daly Galloway's superb showing in the Lisle Class A sectionals over the weekend earned her a trip to the State Meet this Saturday in Peoria.

Galloway ran a time of 18:37, good enough for first place and topping former Panther Stephanie Simms' Lisle sectional record time by 20 seconds.

For the boys, Michael Mankowski placed 28th overall with a time of 18:06, improving his sectional time by 28 seconds from last season.

Freshman Dan Muller also had a strong race in his first sectional meet.

Also advancing to State was area runner, Brandon Wilkerson, a senior from Tri-Point. He ran a time of 16:28.

Defense Stops Run; Herscher Moves On

Herscher's boys of fall have kept the playoff spirit alive for one more week, taking down Class 4A Fighting Irish, Bishop McNamara.

Herscher came into the contest knowing that defense, specifically stopping the run game of stand-out running back Jonathan Ward of Bishop McNamara, was the team's golden ticket to the second round of the state playoffs. However, as it got closer to gametime it became very clear, that not only would defense play a key roll, but sheer fortitude and endurance was going to be just as important, as the weather forecasters predicted the coldest Halloween in 19 years with wind gusts that could cut straight to the bone.

The first quarter was a true battle of defenses with each team holding the other to mere yards. Bishop broke the silence first in the second quarter, but failed to score the two-point conversion, making the score 6-0.

Herscher answered with an 80-yard return on the kickoff and was able to put away the PAT giving the Tigers a 7-6 lead.

Herscher did a standout job of shutting down the Irish's running game forcing them to throw the ball.

Herscher had the next two scores, an 11-yard pass from Brendan Powell to Tristan Rose and a 29-yard run touchdown by Jordan Lamie, putting the Tigers up 21-6.

Bishop McNamara tried to rally in the fourth quarter with two 21-yard touchdowns, the second coming with only four minutes left in regulation, bringing the score to 21-18.

The Irish then held Herscher to three and out. Bishop came out looking at 80 yards to pull off the win. They did get the ball to mid-field before Chris Offerman grabbed his second interception of the night.

Herscher will face Rockford Lutheran, date and time is yet to be determined.

GSW Orange and Black Night

GSW High School Athletic Boosters would like to invite everyone to its Orange and Black Night on November 15. This fun-filled evening will include raffles, food, spirit wear, and a chance to preview this season's athletes.

There is a small entry fee, with doors opening at 5 p.m. A meal will be served, and the boys J.V. game will kick things off, with the event finishing at 8 p.m. Watch for the entire schedule of events in the next issue of The Paper.

Swamis In Love

Week 8 Paper Bowl XIV

Well, this is cute. We have a boyfriend and a girlfriend playing the Paper Bowl together. Dwight's Chris Kobel and Carissa Gunty put their names on the same entry form, and together they brought home the weekly $25 Paper Bowl gift certificate. These two kids have a bright future together. They scored an 11-3 record and tied three other swamis. The tiebreaker for week eight was 684. Chris and Carissa guessed 671 (-13). Dwight's Tim Wagenschutz came closest to our lovebirds with a tiebreaker guess of 642 (-42). Next was Dwight's Mark German 618 (-66) and finally Lee Dixon 600 (-84). One hundred and twelve entries were totaled in week eight. Fifteen swamis had 10-4 records. They were Dwight's Ruth Houch, Anne Martin, Bill Martin, Lee Dixon, Jayson Powell, Keith Lauritzen, Glenda German, Wayne German, Blake Banks and Nancy Legner;

Coal City's Skyler Vaughn; Braceville's Tim Humbert; and Odell's Terrence Schook. Thirty-three entries were 9-5; 20 finished 8-6 and the remaining entries were .500 or below.

Two more $25 Paper Bowl Gift Certificates remain before we up the ante. It's easy to get in on the fun. Show up at one of our designated drop locations and fill out an entry form. You may enter once at each spot. This week you can enter at Big Boyz Toyz, LPL Keeley Building, and 1st National Bank of Dwight.

Don't delay. Get in today.

Herscher Ends Season With A Win

Herscher Soccer had a busy couple of days on October 31 and November 1. The boys were in Normal playing in the Class 1A state games.

The trip, however, wasn't a fluke for this powerful Tiger team. The boys were coming back for redemption after placing second last year.

The first night Herscher played a tough Columbia team in the semi-final game. The first half Herscher picked to play with the wind, hoping Mother Nature would be an ally, helping them to score early and build momentum, but that was not the case and the game remained scoreless until the second half, when Columbia was able to keep up their pressure on defense and make all of their goals, ending the game 3-0.

