Dwight Historical Society Veteran Mathew Kreeb To Speak June 15

The Dwight Historical Society will meet Monday, June 15, at the Dwight VFW. In lieu of their usual meeting at the depot, the society is urging members to attend the program, which is sponsored by a joint committee of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary and the Dwight Woman's Club.

The program will be presented by Matthew Kreeb, a veteran who served in the U.S. Army from 2001 to 2005 as a Guard of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. The free program will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Committee members are offering a picnic plate supper from 5:00-6:00 p.m. at the hall before the program begins. Picnic plates will be for sale, with proceeds going to Operation SOS; ala carte items will also be available.

No business meeting will be held.

Stevenson Pool Still Accepting Enrollment for Summer Programs

Summer has officially begun at Dwight's Stevenson Pool, but it is not too late to sign up for the programs. The pool is offering two sets of swimming lessons: June 15-26 and July 6-17.

Water Aerobics and Lap Swimming are available Monday through Friday mornings 6:45-7:45, and Monday and Tuesday evenings from 5:30-6:30.

New members are always welcome on the The Dolphin Swim Team. The pool is open 1-5:30 p.m. daily and 6:30-9:00 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The pool is available for rentals on Tuesday and Sunday evenings. For more information on any of the programs, call the pool at (815) 584-3385.

Dwight Moves Forward with School Transportation Measures

Districts Consider GLCEDC Tax Abatement Proposal

Transportation was the main focus when the Boards of Education for Dwight Township High School District #230 and Dwight Grade School District #232 met in a joint session on June 3.

In April, both Dwight BOEs unanimously agreed to reject a final proposal from Illinois Central School Bus for providing bus services to the Dwight school districts and also agreed to move forward with a plan to manage bus transportation services in-house. At that time, the boards approved a leasing option that will give the Dwight School Districts more control of their transportation needs while showing an anticipated overall cost savings. Utilizing a three year bus leasing agreement with Midwest Transit, the in-house transportation proposal has an overall cost projection of $412,515 for year one, with that figure dropping approximately $40,000 in years two and three.

At the June 3 meeting, the boards reviewed an intergovernmental agreement regarding transportation between the two Dwight school districts. Through the agreement, Dwight Township High School will be the managing party and will provide transportation services to Dwight Grade School at a contracted rate. However, due to a lack of quorum by the Dwight Grade School BOE at the June 3 meeting, pending actions were tabled and the Boards will approve the agreement at their respective regular June sessions.

Actions were taken by the DTHS Board, as the managing party, to approve recommendations for the 2015-16 Driver Pay Rate Schedule; employ Transportation Coordinators, and employ Bus Drivers. The Bus/ Vehicle Driver Compensation placement schedule was approved for the 2015-16 school year beginning July 1.

The board approved hiring Transportation Coordinators Maria "Mia" Kreush and Alicia Daly at an annual salary of $12,000 each. Drivers were also approved for hire including Ruth Seplak, Ray Brockman, Dan Marek, Cynthia McMeen, William Worby, Donna Roland, Jeanette Miller, Jane Lemke, Barb Hyatt, and Enrique Villafranco. Drivers hired in at hourly pay ranging from $11.33 - $13.53. Paid benefits include annual physical exams, random drug screens, annual recertification trainings, ISBE mandated trainings, transportation meetings as needed, and IMRF if applicable.

Also approved was the Dwight Public Schools #230 and #232 Bus Driver Handbook.

In other business at the joint board session, Adam Dontz, Chief Executive Officer of the Greater Livingston County Economic Development Council, was on hand and presented information regarding a Livingston County Property Tax Abatement Plan. Dontz, on behalf of the GLCEDC, invited Dwight School Districts to join with other area taxing bodies to adopt the abatement plan. The primary objective of the plan is to retain and attract new and diverse business in order to increase the equalized assessed valuation (tax base) of the county by incenting new commercial construction.

The GLCEDC believes the construction of new buildings and the addition of employees at sustainable wages will, over time, lead to increased sales tax revenue, property tax revenue, more students in schools, and help to stabilize and increase residential and commercial property values. The abatement program is designed to allow the Livingston County area to better compete with counties such as Grundy, McLean, Peoria, and Will which have larger labor forces and tax incentive plans already approved. The abatement does not impact existing revenue streams of any taxing body and the abatement only applies to future tax revenue resulting from new construction.

According to a Livingston County Demographic Profile provided by the GLCEDC, Dwight's Labor Shed is 354,787 (accessible labor base in 45 minutes or less). Area demographics show a Livingston County estimated population of 38,950. Livingston County's top five largest employers are RR Donnelley, Dwight and Pontiac; Caterpillar Inc, Pontiac; OSF St James Hospital, Pontiac; Vactor, Streator; and Interlake Mexlux Inc, Pontiac.

No action regarding the Livingston County Property Tax Abatement plan was taken by Dwight School Districts. The information will be reviewed by both BOEs with a decision regarding joining the abatement program to be made at a later date.

ON MONDAY, PROF. MARK POTASNAK and Prof. Bernhard Beck-Winchatz did a launch in Dwight's Renfrew Park with his DePaul class, Chemistry of Earth Systems. The students were doing several experiments. One balloon was going high (approximately 90,000 ft) to measure the Earth's ozone layer. Another experiment involved measuring carbon dioxide concentrations. This experiment is led by a student, Angie Bouche, who is also the teaching assistant for the class. Plants take carbon dioxide out of the atmosphere by the process of photosynthesis naturally. But humans have artificially increased the amount of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere by burning fossil fuels. By doing two balloon launches and measuring carbon dioxide each time, they measured how much carbon dioxide is being removed by plants. This time of year it's mostly due to trees and other natural vegetation, but later in the summer agricultural crops will be mostly responsible. This is important to understand, since certain agricultural practices can help to take up some of the carbon dioxide released from fossil fuel combustion. The carbon dioxide launches reach about 40,000 - 50,000 ft, which is a bit above where commercial aircraft fly.

Dead Birds Needed by Health Department

The Iroquois County Public Health Department is asking for assistance from the public in the collection of dead birds found in Iroquois County.

"Since West Nile virus arrived in Illinois at the end of 2001, dead birds have been important sentinels for early West Nile virus activity," said Terry Eimen, Director of Environmental Health for the health department. "We are looking for 'perching birds' such as crows, blue jays, starlings, robins, cardinals, mockingbirds, catbirds, and grackles. Also many species of sparrows, finches, flycatchers, swallows, warblers and wrens will be accepted for testing."

Mr. Eimen said submitted birds should be believed dead less than 24 hours. Birds should only be submitted if they have not been damaged by scavenging animals and are not decomposed. Birds that have an obvious cause of death such as a gunshot wound or that have been hit by motor vehicles are not eligible for testing. Residents who find dead birds should double bag them in plastic bags (plastic bags that seal are the best) and then take them to the Iroquois County Public Health Department at 1001 East Grant Street in Watseka.

For more information regarding collection of dead birds, contact Iroquois County Public Health Department Environmental Staff at 815-432-2483.

Bat Tests Positive for Rabies in Grundy County

A bat that was submitted by a homeowner to Grundy County Animal Control for testing has tested positive for rabies.

Bats are starting to become more active, which means the possibility of exposure to rabies is increasing.

Bats are the primary carrier of rabies in Illinois. Never try to approach or catch a bat, or any wild animal, you find outside. Bats and wild animals that let people approach them are often not healthy. Instead, call your local animal control agency for its recommendations on how to handle the animal. The phone number for Grundy County Animal Control is 815-942-9214.

