Saunemin Teacher Pleads Not Guilty to Child Pornography Charges

Former Saunemin school teacher James Michael Stoecklin, 56, has pleaded not guilty to two counts of child pornography.

He was arraigned in Livingston County court on July 9, according to online court records. A jury pre-trial is set for August 19 and a jury trial set for September 9.

Stoecklin, of Saunemin, a longtime teacher, athletic director, and coach at Saunemin School, was arrested on June 23 on charges of possession of child pornography involving an underage male victim who is a student at the school.

Both pornography counts are Class X felonies.

He remains in custody at the Livingston County Jail in lieu of $250,000 10 percent bond. He is being represented by public defender Scott Ripley.

Meanwhile, a former Dwight Township High School teacher charged with criminal sexual assault of an underage male DTHS student is due in Livingston County court on August 21 for a preliminary hearing, according to court records.

Kathryn Patten, 34, of Dwight, has not entered a plea after she allegedly had an inappropriate sexual relationship with the student.

Criminal sexual assault of a minor is a Class 1 felony. She is out on bond and being represented by private council Charles Schierer of Peoria.

Tips for Beating the Heat This Week

This Thursday, Friday and Saturday are going to be blistering hot. The forecast calls for temperatures in the mid-90s, but combined with the humidity, it will feel well above 100.

It will tax people and pets, but will also tax the corn crops, which have had a challenging year, said Erika Parker, of Dwight, a technical agronomist with DEKALB/ Asgro.

She estimates that, in the general area, approximately 10 percent of corn was planted in April, another 10 percent in May and the majority in June.

April corn is going through pollination and the upcoming heat will make the silks less receptive. May corn, she said, is about 7 to 10 days out for pollination.

But those baby June stalks, which are struggling to establish their root system, are really not prepared for the upcoming heat wave, particularly since it's had a lack of rain.

"The June crop will have yet another challenge to face," she said.

People will be challenged to keep cool this week. Here are some tips to stay cool and safe, even if you don't have an air conditioner.

Stay hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids even if you do not feel thirsty. Avoid drinks with caffeine or alcohol.

Don't eat large, protein-rich meals that can increase metabolic heat and warm the body. Instead, eat light, cool, easy-to-digest foods such as fruit or salads, and eat more often.

Take frequent breaks if you must work outdoors.

Do not direct the flow of portable electric fans toward yourself when room temperatures are hotter than 90 degrees. The dry blowing air will dehydrate you faster, endangering your health. Instead, use fans to exhaust hot air from rooms or draw in cooler air.

Minimize direct exposure to the sun. Sunburn reduces your body's ability to dissipate heat.

IF YOU DON'T HAVE AIR CONDITIONING:

Choose places you could go to for relief during the warmest part of the day such as schools, libraries, theaters, malls or restaurants. Call your local health department to see if there are any heat-relief shelters in your area.

Take frequent cool baths or showers. Fill buckets or basins and soak your feet. Wet towels and bandanas can have a cooling effect when worn on the shoulders or head.

On hot nights, soak a sheet or blanket large enough to cover you in cold water, then wring it dry so it's damp and cool, but not dripping wet. Then use it as a blanket. As the water evaporates, you get the benefit of staying cool but not wet.

Close your blinds during daylight hours to prevent the sun from warming your home air.

The converse is also true: When the temperature drops, open your windows to allow cool air into your home.

Turn the lights off when you leave a room.

Head downstairs. A basement can be a cool refuge from the midday heat.

Remember to maintain adequate hydration. You should drink sufficient amounts of fluids before you feel thirsty in order to prevent dehydration.

Pets also suffer when the temperature rises. Giving them a "cool" bath or shower will help keep their body temperature down. A cool towel on a tile floor to lay on, or a cool towel or washcloth laying over the skin next to a fan will also help cool your animal. Make sure they have plenty of cool water to drink. Signs of a heat stroke in a pet are: rapid panting, wide eyes, lots of drooling, hot skin, twitching muscles, vomiting and a dazed look.

Odell Village Board Receives Junk Car Letter Responses

The June 10 regular board meeting of the Village of Odell opened at 7 p.m. in the Council Room with Mayor Brian Mills presiding.