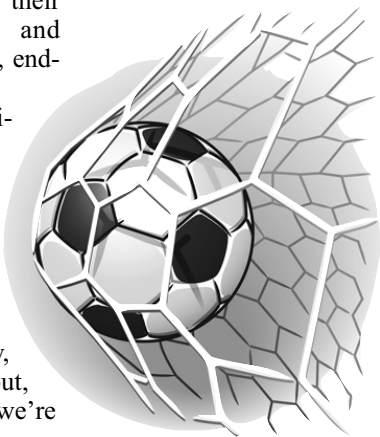

The Tigers were definitely off-kilter, but Coach Alan High told the boys "only two teams in the entire state get to end their season with a win, our goal was to win state, the pressure is off now, we're going to come out, we're going to play, we're going to have fun and whatever will be, will be. We're going to go down fighting."

That is exactly what the Tigers did the following day. Once again the first half remained scoreless, but this time the second half goal was sunk by Tiger freshman Brandon Sommer, putting Herscher ahead of Harvard 1-0 and ending the season with the win.

The game helped them finish tied for second with the most wins in a season (29).

Twelve seniors will graduate from this soccer powerhouse, but the lower classmen coming up will be aggressively replicating the efforts and triumphs this team is known for.

Chatsworth Corner by Mare Reardanz

PRNSCO FIRE was brought under control by the Chatsworth Fire Department.

The Prinsco Co. had a fire at one of their holding buildings on Halloween afternoon about 4:30 p.m. Cause of the fire has not been determined at this time. Neighbor, Shirley Runyon, noticed the smoke and reported, "The whole roof was ablaze! I can't see how bad it is, but you could see the flames shooting up over the two story homes across the street from my house."

Prinsco manufactures drainage tile. A family-owned business since 1975, and a global leader in agricultural water management, the company has nine manufacturing plants in the United States and two in Canada. They are known for their integrity fittings and ECOFLO 100 green friendly piping.

The fire was called in as a contents fire in a 100 square foot building. The outside storage area contained plastics and cardboard.

Structural damage is reported. Fire was contained to a 30 by 15' area and was quickly under control by the Chatsworth Fire Department.

There were four fire companies originally called from Forrest, Piper City, Cullom and Pontiac; however their orders were cancelled after the blaze was assessed. No one was hurt in the blaze and there were no toxic fumes.

In other news, Halloween went well. Neighbors counted about 60 trick or treaters (which is down from last year's 70) between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The Citizens Advisory Board hosted two parties for kids at the American Legion. Parties included hot dogs and treats for the younger kids and their families, and pizza and treats for the older ones. There were games and a drawing plus a special "Zombie Dance" for each group.

Fox Selected as DAR Award Winner

Ashley Fox

DTHS Senior Ashley Fox was selected as the DAR Good Citizen Award winner for the 2014-15 school year. The Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen program and scholarship contest are intended to encourage and reward the qualities of good citizenship. The male or female student selected as the school's DAR Good Citizen must have the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism to an outstanding degree. Ashley was selected by the Dwight High School faculty for this distinction. She will have the opportunity to enter into the scholarship contest where she could potentially receive anywhere from $250 to $5000 to use toward her post-secondary educational plans. Ashley is the daughter of Aaron and Susie Fox.

The DTHS Drama Department will be presenting its annual fall play on Thursday, November 6 and Friday, November 7. Both performances will begin at 7:00pm in the high school auditorium. Tickets will be available at the door. $5 for senior citizens and students through 12th grade; $7 for general audience. Play On! is the hilarious story of a community theater group trying desperately to put on a play in spite of maddening interference from a haughty author who keeps revising the script. Be sure to come out for an enjoyable evening!

Carlson, Galloway Selected to Attend HOBY Leadership Seminar

Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership provides lifelong leadership development opportunities that empower individuals to achieve their highest potential.

Samantha Carlson

Daly Galloway

Known as HOBY's flagship program, the Leadership Seminar is designed for high school sophomores to recognize their leadership talents and apply them in becoming effective, ethical leaders in their home, schools, workplace and community. The high level of energy, encouragement and motivation, as well as the interaction with peers, panelists and volunteers are important elements in nurturing the students' future leadership roles.

ize and run these three- or four-day seminars, and also raise the funds to pay for program expenses. Each September, every accredited public, private and charter high school in the country is invited to select and register an outstanding sophomore as their representative to their local state seminar. Currently, nearly 9,000 sophomores, representing as many high schools nationwide, attend HOBY Leadership Seminars annually. For the third year in a row, Dwight Township High School is partnering with the Dwight Woman's Club to cover the cost of the week-end-long seminar for two Dwight students. Samantha Carlson and Daly Galloway, DTHS sophomores, were selected to represent DTHS at the 2015 Leadership Seminar to be held at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington early next summer. Samantha is the daughter of Jim and Theresa Carlson and Daly is the daughter of Lane and Timi Galloway. All sophomore students were invited to pick up applications and submit essays for the opportunity to attend this seminar.