Rabies is a virus that affects the nervous system. People can get rabies after being bitten by an infected animal. Rabies can also be contracted when saliva from a rabid animal gets directly into a person's eyes, nose, mouth or a wound.

If you find yourself in close proximity to a bat and are not sure if you were exposed, i.e. - you wake up and find a bat in your room, do not kill or release the bat before calling your doctor or local health department to help determine if you could have been exposed to rabies and need preventative treatment. If the bat is available for testing and test results are negative, preventative treatment is not needed. Without preventative treatment, rabies is typically fatal. If you have been bitten or have had direct contact with a bat, seek immediate medical attention. Treatment with rabies immune globulin and a vaccine series must begin quickly.

An animal does not have to be aggressive or exhibit other symptoms to have rabies. Changes in any animal's normal behavior can be early signs of rabies. A bat that is active during the day, found on the ground or is unable to fly is more likely than others to be rabid. Such bats are often easily approached, but should never be handled.

The following tips can help prevent the spread of rabies:

- Be a responsible animal owner. Keep vaccinations up-to-date for all dogs, cats, ferrets and other animals you own.
- Seek immediate veterinary assistance for your pet if they are bitten by a wild animal or exposed to a bat.

- Call the local animal control agency about removing stray animals in your neighborhood.

- Do not touch, feed or unintentionally attract wild animals with open garbage cans or litter.

- Never adopt wild animals or take them into your home. Do not try to nurse sick, wild animals to health. Call animal control or an animal rescue agency for assistance.

- Teach children never to handle unfamiliar animals, wild or domestic, even if they appear friendly. "Love your own, leave other animals alone" is a good principle for children to learn to reduce the risk of exposures to rabid animals.

- Maintain homes and other buildings so bats cannot get inside.

- If a bat is in your home, do not release the bat outdoors until after speaking with animal control or public health officials. Try to cover the bat with a large can or bucket, and close the door to the room.

Information about keeping bats out of your home or buildings can be found at www.idph.state.il.us/envhealth/pcbats.htm.

What Are Your Excuses for Not Investing?

We all make excuses. Most of the time, they're pretty harmless. But you could be hurting yourself if you make excuses for not taking action in some areas — and one of those areas is investing.

Not investing, or not investing enough, can have serious consequences. In fact, a lot of people are poorly prepared financially for retirement. Consider these figures from the Federal Reserve: The median retirement account value for individuals between 35 and 44 is just $42,700; for people 55 to 64, the corresponding figure is $103,000. These figures are frighteningly low, especially when retirement can easily last two or three decades.

In short, you need to invest. So, what's stopping you? Here are some common excuses:

"I'll do it later." The longer you wait before you start investing, the less time you have to accumulate money, and the less likely it may be that you'll achieve your goals, such as a comfortable retirement lifestyle. If you haven't begun investing, do it today.

"I don't have enough money to invest." The cost of living is unquestionably high, and you may feel that you have just enough money to pay your bills before your next paycheck. But if you look for ways to economize, you may well be able to free up even a little money to invest each month. And then, when your salary goes up, you can increase the amount you invest.

"I'll have Social Security." Social Security benefits generally account for only about 40% of an individual's pre-retirement income, according to the Social Security Administration. Unless you want to scale back your lifestyle greatly during your retirement years, you'll need to supplement Social Security with your employer-backed retirement account, such as a 401(k), plus your own investments, such as those that go inside an IRA.

"Can I really invest enough money for my retirement?" Consider this: Going back to 1990, if you had invested $10,000 in the stocks that make up the S&P 500, and simply held on to these stocks, you would have amassed more than $76,000 after taxes by the end of 2013. Of course, past performance of the market is not a guarantee of how it will perform in the future, and the S&P 500 is an unmanaged index and is not meant to depict an actual investment — but this illustration still shows that patient, diligent, long-term investing can produce positive results.

"I don't know where to begin." If you work for a company that provides a retirement plan such as a 401(k) or something similar, you've already got a great place to begin. You only need to sign up for the plan and start deferring a part of your salary, and you're an investor. It's also quite easy to open an IRA, another popular retirement savings account. In any case, if you have doubts about how to get started investing, you will find it valuable to meet with a qualified investment professional.

Don't let excuses get in the way of developing good investment habits. With time, determination and effort, you can overcome many of the obstacles you thought prevented you from becoming a full-fledged investor.

New Life Assembly of God Celebrating 30 Years of Ministry in Dwight

Pastor Randy and Bonnie Randall

On Saturday, June 27, and Sunday, June 28, the New Life Assembly of God church, Dwight, will be celebrating 30 years of ministry, and they want you to stop out and celebrate with them.

The church has changed significantly over the years, built from the ground up at its current location in 1985. Robert Malone, who was the church's first pastor, had the building built, gathering church members together to worship even before the church was erected.

Since then, the church has grown and become a part of the Dwight community, undergoing both indoor and outdoor remodels. This includes the addition of the "Prayer Pit," a new space specifically designated as a comfortable spot for their youth group to relax, get comfortable, and discuss faith related issues.

After 30 years of being in Dwight, and after all of the changes and new people the church has seen since its creation, Pastor Randall said he felt it was time to celebrate.

"We're celebrating all the connections God has created through all the people and families that have grown with the church," Pastor Randall said. "We wanted to gather all of the former pastors and invite them back, to see how the church and community they invested in over the years has grown - and to rekindle those connections."

Pastor

Randall has been at the New Life Assembly of God church for a little over a year after seeing the Dwight location had an open position. Pastor Randall was then invited to speak at the church, whereafter members decided to elect him as their new Pastor.

But Pastor Randy insists that the celebration is more about recognizing the Dwight community, rather than just the church.

"It's also a celebration of general community along with spiritual; I realize not every member of Dwight will attend New Life Assembly church," Pastor Randall said. "But we are still a part of the community, and we want to share that light, that sense of connection, with the community that has welcomed and housed our church - in addition to thank them."

Echoing Pastor Randall's belief in community, the church's motto, visible on their facebook page, encourages all who enter to feel part of something; to feel like you belong: "Whether you're a businessman or a baker; saint or sinner; lost or lonely; or just looking for a home...there's a place for you at New Life."

On Saturday, June 27, the festivities are set to begin at 11:30 a.m., and will include free food, a bounce house, outdoor concert and more. Later on in the evening, there will be a celebration service with guest speakers Angel and Becky Escamilla.

Sunday, June 28, will start bright and early at 9 a.m., and will include guest speakers Dave and Ruth DeGarmo in the morning, and Brian Wood and Jeff Sandstrom in the evening. There will be a potluck after the DeGarmo's speak; everyone is encouraged to bring a dish to pass.

New Life Assembly of God church is located at 903 S. Old Rt. 66, Dwight. For more information about the celebration or the church, call 815-584-3430.

Livingston Co. Housing Authority Properties Become Smoke-Free

As of June 1, all Livingston County Housing Authority Properties became 100% smoke-free indoors and outdoors.

"The board made the decision to become smoke-free in an effort to protect our residents, employees and visitors from the harmful effects of tobacco smoke," stated Dale Schrock, housing authority board chairman.

The U.S. Department for Housing and Urban Development, the American Lung Association, the Illinois Department of Public Health, and the Livingston County Public Health Department all recommend smoke-free policies to protect both people and property.

MaLinda Hillman, Administrator of the Livingston County Public Health Department, says "The health department congratulates the housing authority board for making this decision and their staff for doing all the work necessary to make it happen."

In addition to protecting residents and employees from secondhand smoke, smoke-free policies create healthier environments that encourage people who smoke to quit. Smoke-free policies also help prevent children from becoming smokers, by establishing non-smoking as the social norm.