Trustees present were: Brian Verdun, Jamie McPeck, Mark Tissiere and Tom Russell. Clerk Iris Thorne and Village Attorney Ed Legner, along with three guests: Jim Pozzi, Jerry Bolen and Derrick Caudle, were also in attendance.

Minutes of the May 13 board meeting were approved by the four trustees.

Jim Rebholz, Treasurer, furnished a YTD Fund Summary and Treasurer’s Report of bank account balances for the month ending May 31, 2019, reported by Iris Thorne as follows:

Odell Checking	$37,194.90
IL Funds Gen
Fund MM	$104,221.03
IL Funds MFT
Fund MM	$76,373.94
Odell MFT
Checking	$522.33
Odell Tourism
Checking	$35,236.28
Odell Water
Reserve	$111,534.35
Odell General
CDs	$235,907.07
Odell Infrastructure Reserve	$2,499.34

Iris Thorne reported that $4,605.74, money collected from the water debt fee through Utility Billing, was paid on Water Loan #1 principal.

By roll call vote, all approved the Treasurer’s Report.

Also approved by the trustees were the due bills and tourism bills in June and the between meeting paid bill list, plus two late bills, $1,045 from Jet Vac and a tourism bill from Realtime for $488.

Since there was no officer in attendance, a May Police Report was not reviewed.

No committee reports were presented.

The revised Employment

Policy Resolution and the updated Employee Expense Reimbursement Policy provided by Attorney Legner were both approved.

Attorney Legner advised that revisions to the Solicitors Registration Ordinance have been made, with the Ordinance tabled for further revisions.

As of the date of this meeting, the garbage contract with Republic was not signed, although Republic requested signature by the end of June.

The cause and possible remedy to the water overflow on Spencer and West St. is being researched.

A Resolution was presented by Attorney Legner to authorize the transfer of funds in the Village’s Water Reserve Account into a Money Market Account. The motion was made by Jamie McPeck and seconded by Brian Verdun for the transfer. Verdun, McPeck and Tom Russell voted “yes,” with Mark Tissiere the lone “nay.”

Informed by Mayor Mills of letters sent out concerning junk cars, there have been responses, and one is in the process of beginning court proceedings.

Mayor Mills invited Jerry Bolen to explain the repair work being done on his building on S. Front St. He was given until August to finish repairing the building, at which time the village building inspector will inspect the building. A complaint will be filed in court in regard to the building adjacent to Mr. Bolen’s building.

Attorney Legner will conduct further research with the Assessor’s office on the portion of East High Street that should be vacated.

The Board has reviewed the working budget for FY2010 and agreed appropriations can be prepared.

Livingston County Night of Hope to Announce Honored Speakers and Luminaria Celebration

On Friday, August 2, the American Cancer Society of Livingston County will host the Livingston County Night of Hope. The event is open to the community and will feature food trucks, live entertainment, youth activities, a silent auction, survivor reception, and a luminaria ceremony.

The Livingston County Night of Hope will be held at the Pontiac Square to help the American Cancer Society attack cancer from every angle. The event starts at 4:00 p.m. and ends at 10:00 p.m. Local cancer survivors Linda Abels and Patrick Killian are featured as Honored Survivors at this year's event.

The Luminaria Ceremony will take place at 9:00 p.m. prior to closing ceremonies. Luminarias honor every life touched by cancer and can be dedicated to a loved one lost, someone currently battling, or anyone who's overcome cancer. Luminarias will be decorated and displayed around the courthouse with names and sometimes messages to the people they're dedicated to.

"When each Luminaria is illuminated, we share an emotional moment in remembrance of a life touched by cancer," said Luminaria Lead Brenda Thompson. "We take a moment of silence to remember the loved ones they're dedicated to."

To dedicate a luminaria, participants can make a $10 donation. When you make a donation for a Luminaria it helps fund the American Cancer Society's mission to help save lives. Luminaria can be dedicated by visiting www.relay-for-life.org/livingstonIL or by sending in luminaria forms to Brenda Thompson at 304 East Washington Street, Pontiac, IL.

Humiston Woods' 40th Anniversary Event

On Sunday, August 4th, Humiston Woods will be hosting an open house to commemorate 40 years since its incorporation as a not-for-profit institution. Master Naturalist Dee Woodburn will be available to lead groups to explore the prairie from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Today, the original Humiston land is now a natural retreat for individuals, families, and groups.