Of Moss and Men To Be Presented by Gardner-South Wilmington High School

Gardner-South Wilmington High School Drama Club presents Of Moss and Men, a play by David Meyer, produced by special arrangement with Eldridge Publishing Co. Mickey and Minnie Moss are the proud new owners of an old abandoned inn which they want to restore and turn into a nightclub. Unfortunately, they are so busy overseeing suspiciously inept repairmen that they pay little attention to the local legend that tells of a treasure hidden somewhere on the estate. When a severe storm develops forcing an unusual assortment of guests to stay the night, it doesn't take a genius to figure out that everyone wants a piece of the loot. One might kill for the amount of money that is hidden...and someone does. The owners must figure out who did it. The play will be Friday, November 7 and Saturday, November 8. Performance time is 7 p.m. with the doors opening at 6:30 p.m. both nights. Tickets for the dinner and the show are available for a fee, with a reduced fee for students and senior citizens (65 and older). Tickets for the show only are also available for a lesser rate. Pre-sale tickets may be purchased in the office of the high school for a discounted price.

DTHS FCCLA Attends Fall Leadership Meeting

Dwight Township High School participated in the FCCLA Fall Leadership Meeting held October 29 at the Chateau Conference Center in Bloomington.

The Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) recognize that teens can play an essential role in improving the lives of families, schools and communities. Given the organization's vast network of established chapters in schools, FCCLA provides a tremendous vehicle for young people to take on projects and activities in all areas of life. This year, the students who attended the annual Fall Leadership Meeting were able to attend workshops on current issues including a Leadership Academy and a culinary presentation by Kendall College. The dynamic speaker, Dan Duffy of St. Louis, MO, shared his message of "Explore the Possibilities" with the students. 19 members of Dwight Township High School's FCCLA attended. Students in FCCLA range from freshmen to senior level. Dwight FCCLA thanks Mrs. Denise Swink for chaperoning.

Mrs. Kathy Patten, Dwight FCCLA advisor, also attended the conference with the group of young leaders.

Community Members Encouraged to Create Decorations for Annual Dwight Woman's Club Festival of Trees

As the holiday seasons approach, members of the Dwight community are saying thank you for the blessings in their lives by beginning to plan for their donation of a Christmas tree, wreath or table centerpiece to be raffled or auctioned for the charity or non-profit organization of their choice during the annual Festival of Trees sponsored by the Dwight Woman's Club.

Many different charities will benefit from the talents of the decorators and the generosity of those who visit the event to be held on Saturday, December 6, and Sunday, December 7, at the Pioneer Gothic Church. Special events to be held at the church during the festival are the Woman's Club Christmas Cookie Sale and an opportunity for children and families to have a Christmas Photo taken with Santa for a small fee.

The Festival of Trees committee welcomes individuals, businesses, social groups or church groups to create a Christmas tree, wreath or centerpiece for the festival and name the charity or non-profit organization that will benefit from their decoration. The decorators will have the option of having silent auction bids taken for their décor or having their item raffled by having visitors purchase raffle tickets to take a chance on winning the decoration. Anyone interested in creating a Christmas decoration for this year's Festival of Trees should contact Marcia Drach at 815-252-3086 of their mom and dad and cousins, have been decorating trees for the Dwight Woman's Club Festival of Trees for the past 4 years. Last year they brought two trees to the festival, as they had two very special people in their lives that they wished to remember during the holiday season. They are busy working on two trees to bring again this year.

Candy Land, a red and white swirled artificial tree with white lights, will benefit St. Jude's Cancer Research in memory of Hunter Gerdes. Hunter was a school mate of Pierce and Carson at the Saunemin Elementary School, as well as being a family friend of the Crouches. The boys feel it is important to help in children's cancer research and this is one way they can raise money for this important cause. The five foot tree will have ceramic gingerbread cookies, peppermint candy and cupcakes as ornaments. The tree topper will be a grouping of candy canes bursting from the top of the tree. The tree will also include a tree skirt. Chances will be sold on this tree for a small fee throughout the festival.