A smoke-free policy also saves the property owner money through reduced turnover costs and decreased risk of fires caused by careless use of smoking materials or smoking where oxygen is present. In units where smoking is permitted, the cost to get the unit ready for a new tenancy can be two to seven times more costly than in a smoke-free unit.

"There are resources available for residents who wish to take this opportunity to quit smoking," states Linda Rhodes, Health Education Director at the health department. "Through our partnerships with the housing authority and the American Lung Association on this policy effort, we have been, and will continue, assisting residents who are ready to quit smoking and those who are cutting back on the amount they smoke. Our 'congrats' to those quitters, too!"

Chatsworth Corner

by Mare Reardanz

Priscilla Agner is retiring after nearly 46 years of service to Citizen's Bank of Chatsworth.

The Citizen's Bank of Chatsworth has been home away from home for Priscilla Lang Agner since she was 19 years old and had recently graduated from Chatsworth High School. Bud Herr was looking to hire the best of the best out of the Chatsworth High School business class.

Priscilla came highly recommended and not just because she was the best at shorthand. She has always been good with numbers and had a customer winning personality. The interviews continued from February until August when she was finally hired.

"I began in the back room posting checks. You couldn't start as a teller back then, you had to work your way up," Priscilla remembers. "I have been fortunate to work with lots of great people, but Bud Herr will always be my favorite because he believed in me."

Some of her favorite aspects of the job included working with the customers, numbers, and keyboards. She still uses her typewriter on occasion and will always love numbers. "I still take shorthand, just not as fast," she said.

Her retirement plans include spending more time with her daughter, Kathy Robertson, and grandkids, Kallen, 9, and Kacely, 7, in Gibson City. Priscilla has been working on scrapbooks for each of the kids and has three volumes for each of them so far. Her mother, Veva Lang, is still in Chatsworth and going strong.

"My Mother inspired me to be everything I am today," Agner reminisced.

A retirement reception was held all day Friday at the bank so longtime customers could come and say goodbye. It was a grand event with punch, cookies and her favorite homemade toffee. Her daughter Kathy brought 45 live butterflies from Florida to release in Priscilla's honor. Time to "Fly Free."

Futures Unlimited held their annual Awards and Appreciation night May 14 in Pontiac. Futures Unlimited was established in 1970 by a group of parents of children with disabilities that recognized a need for a workshop and activity center for adults with disabilities.

The agency evolved over the years to assist adults with disabilities to reach their maximum potential and achieve independence. Sam Tauber of Chatsworth was the president of the parents group that had the foresight to create an agency that would fill the needs of their disabled kids as they matured.

After Sam passed away in 1979, his wife Verla continued an active interest in the special needs of others. She has been a constant supporter of Futures and has offered her wisdom, knowledge and generosity.

In honor of Futures Unlimited 45th anniversary and Verla's 100th birthday, Verla was recognized for her support and dedication to the mission.

Because of Verla and her efforts, people in Livingston County truly have their futures unlimited.

Livingston Co. Retired Teachers To Meet June 18

The Board of Livingston County Retired Teachers Association has announced a new day and location for the June meeting. This meeting will be held Thursday, June 18, at Pontiac Family Kitchen. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m., with the breakfast buffet being served at 9:00.

The guest speaker will be Bob Pinkerton, president of the Illinois Retired Teachers Association. Pinkerton is a member of Morgan/Scott RTA Unit #47 and Greene/Jersey RTA Unit #42. He joined IRTA following retirement from North Greene Unit #3, White Hall and Roodhouse, where he had taught for 15 years and served as a building principal for 15 years.

He became actively involved with IRTA in 1995 during the insurance crisis of that year. Since that time, he has served in various positions with the organization. For 20 years, he has been involved in the growth and activities of IRTA, doing what it takes to preserve retiree benefits while keeping the best interests of membership as his main priority. Pinkerton has a BA from SIU - Edwardsville and an MA degree from U of I in Springfield. His wife is a retired School Psychologist and Spec. Ed. Administrator. They reside in Jacksonville and have six children and 22 grandchildren.

An additional presenter will be Christopher Glick, who is a District Manager for AMBA (Association Member Benefits Advisors). AMBA deals with various offerings available to IRTA members, including such insurance as cancer, nursing home, travel, etc. He will distribute a list of what is available to members, but will only bring them up-to-date on the new offerings. He will be available to answer individual questions after the meeting.

Another guest at the meeting will be Bill Lane, Membership Director for Region 7. He will discuss the new membership incentives being introduced by IRTA.

The scholarship program that was introduced last year will continue again in 2015. Two $250 scholarships are given for noteworthy classroom projects. This program is funded through the 50/50 drawing held at the meeting.

Reservations are requested and should be made with Susan Schnell at 102 Western St., Cornell, IL 61319. A fee applies. Checks can be mailed in advance and should be made out to LCRTA. Reservations should be made by Thursday, June 11, but no later than Saturday, June 13. Phone reservations can be made by calling Sue at 815-358-2669, or Navana Ahrends at 815-842-0579.

Any retired teacher who lives in Livingston County or who taught in Livingston Co. is always welcome to attend a meeting. Guests are also welcome - just make a reservation.

The next meeting will be August 18.

Officers for this year are: Navana Ahrends, President; Roger Tuttle, Vice President; Dee Dee Raube, Secretary; and co-Treasurers Sue Schnell and Susan Michel. Alberta Kinate and Cathy Montgomery are co-chairs for Membership.

DTHS Class of 1950 Gets Together May 31

Nine members of the Dwight Township High School Class of 1950 gathered for brunch and reminiscing at The Country Mansion in Dwight Sunday, May 31.

Several were from Dwight: Annie Voigts Marsh, Doris Denaple Bissey with husband Harold, Melvin Burger and Tom Tock; Lansing Hodgman from Joliet; Jim Lund from Herscher; Dale Larson, Coal

City; Charlie Stull, Streator and Bob Smith from Galesburg.

Hodgman was Senior Class President and Annie Voigts, Secretary, 65 years ago.

The group plans to meet again in year "66" on "66."

WGGS to meet June 13

The Will/Grundy Genealogical Society will hold their monthly meeting Saturday, June 13, at 10:00 a.m. in the Coal City Public Library, located at 85 N. Garfield St.

The speaker will be Robert Kuzma, president of the Board of Directors of the Joliet Area Historical Museum. He is also a Civil War historian and re-enactor. His presentation will focus on the Will and Grundy men who fought in the local regiments of the Civil War.

The public is invited to attend and refreshments will be served.

Next WOW Wednesday June 10 in Pontiac

A group of local businesses in downtown Pontiac have agreed to keep their doors open until 8:00 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month, in order to encourage more people to shop local after work.

In March, P.R.O.U.D. and the City of Pontiac hosted a Downtown Quarterly Forum in which parking and store hours were two of the biggest obstacles facing downtown.

Over the summer, weekends are usually packed with baseball games, weddings, graduation parties, and family vacations. Following the forum, a group of local shop owners met at Apple Tree to come up with a solution for later store hours for people who work. Nine local businesses participated in May's WOW Wednesday.

The next WOW Wednesday is scheduled for Wednesday, June 10, and Charmed Boutique, 101 W. Madison St., will be hosting. Wine and cheese will be served throughout the evening and shoppers can register to win a free gift card. A dozen businesses will be open late, including three new ones.

Karen Schulz, of Home Wishes, envisions expanding WOW Wednesdays to include trunk shows. Pontiac's Farmer's Market is already considering hosting an evening Farmer's Market in the summer to complement WOW Wednesdays. Future plans also include finishing the evening with dinner or drinks, with over 20 nearby restaurants and bars all within walking distance of the shops.

Public Invited to Hear Matt Kreeb's Military Service

Matthew Kreeb

On Monday, June 15, Members of the Dwight VFW Auxiliary and Dwight Woman's Club welcome community members to attend an evening with Matt Kreeb, a veteran who served in the U.S. Army from 2001 to 2005 as a Guard of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. Matt will be speaking about Arlington, the Tomb, and the real life applications of the lessons he learned while serving as a Tomb Guard.

The evening program will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the VFW Hall and is free to the public. A picnic plate supper will be available for purchase from 5-6 p.m. before the program, with seating available outside in the VFW picnic area and at tables inside the hall. Picnic plates will include a bbq or hot dog, chips, dessert and will be available for a small fee; ala carte items will also be available. The barbeque and hot dogs are being provided by Brad Trainor of the Old Log Cabin restaurant in Pontiac. Proceeds from the picnic plate sales will go to Operation SOS in Dwight.

Now a civilian, Matt Kreeb works in a real estate business and Christian ministries. He is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University and Lincoln Christian Seminary. Matt and his wife, Jessica, raise their three daughters in Fisher, IL.

The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery stands atop a hill overlooking Washington, D.C. On March 4, 1921, Congress approved the burial of an unidentified American soldier from World War I in the plaza of the new Memorial Amphitheater. Inscribed on the back of the Tomb are the words: "Here rests in honored glory an American soldier known but to God."

The ladies of the Woman's Club and the VFW Auxiliary hope that many community members, old and young, will join them to learn more about the life and life lessons of a Tomb Guard.

There is no charge for the program, however donations to Operation SOS will be gladly accepted at the door. SOS will be sending July 4th packages to area servicemen and would appreciate donations of toothbrushes, toothpaste, disposable razors, combs, food items such as hard candy, licorice, cheese and crackers, beef jerky, lemonade packets, cookies, or a monetary donation to include in the packages and help with shipping costs.

The program had originally been planned for November 2014, but had to be cancelled at that time. The Woman's Club and VFW Auxiliary are happy to be able to bring Mathew Kreeb to Dwight over the Flag Day weekend to present his program to the community.

OBITUARY

James Bruce Legner

ANCHORAGE, AK – James Bruce Legner, born January 3, 1944, passed away May 21, 2015 in Anchorage, surrounded by his very loving family.

Jim was born in Palm Springs, California, but spent most of his childhood in Dwight, where he resided until joining the United States Army in 1967.

Jim was a distinguished veteran of the Vietnam War, receiving multiple medals and commendations during his service. After being discharged in 1969, Jim attended University in Madison, Wisconsin. After graduation, he worked for Time Warner in Chicago as a computer programmer. In Chicago he met the love of his life, Suzanne Drips.

Jim and Suzanne were married November 17, 1973. They resided in Chicago until moving to Soldotna, Alaska in 1974. Jim worked various jobs, among his favorite was stay-at-home dad, working as a daycare provider for neighborhood children.

In 1982, Jim began his true calling as a teacher in the Kenai Peninsula School District. Jim worked at many of the Kenai Peninsula schools, but eventually found his home school at North Star Elementary in Nikiski, Alaska. He worked at North Star Elementary for 13 years until finishing his career at Central Office for the Kenai Peninsula School District as an information specialist. During Jim's tenure as a school district employee, he was not only known as a fantastic teacher, but also the schoolhouse prankster. Many of Jim's colleagues were "startled" by his innocent pranks.

Jim retired from the school district in 2011 to begin his pursuit of some of the other great pleasures in life.

He was an avid sports enthusiast, and enjoyed all sports teams from Chicago. He was a lifelong Cubs, Bears, and Bulls fan. He also enjoyed watching his children and grandchildren participate in sports.

Jim's other favorite pastimes were playing golf, poker and cooking. He was a regular at the Kenai Golf Course, usually getting 40+ rounds of golf in a year. When he wasn't playing golf, he frequently played poker on-line and live poker with his poker "crew." Jim's highlight poker moment was playing in the World Series of Poker in 2010, when he made it to the third day and narrowly missed making the money cut.

Jim always prided himself as being a master on the BBQ, as well as an amazing cook in the kitchen. Many people enjoyed his mastery of pastries, specifically his famous cream puffs.

Jim was a well-read scholar, whose sharp wit will be missed. He never met a stranger and was always willing to share his stories. One of Jim's greatest gifts was his ability to entertain people with his humor and stories. He was able to touch so many lives during his time with us. He will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

Jim's legacy will not only be carried on by his family and friends, but by the countless students who had the privilege of enjoying his talents.

Jim had decided to be cremated and wished to have his ashes spread in a place that was very special to him.

The family's private ceremony to spread Jim's ashes: at his special Alaskan location.

He is survived by his wife, Suzanne Legner; sons: Jesse (Lisa), Zachary, and Joseph; sisters: Barbara (Ervin) Daniels and Jean Steichen; grandchildren: Quinn, Gavin, Connor, and Kora Legner; and Skyler, Gabriella, and Giovanni Gioiosa. Jim is also survived by many beloved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Merlin "Bud" Legner; his mother, Ruth Legner; and his brother-in-law, Girard Steichen.

A "Celebration of Life" service, from 2 until 4 p.m. on Thursday, June 4, was held at Peninsula Memorial Chapel & Crematory.

Jim and his family request donations be made to your favorite charity.

Cremation arrangements were by the Cremation Society of Alaska.

Erin Gaston Named to University of St. Francis Dean's List

Erin Gaston, who is attending the University of St. Francis, Joliet, was announced to the school's Dean's List for the Spring 2015 Semester.

Erin is the daughter of Jim and Shelah Gaston, Emington.

The Finals

We're two games into the NBA Finals with Golden State and Cleveland and it's tied 1 game to 1 game. We're also two games in the Stanley Cup Final and it's also tied 1 game to 1 game between Tampa Bay and Chicago. I think I've said before how certain times of the year are better than others because of what the sporting world has to offer. This time of the year in early June is also one of the best because we have two championship series taking place at the same time. A lot of it depends on how well the series ends up. Looking at the two that are taking place I would take a bet that both are going to go 6 or 7 games. (For the Blackhawks sake I hope that it's over in 5, but I just don't know how realistic that is, but I hope they win the next 3.) Both of the Hockey games, although they didn't go into overtime have been decided by just 1 goal. I've said before that sports is the best drama that we have left because it's unscripted, and I think these two series so far have shown that, and they will continue to show that as the two carry on in the coming days and weeks.

I think that it would only be fair since both are tied 1-1 to choose a winner in each series. For the hockey one, I'm a little biased seeing as I'm a Hawks fan, but I'm going to say that they will win the series in six games. Then for the NBA series I'm going to take Cleveland in six games as well, (partly due to the fact that I'm a LeBron fan) but those are my picks. Let's see how it plays out.

ORDINANCE NO. 142

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE KEEPING OF ANIMALS IN THE VILLAGE OF EAST BROOKLYN GRUNDY COUNTY, ILLINOIS

WHEREAS, the state legislature has granted certain police powers to municipalities for the regulation of the public health, safety and welfare; and,

WHEREAS, the Village of East Brooklyn has determined that the keeping of certain wildlife and can cause threats to the public health and safety due to possible disease; and

WHEREAS, the Village of East Brooklyn has deemed it in the best interest of the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the Village to regulate the keeping of animals in the Village;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF EAST BROOKLYN, ILLINOIS, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: DOMESTIC ANIMALS

No person shall keep more than four domestic animals on any parcel of property located in the Village; nor shall any person permit or allow more than four domestic animals to be kept on any such parcel of property; provided that any person may keep more than four domestic animals, but no more than eight domestic animals, by first obtaining a non-commercial kennel permit from the Village. All domestic animals shall be contained within the confines of the dwelling unit, or if taken outside, said animals must be kept in a fenced yard or leashed so as to prevent the animals from running at large.