Old Glory at Christmas is the second tree the Crouch family is decorating for the festival. Proceeds from this tree will go to the Special Olympics. This tree is in memory of a close friend, Casey Kohlmeier. One of Casey's favorite charities was the Special Olympics and he helped the Special Olympics cause immensely throughout his life. The Crouch family was very close to Casey, he was an important role model to the boys, and they are still very close to Casey's family. The family feels it is important for them to continue to contribute to Casey's special cause.

This six foot tree rotates on its stand and features energy-efficient pre-lit lights in the top blue section to recreate the stars of Old Glory, and red and white stripes on the bottom half. There will be red, white and blue ornaments hung on the tree. The tree topper is a star. Chances will be sold on this special tree for $1 and the boys are hoping someone with a true patriotic spirit takes it home for Christmas.

The Dwight Woman's Club has chosen the Dwight Food Pantry to benefit from the proceeds of their tree this year. The blue six-foot pre-lit pencil tree has the theme of the movie Frozen. The Woman's Club recognizes the need for donations to the Food Pantry throughout the year, especially during the holiday season and after the beginning of the new year.

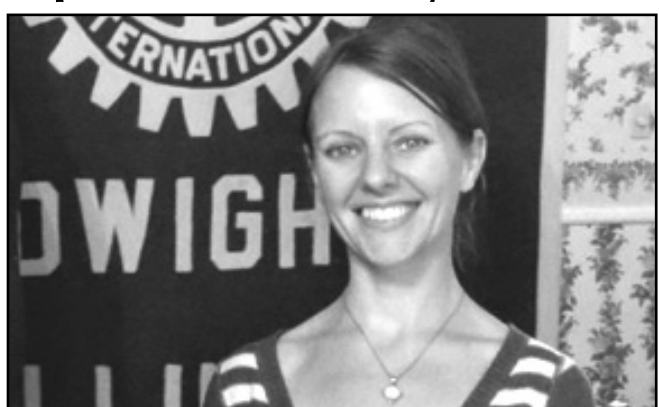

The club is hoping that many visitors to the Festival of Trees will buy raffle tickets and take a chance on winning this Frozen tree and in doing so be a part of supporting the Food Pantry during the Christmas season.

The sparkling blue tree looks a little crooked as if it is blowing in a winter wind storm. It features a variety of crystal and frosted ornaments donated by Woman's Club members as well as lots of Frozen treasures, including a charm bracelet, Olaf drinking cup, fleece Frozen blanket, Olaf pillow, figurines from the movie, the Frozen Snow globe and Frozen storybooks. The tree will be topped with a mylar Olaf balloon.

This tree would be a perfect Frozen addition to a child's holiday bedroom this year.

Dwight Rotary Hosts Peace Corps Member, Jenny Venesek

The Rotary Club of Dwight welcomed guest speaker Jenny Venesek of the Peace Corps to their meeting Wednesday, October 29. Ms. Venesek has served in the Peace Corps since 2005 and has been stationed in Tanzania, Egypt, and Malawi.

In Tanzania, Ms. Venesek ran a community health educational after school program and in her second year in Tanzania, at the villagers' request, she was able to open a health clinic. She was fortunate enough to get the health clinic funded in Tanzania by the Peace Corps and Rotary International partnering as they do in a number of countries where both serve and work to "reinforce each other."

Through this collaboration, Peace Corps Volunteers and Rotary members in the US can work together to boost the impact of Peace Corps projects. One way this is being done is for Rotary clubs to search, and donate to volunteer projects through the Peace Corps Partnership program.

In Malawi, Ms. Venesek spent nine months with the District AIDS coordinator.

The Peace Corps is always looking for volunteers. The skill set needed to help in their countries of placement are wide and varied. Questions you should be able to answer are "Where do you want to serve," and "What skills do you have?" Visit www.peacecorps.gov to review the application process. After applying an interview will be held that offers placement options and they will give input on how to expand your skill base to be the most effective volunteer possible.

The three areas the Peace Corps utilize are health, agriculture, and environmental awareness. You must be 18 or older to apply, but there are not maximum age restrictions.

The Peace Corps has three goals:

1. Serve the community.
2. Be an ambassador of the United States by showing goodwill and character.
3. Return to the United States and share information

"THEY'RE HERE." OR THERE. While no poltergeists came out of staticky televisions, local citizens did get a good good scare on November 1. Dwight Historical Society held its ghost walk in Dwight. Tours began at the Country Mansion on the patio and several tours proceeded north to the downtown area and then ended with light refreshments in the park on Main Street.

AREA CITIZENS PRESENTED THE PROGRAMS reciting Dwight historical accounts to participating tour-goers. The Society's first walk was deemed a success.