A. The Village Clerk shall, upon the passage of this Ordinance, make available to the public, applications for non-commercial kennel permits. The Village may from time to time establish reasonable fees for the issuance of said permits.

B. For purposes of this Ordinance, "domestic animals" shall mean dogs, cats, guinea pigs, hamsters or other similar animals.

SECTION 2: FARM AND NON-DOMESTIC ANIMALS

No person shall raise or keep within the Village any cattle, sheep, goats, swine, horses, poultry, snakes, monkeys, raccoons, skunks, possums or other forms of wildlife or exotic species of animals. The raising or keeping of such animals is hereby declared to be a nuisance.

SECTION 3: VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES

Whoever violates any provision of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00). Each day any violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. This monetary penalty shall be in addition to any and all other remedies which may be available to the Village under its ordinances, or under federal or Illinois law.

SECTION 4: SERVERABILITY

Should any section, subsection or other provision of this Ordinance for any reason be held invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or any part thereof other than the portion declared invalid.

SECTION 5: INCONSISTENCY

Any Ordinances or Resolutions inconsistent with the terms and the provisions hereof are hereby repealed and revoked to the extent of any such inconsistency.

SECTION 6: PUBLICATION

That this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication in pamphlet form, and filing for records as required by law.

A MEDICAL MARIJUANA GREENHOUSE in the Dwight Industrial Park east of Dwight has risen quickly in recent weeks. An existing building north of the new greenhouse will also be used in the medical marijuana operation. PharmaCann LLC, Oak Park, owns the new Dwight business and hopes it will be operating by the end of August/first of September. In March, PharmaCann was predicted to be the largest medical marijuana company in Illinois, with more licenses than any other. PharmaCann plans a marijuana cultivation center in Hillcrest as well as in Dwight, and hopes to open four medical marijuana dispensaries. The Illinois Department of Public Health announced in March that some 1,600 approval letters had been sent to people seeking medical marijuana.

Comedy Classic 'Harvey' Moves in at Conklin's

Conklin's Barn II Dinner Theatre is very happy to announce the opening of the charming and hilarious romantic comedy "Things My Mother Taught Me" featuring Bob Lane Jr., Mary Simon and Dan and Tamra Challacombe, opening June 11 and playing for a seven-week run on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings and Sunday brunches through July 26.

"Things My Mother Taught

Me" is a comedy by Katherine DiSavino about a young couple—Gabe and Olivia—who are moving in to their first apartment together in Chicago. The move is not going well, with their brand new chair wedged in the apartment doorway, but things are about to get even more complicated when both sets of parents show up. Barn favorites Bob Lane Jr., Mary Simon and Dan and Tamra Challacombe are featured as Gabe and Olivia's parents, respectively.

The production is directed by Mary Simon with set design by April Bieschke and publicity by Pat Gaik. Conk-lin's Barn II is known for itsdelicious buffet which, on evening performances, in-cludes four main entrees featuring the Barn's renowned prime rib and fried chicken, with salad, homemade soup and cheese spread, and a choice of four taste-tempting, homemade desserts. Prices for dinner and show are $35.00 on Thursday evening, $37.00 on Friday evening and Sunday brunch, and $39.00 on Saturday evening, including tax. No advance payment is required.

For reservations, call 309-965-2545. For more information, visit the Barn on the internet at www.barn2.com.

News - Ads - Coverage! The Paper 815-584-1901

I would like to thank all of the people who attended my retirement party; I was happy to see so many familiar faces and old friends. I appreciated all the cards, gifts, and well-wishes. Many grateful blessings to my parish families at St. Joseph's (Cabery) and St. Mary's (Reddick), whom I have served for 26 years.

Also, thank you to the Country Mansion staff for providing a great venue and service to me and my friends and family.

Blessings to All,
 Father Richard Kostelz

A SIGN TO COMMEMORATE THE DONAHUE SCHOOL near Cullom was recently erected at the site of the former school two miles east and one mile south of Cullom. Former students are invited to meet at CAP's Park in Chatsworth at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 27 for a school reunion picture and the sharing of memories. Pictured is the last group of Donahue School students. The school was destroyed by fire in Dec. of 1946. Included are students consisting of Donahues, Deany's, Baystons, Ommens, Groskreutzs, Ginters, Finefields, and Harens. Many of them still live in or around Cullom. Since the fire was nearly 70 years ago, some of the students in the picture are now 95 years old. The site which now produces bumper crops of corn and soybeans pales in comparison to the bumper crop of citizens, knowledge and friendships during its 70 years of existence. Picnics, pot lucks and parties held at the school were the social center of the community.

Emmanuel Lutheran Church Blood Drive

On Monday, June 15, from 2:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Dwight, will be hosting a blood drive. The blood drive will take place in the church hall, located at 325 E. Mazon. Walk-ins are welcome, but appointments are appreciated. Please bring a photo ID and eat a good meal before donating. 16 year old donors must also bring a Heartland permission slip signed in black ink by a parent or guardian. Permission slips are available at the church or online at www.heartlandbc.org. Every donor will receive a $5 Target Gift Card. Please call the church office at 815-584-3433 to sign up, or sign up online at www.heartlandbc.org.

Cullom Community Vacation Bible School June 15-19

Cullom Community Vacation Bible School will be Monday through Friday, June 15-19, at St. John's Lutheran Church from 5:30-7:30 p.m. This is for ages three years old through sixth grade. Registration will be held Monday, June 15, beginning at 5:00 p.m. This year, the children will be going on a Jungle Safari where Kids Explore the Nature of God. If you have questions, contact Karen Moritz at 815-689-2441 or Linda Haberkorn at 815-689-2151.

A Celebration of the Arts

Art. Create it. Own it. Celebrate it. This summer, July 13th-19th our community will celebrate art. Wright In Kankakee and The Community Arts Council are pleased to announce a grant has been awarded by the Illinois Arts Council Agency (IACA). This recognition underscores the vital role art plays in our community. Wright In Kankakee is a not-for-profit corporation organized to preserve the B. Harley Bradley House, architect Frank Lloyd Wright's magnificent 6,000 square foot mansion nestled on the banks of the Kankakee River. Wrighams. The Community Arts Council of Kankakee County's mission is to serve as a central body to promote, develop, stimulate, and encourage arts organizations, artists, and arts participation in Kankakee County. Both organizations have partnered to help the community celebrate art this summer. The monetary award from The IACA will certainly help to fuel the celebration. The grant will be used to enhance The Water Color Workshop hosted by master watercolorist, Tom Francesconi, AWS, NWS, and TWSA. This event has generated a great deal in Kankakee provides public access to the house and promotes architecture, art, Frank Lloyd Wright and local history through tours, events, and other educational progrl of interest from artists all over. Currently there is a waiting list to attend. The Water Color Workshop, is followed by The Fourth Annual Fine Art Show and Sale. Both events are held at the B. Harley Bradley House, at 701 Harrison St., Kankakee. The Water Color Workshop is July 13th, 14th and 15th and The Fine Art Show and Sale is July 18th and 19th with an "invitation only" artist preview party July 17th. Talented local and regional artists participate in this very special Fine Art Show

RON STEPHENS (LEFT), Wounded Vietnam Veteran and Pharmacist, has committed to walk to each Doc's Pharmacy location starting in June and is walking one mile for every $100 that is raised. Doc's, Dwight, would like to invite people to come and support him on his journey as he walks to our location June 17 with plans to arrive at 10 a.m. A hot dog combo meal will be available for a small fee. Nathan Joerndt (pictured above, right) will be at Doc's playing the key board, with all proceeds going towards Wounded Warrior Project. Donations will be matched by Cardinal Health, a pharmaceutical distributor for Doc's. Come in and show your support!

Grundy County Internship Program

Thanks to the generosity of Morris Hospital, a kick-off breakfast was held June 5 to formally recognize and congratulate the 25 students selected for the 2015 Grundy County Internship Program. Nancy Ammer, CEO of the GEDC, opened the event by thanking the businesses, students, and educators in attendance. Senator Rezin emphasized that the students should take pride in being chosen for this opportunity, and that the internships offer a chance to gain meaningful professional work experience and learn more about the many different employment options within Grundy County.

Lance Copes, Director of Grundy Area Vocational Center, and Mark Steadham, CEO & President of Morris Hospital, also addressed the students and discussed the benefits and opportunities that will be afforded to them as part of this program. Copes challenged students to take advantage of the opportunity, while Steadham addressed the value of the program to local business.

The 25 paid internships this year are with 10 different companies, offering a diverse set of opportunities for local students. The program began in 2013 with just 12 internships and three companies. The increased opportunities and visibility of the program also brought more competition for the available spots, as 419 applications were received for the 25 open positions.

The Grundy County Internship Program was based on a mutual desire expressed by leaders in education and industry to highlight local employment opportunities and retain local talent in Grundy County. Senator Rezin and the GEDC partnered with local industry and education to launch the program in 2013.

positions they were interested in by submitting a resume. Companies scheduled and conducted interviews with candidates and extended offers to their interns in late spring.

95th Herscher Labor Day Celebration September 5-7

The Herscher Chamber of Commerce and its Labor Day Parade Committee has announced that the parade will have a theme this year, as the Village of Herscher and the Chamber of Commerce host the 95th Homecoming Celebration September 5-7.

The theme that has been selected is: "Herscher...Let's Celebrate!" The Parade Committee believes that this theme allows the churches, businesses and organizations of the Herscher area to "Celebrate something from the past! Celebrate a New Beginning! Celebrate an accomplishment! Celebrate an Event! Let's Celebrate!"

The Committee is looking for the graduated classes of Herscher High School with their year ending in a five, such as: 1945, 1955, 1965, and so on - to build a float for the Parade. Additionally, any graduated class of Herscher HS is welcome to enter a float.

Parade applications will be mailed in mid-July to those on the Chamber of Commerce's mailing list. Additional forms will also then be available locally at the Herscher Village Hall and Centru Bank in Herscher.

Annual Drinking Water Quality Report

BRACEVILLE

IL0630050

Annual Water Quality Report for the period of January 1 to December 31, 2014

This report is intended to provide you with important information about your drinking water and the efforts made by the water system to provide safe drinking water.

The source of drinking water used by BRACEVILLE is Ground Water

For more information regarding this report contact:

Name Randy J. Berry
Phone 815-237-8655

Este informe contiene información muy importante sobre el agua que usted bebe. Tradúzcalo ó hable con alguien que lo entienda bien.

Source of Drinking Water
The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.
Contaminants that may be present in source water include: - Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife. - Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban storm water runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming. - Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban storm water runoff, and residential uses. - Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban storm water runoff, and septic systems. - Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the EPAs Safe Drinking Water Hotline at (800) 426-4791.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. PDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public health.

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population.

Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. We cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead>.

Public Participation

Customers interested in participating in the decision making processes that affect the Braceville Water System, can attend monthly Village Board Meetings. Meetings are conducted on the first and third Wednesday of each month at the Braceville Village Hall. All meetings begin at 7:00pm.

Source Water Assessment

We want our valued customers to be informed about their water quality. If you would like to learn more, please feel welcome to attend any of our regularly scheduled meetings. The source water assessment for our supply has been completed by the Illinois EPA. If you would like a copy of this information, please stop by City Hall or call our water operator at 815-237-8655. To view a summary version of the completed Source Water Assessments, including: Importance of Source Water; Susceptibility to Contamination Determination; and documentation/recommendation of Source Water Protection Efforts, you may access the Illinois EPA website at <http://www.epa.state.il.us/cgi-bin/wp/swap-fact-sheets.pl>.

Based on information obtained in a Well Site Survey published in 1991 by the Illinois EPA, five potential sources or possible problem sites were identified within the survey area of the Braceville well. Furthermore, information provided by the Leaking Underground Storage Tank Section of the Illinois EPA indicated several additional sites with ongoing remediations which may be of concern. Based on information obtained from the village, the following facilities have changed their status or are no longer present: below ground petroleum storage at Braceville Elementary School District and Bee Chemical (out of business). The Illinois EPA has determined that the Braceville Well #4 source water is not susceptible to contamination. This determination is based on a number of criteria including: monitoring conducted at the well; monitoring conducted at the entry point to the distribution system; and the available hydrogeologic data on the well.

2014 Regulated Contaminants Detected

Lead and Copper

Definitions:

Action Level Goal (ALG): The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. ALGs allow for a margin of safety.

Action Level: The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.

Lead and Copper	Date Sampled	MCLG	Action Level (AL)	90th Percentile	# Sites Over AL	Units	Violation	Likely Source of Contamination
Copper	2014	1.3	1.3	0.462	0	ppm	N	Erosion of natural deposits; Leaching from wood preservatives; Corrosion of household plumbing systems.
Lead	2014	0	15	5.9	0	ppb	N	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; Erosion of natural deposits.

Water Quality Test Results

Maximum Contaminant Level Goal or MCLG: The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.

Maximum Contaminant Level or MCL: The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.

Maximum residual disinfectant level goal or MRDLG: The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.

Maximum residual disinfectant level or MRDL: The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.

Stella Spandet

Stella Spandet to Celebrate 100th Birthday

Stella Spandet will be traveling with Sue and Terry Spandet on June 20 to Lake Villa where they will be visiting Fred and Diane Spandet, who will host a family gathering to celebrate Stella's 100th birthday.

The family says she is happy to celebrate this special event with her extended family that has made her life a joy over these many years.

Stella's sister, Irene, will be a special guest, as she recently celebrated her 103rd birthday.

Stella also extended her thanks to her many friends and relatives from the Dwight area who have done so much for her – as they have contributed greatly to her happiness and independent living.

Each day offers new opportunities to make choices that impact your health and overall wellness. Though hectic schedules can cause many of us to let healthy habits fall to the wayside, it is important that we give our bodies the attention and care they deserve.

Consider these small steps to gradually improve your whole body and heart health, which can help you enjoy a happier, longer life:

- Strike a balance – Take a simpler approach to the traditional idea of "dieting." Balance calories-in versus calories-out with a combination of good food choices, such as fruits, vegetables and whole grains, and regular exercise, such as walking or hiking.

Incorporate low-calorie,

Show Your Heart Some Love! Wellness Tips For Body, Mind, And Heart

naturally fat-free foods into your diet, such as new Dole Red Grapefruit Sunrise Fruit Bowls, which bring all-natural fruit together with 100 percent juice. They are a great way to start the day or just enjoy as a delicious snack. Grapefruit naturally offers a plentiful source of nutrients, including phosphorus, potassium and vitamins A and C.

- Watch the middle – According to the Mayo Clinic, that extra weight you carry around the mid-section can cause serious health problems, including cardiovascular disease, diabetes and certain cancers. Work to keep this common problem area in check by reducing caloric intake and increasing physical activity.

- Skip the stress – While a little stress is part of being human, too much can be taxing on the heart. Find activities that engage your mind and naturally relieve stress such as knitting, crafting or working on a puzzle.

- Dine in the a.m. – Don't let a rushed morning routine get in the way of enjoying a heart-healthy breakfast. A complete morning meal includes a combination of whole grains, protein, and fruits or vegetables.

For a convenient, on-the-go option, throw an individually-sealed cup of Dole Red Grapefruit Sunrise in your laptop bag or purse. Each cup contains peak-of-ripeness, wholesome, peeled grapefruit and allows you to enjoy grapefruit all year around. Plus, they're gluten free, contain no GMOs (genetically modified or engineered ingredients) or artificial sweeteners, and feature BPA-free packaging.

- Drink more water – For your body to function properly, it needs the right amount of hydration. According to the Institute of Medicine, the average required intake for a male is about 13 cups, while a female requires about 9 cups. Switch out sodas and sugary drinks with water to reap its benefits, and to shave off extra "empty" calories that may contribute to weight gain.

- Get routine exams – A yearly doctor's examination keeps you more informed of your body's ever-changing status, and it keeps your health care provider in the loop, too. Educate yourself and understand the important numbers for your heart, including blood pressure, cholesterol and triglycerides.

A happy life starts with the right mindset and a few easy routines. For more ways to boost your body's wellness and healthy snack ideas, visit www.Dole.com.

- - - Tips For Smarter Shopping - - -

Whether you're in the market for the newest gadget or stocking up on sports goods for the whole family, getting the most bang for your buck is top of mind for many families.

But obtaining those quality, dependable products you need at the best price can be tricky. With so many shopping outlets available - from online stores to physical locations - it can be difficult to know if you're getting the product that suits your needs at a price that fits within your budget. The following tips help consumers go into a store educated, so they can stretch their dollar and get exactly what they're after.

Plan it out. Knowing exactly what you want before you shop will help you avoid overspending on extra things you don't need. Research the products you want and have a specific model in mind before you buy and you'll avoid leaving a store or submitting your online cart with items you may later regret buying.

Invest in your new merchandise. Whether it's a drop, spill or other mishap, life has a way of ruining your favorite goods. Protect your investment with a coverage plan, if available.

Become familiar with internet tools. Various sites and apps are available to help you find the best deals around. Before you buy, it's important to review ratings for the product - from both consumers like you and professional reviewers. Many sites also allow you to comparison shop for items.

Know your seller.

Understand the refund, return and warranty policies from the seller before you make your purchase. Do you have protection in case the item breaks?

Shop mindfully. Because your emotions can sway your purchases, always make sure to shop when you're in the right frame of mind. A rough day at work or an upset in your personal life may cause you to indulge.

Finding exactly what you need at the price that fits your budget comes with the right planning, research and tools. Become a smarter shopper and you'll never have to sacrifice quality on all the things you need for all of your daily adventures.

Independence Booster – Medical Alert Systems

By Tresa Erickson

Dagnabbit, you fell again. That silly rug in your entryway came untacked, but you couldn't see it for the stack of boxes in your arms, and down you went. You're ok, but your knees are bruised and your ankles are sore. Oh, boy, when your daughter hears this, she's going to start in on you again about moving to her house where she can keep an eye on you.

You're old, but you're not that old. You don't need a babysitter yet. How about some type of medical alert system? That might ease your daughter's concerns and allow you to maintain your independence longer.

A number of medical alert systems are available ranging from the simple to the complex. The best systems consist of some small device with sensors that can be worn, such as a button or pendant, which the user can activate when needed to alert others that they need help. The device may also contain the user's medical history and their physician's and family's contact information to assist emergency personnel.

Generally, the more complex the system, the more it costs. Some systems run in the hundreds of dollars, but it may be well worth the price when an emergency arises and the user needs help. Medical alert systems save lives and provide peace of mind for hundreds of families across the country. More importantly, they help individuals, seniors in particular, maintain their independence and live at home longer.

One look in the telephone book or online should uncover a number of possibilities. Call for some brochures to see what options would work best for you. Then do your homework.

Research the manufacturer and systems offered in great detail. Ask for references and take the time to check them out. Remember, your independence and health are on the line, so choose a reputable manufacturer and system.

With the right medical alert system, your daughter will have peace of mind and you will, too. She'll relax and raise less of a fuss about those occasional mishaps of yours around the house, especially when you get rid of that rug in your entryway.

Home is the place to be.

Let us help you get there!

Aging Americans Need Eyecare The Most – But Do They Have Benefits?

Julie Beall might be a cancer patient, but she's truly defined by any number of other titles. She's a wife and mother, a registered nurse, a real estate professional, an MBA graduate, a small business owner and a public speaker. She owns a glass art studio. She regularly volunteers at a medical clinic in Africa.

The 50-something is nowhere near retired, although she is nearing retirement age. And she has a message for people of her generation and older.

Get annual eye exams. Your life might depend on it. John Lahr, OD, EyeMed Medical Director and a fellow baby boomer concurs.

"The single most important thing anyone 50 years or older can do for their vision and eye health is to book an annual eye exam," he said. "Once you pass the 50-year mark, your risk for several serious eye diseases increases and the odds of you requiring vision correction also climbs. What's more, your optometrist may see signs of a serious physical health condition you never associated with an eye exam."

Nobody knows better than Beall. Two years ago she went for a routine eye exam near her home outside Dayton, Ohio, not knowing that her life was about to change forever.

"I didn't really suspect anything was wrong," Beall said. "Maybe I was getting a little older. I thought I might need reading glasses; maybe my eyes were getting a little tired."

Beall's optometrist noticed an area off the side of the retina that looked unusual. After dilating her eyes, he noted what he thought was a detaching retina. Considering it an ocular emergency, her optometrist referred her to an ophthalmologist who specialized in retinal diseases. She saw that doctor later the same day and was told she had choroidal melanoma, a potentially fatal form of cancer. Doctors treated Julie with radioactive plaque therapy.

According to Dr. Lahr, Beall's story of uncovering a serious health concern at the optometrist is not unusual. In addition to preserving eyesight, annual exams can be a window to serious medical conditions like high blood pressure, diabetes, heart disease and high cholesterol.

"The average optometrist sees 2,500 to 3,000 patients annually. And it's not uncommon for there to be hundreds of times each year you have someone in the optometrist's chair who hasn't had a physical in a while. You take a look at the back of their eye and you see early signs of something potentially serious," said Dr. Lahr. "More often, eye doctors recognize symptoms of serious eye disease when it's early enough to correct the condition or manage long-term vision issues."

Ironically, for many aging Americans, an annual eye exam becomes harder to access at a time in life when they most need to see an eye doctor regularly. According to The Vision Council, less than half of Americans age 65 or older have vision benefits. Studies show that this aging population will double to 71.5 million by 2030. Regular adult eye health and vision care is not provided through original Medicare or the Affordable Care Act. Plus, an increasing number of Americans in their 50s and early 60s are without access to employer-sponsored health benefits due to self-employment or circumstances.

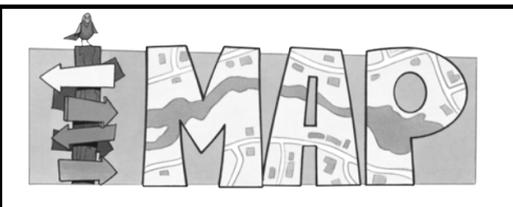

This gap sparked an idea from EyeMed, and it began working on an insurance product for AARP members.

"There is a certain segment of the target population that might just say, 'Why should I get an eye exam every year if I don't have a vision benefit to help with the costs?'" said Dr. Lahr. "I even talk to people who have the means to cover vision care costs out-of-pocket and are interested in an individual vision benefit."

AARP MyVision Care from EyeMed, the first vision plan with features to meet the specific vision needs of senior consumers, launched in February in California, Illinois, Ohio and New Jersey. For more information go to <https://aarpmymyvision-care.net/>.

Today, Julie Beall has added a new role to her ever-expanding list of titles: eye exam advocate.

Adults 50 and over are some of the nation's most frequent travelers; however, they can be particularly at risk for various vacation woes. Whether embarking on a multi-week cruise or a quick weekend road trip, travelers should take steps to avoid certain snafus, say experts.

"Some of our happiest memories are those spent traveling, but the unfortunate reality is our time away from home can leave us vulnerable," says Dave Austin, vice president, marketing services at AARP Services, Inc. "By preparing beforehand, travelers can diminish certain risks and focus on enjoying their trip."

According to Austin, there are several ways travelers can protect themselves, including:

- Safeguard Belongings – Make copies of travel documents or scan them and email them to yourself so they won't go missing, even if your bags do.

Keep at least one source of money, such as a credit card, in a place other than your wallet -- preferably not on yourself. Use hotel safes when they are offered. Being without a method of payment when you're traveling can be a major pain.

- Secure Your Home – Unplug electronics and turn off your main water supply. If possible, have a friend keep an eye on your home.

A security system can add peace of mind. A variety of 24/7 home security monitoring services include smoke, fire and carbon monoxide detection. Home automation solutions now allow travelers to adjust lighting remotely and receive security alerts on mobile devices. AARP members can receive 20 percent off new ADT installations and $2 off monthly monitoring.

- Protect Your Identity – Thirty percent of travelers have experienced identity theft while traveling or know someone who has, according to a recent survey. Leave items like social security cards or unneeded credit cards at home. Avoid public Wi-Fi when possible and make purchases with credit cards, which often offer better fraud protection than debit cards.

Require passwords for access to your devices. Be wary of entering personal information when using public computers. A variety of identity protection services are available to assist with proactive identity and credit monitoring. For example,

4 Essential Tips for Staying Safe While Traveling

AARP Identity Theft Protection from TrustedID offers AARP members over a dozen identity and credit protection features including on-call protection specialists.

- Prepare for Emergencies – If you're traveling abroad and get sick or injured, hospital costs could be extreme, even for relatively minor issues. Protect your travel investment. Travel insurance can include medical coverage, trip interruption and more.

Another option, emergency travel service membership, can benefit you in the event of a medical emergency. Subscribers make the call on where they want to go for care and treatment within their home country. Consider enrolling in AARP, as members get up to an 18 percent discount on MedJetAssist emergency travel service memberships.

For additional vacation tips and discounts, visit aarpdisc.com. For $16 a year, members can often recover the cost of membership by taking advantage of just one offer.

Don't get caught off-guard on your next vacation. For safer travels, get savvy.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF 11TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

LIVINGSTON COUNTY - PONTIAC, ILLINOIS

WELLS FARGO BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, AS TRUSTEE FOR THE POOLING AND SERVICING AGREEMENT DATED AS OF FEBRUARY 1, 2006 SECURITIZED ASSET BACKED RECEIVABLES LLC TRUST 2006-FR1 MORTGAGE PASS-THROUGH CERTIFICATES, SERIES 2006-FR1, Plaintiff, vs. OMAR WEATHERSBY, CITY OF PONTIAC, THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, AN AGENCY OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, UNKNOWN OWNERS AND NON-RECORD CLAIMANTS Defendant

12 CH 78 NOTICE OF SHERIFF SALE

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to a Judgment of Foreclosure and Sale entered in the above cause on April 3, 2015, the Sheriff of Livingston County will at 10:00 AM on July 15, 2015, at the Livingston County Courthouse, West door of the Livingston County Courthouse, 112 W. Madison, PONTIAC, IL, 61764, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, as set forth below, the following described real estate:

Commonly known as 601 S. VERMILLION STREET, Pontiac, IL 61764

Property Index No. 15-15-27-126-014

The real estate is improved with a single family residence.

The judgment amount was $85,921.42.

Sale terms: 10% down of the highest bid by certified funds at the close of the auction; the balance, including the Judicial sale fee for Abandoned Residential Property Municipality Relief Fund, which is calculated on residential real estate at the rate of $1 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of the amount paid by the purchaser not to exceed $300, in certified funds, is due within twenty-four (24) hours. The subject property is subject to general real estate taxes, special assessments, or special taxes levied against said real estate and is offered for sale without any representation as to quality or quantity of title and without recourse to Plaintiff and in AS IS condition. The sale is further subject to confirmation by the court.

Upon payment in full of the amount bid, the purchaser will receive a Certificate of Sale that will entitle the purchaser to a deed to the real estate after confirmation of the sale

The property will NOT be open for inspection and plaintiff makes no representation as to the condition of the property. Prospective bidders are admonished to check the court file to verify all information.

If this property is a condominium unit, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale, other than a mortgagee shall pay the assessments and the legal fees required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/9(g)(1) and (g)(4). If this property is a condominium unit which is part of a common interest community, the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure sale other than a mortgagee shall pay the assessments required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/18.5(g-1).

IF YOU ARE THE MORTGAGOR (HOMEOWNER), YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REMAIN IN POSSESSION FOR 30 DAYS AFTER ENTRY OF AN ORDER OF POSSESSION, IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 15-1701(C) OF THE ILLINOIS MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE LAW.

For information, contact Plaintiff's attorney: POTESIVO & ASSOCIATES, P.C., 223 WEST JACKSON BLVD, STE 610, Chicago, IL 60606, (312) 263-0003. Please refer to file number C14-95642.

A GAGGLE OF GEESE was spotted at Dwight Lions Lake Saturday morning. A few Geese facts: Geese have a fairly long life expectancy of around 20 years. The desire for Geese to return to their birthplace every year is so strong that they will often fly up to 3,000 miles to get there. Geese will defend themselves against humans if they feel that their goslings are threatened. They will spread out their wings, stand erect and make a hissing sound. If the human doesn't leave, they will charge and attack with their wings or bite. Please allow the geese their space and respect their natural habitat, their home.

JOHN PRICE WAS VOTED for the second year in a row as "Most Dedicated and Outstanding ESDA Member of Year." Al Metzke, left, presented the award to John for 2014. John has served the Village since 1992 and is trained in CPR. John is also an advanced storm spotter. The Village of Dwight congratulates John and thanks him for his service.

LAW ENFORCEMENT TORCH RUN®
FOR SPECIAL OLYMPICS ILLINOIS

Law Enforcement Special Olympics Torch Run June 11 & 12

On June 11 and 12, the Special Olympics Torch Run will be arriving in Dwight via Rt. 47 from Morris between 11 a.m. and noon. The bikers and runners will be arriving at The Depot on West Main St., and will be joined by Dwight Police and local Special Olympians. The route will proceed down West Main, to East Main, to Prairie and west on Rt. 17. They will continue west on Rt. 17 to Old Route 66. They will stop for a short break at Lions Lake and continue south-bound on Rt. 66 toward Pontiac.

The Torch Run is the kick-off for the opening of the Illinois Summer Games, which will be held June 11 and 12 at Hancock Stadium in Normal.

The Law Enforcement Torch Run is organized internationally by the International Chiefs of Police, and is the single largest fundraiser for Special Olympics Illinois.

It is open to any member of the law enforcement community.