The public is invited to explore, and learn some of the Center's history.

MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

Estate Plans Can Help You Answer Questions About the Future

The word "estate" conjures images of great wealth, which may be one of the reasons so many people don't develop estate plans – after all, they're not rich, so why make the effort? In reality, though, if you have a family, you can probably benefit from estate planning. And you may well find that a comprehensive estate plan can help you answer some questions you may find unsettling – or even worrisome.

What will happen to my children? With luck, you (and your co-parent, if you have one) will be alive and well at least until your children reach the age of majority (either 18 or 21, depending on where you live). Nonetheless, as part of your estate plans, you may want to name a guardian to take care of your children if you are not around. You also might want to name a conservator – sometimes called a "guardian of the estate" – to manage any assets your minor children might inherit.

Will there be a fight over my assets? Without a solid estate plan in place, your assets could be subject to the time-consuming, expensive – and very public – probate process. But with proper planning, you can maintain your privacy. As one possible element of an estate plan, a living trust allows your property to avoid probate and pass quickly to the beneficiaries you've named.

Who will oversee my finances and my living situation if I become incapacitated? You can build various forms of protection into your estate planning, such as a durable power of attorney, which allows you to designate someone to manage your financial affairs if you become physically or mentally incapacitated. You could also create a medical power of attorney, which allows someone to handle health care decisions on your behalf if you become unable to do so yourself.

Will I shortchange my family if I leave significant assets to charities? Unless you have unlimited resources, you'll have to make some choices about charitable gifts and money for your family. But as part of your estate plans, you could establish a charitable lead trust, which provides financial support to your chosen charities for a period of time, with the remaining assets eventually going to your family members. A charitable remainder trust, by contrast, can provide a stream of income for your family members for the term of the trust, before the remaining assets are transferred to one or more charitable organizations.

Careful estate planning can help you answer many of the questions that may be worrying you. You should consult your estate-planning attorney or qualified tax advisor about your situation.

Jesse White Wants Protection of Undocumented Immigrants Made Law

By Rebecca Anzel
Capitol News Illinois

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois’ secretary of state is pursuing legislation to codify the office’s long-held policy of not giving federal agencies full access to its database of driver’s license photographs as a means to identify someone’s legal status, a spokesperson said Monday.

That initiative is one Jesse White has employed since 2013, when the state created an avenue for “undocumented” immigrants to obtain a temporary visitor’s driver’s license, Dave Druker, spokesperson for the office, said.

Officials from U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and the Federal Bureau of Investigation reportedly used facial recognition technology to comb through the driver’s license identification databases of several states last week, including Utah, Vermont and Washington.

White said in a statement on July 8 that Illinois did not share information with the law enforcement departments, in keeping with the stance he wants to see codified.

“The fact is, we do recognize down the road, when there will be another secretary of state, they might interpret it differently or take another position,” he said in an interview on Illinois Public Media’s The 21st. “We are going to work to get a law passed to that effect – if not in the veto session, definitely by the spring session of the General Assembly.”

Veto session is the last week of October and the second week of November.

White’s office does share information if the subject of a federal agency’s investigation is a potential terrorist or stands accused of a violent crime, Druker said. Legal status, though, is not “an acceptable consideration.”

To comply with a subpoena, the secretary of state’s office conducts a search through its database for the specific person a law enforcement entity is investigating. The office does not grant complete access to its collection of driver’s license photographs, Druker said.

White’s position on this resulted from promises made to “the immigrant community” when the General Assembly was working on the temporary visitor’s driver’s license bill in late 2012 and early 2013, Druker said.

The program was an initiative of Senate President John Cullerton, a Democrat from Chicago, who said at the time it was a high-way safety measure — meant to encourage “undocumented immigrants” who may have already been driving a vehicle to apply for a temporary visitor’s license.

It requires those who lived in Illinois for at least one year, are not qualified for a Social Security number and do not have documentation from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services to pass a vision test and a driving test and have proof of car insurance to qualify for a three-year license.

The license is specially marked and cannot be used to board an airplane, purchase a firearm or vote.

Druker said the secretary of state’s office had to assure people information submitted in their application for the license would not be used to identify their citizenship status. It was, and remains, an important initiative, he added, because it ensures those driving in Illinois were properly tested and are insured.

Victoria Annette Carter

MAZON – Victoria Annette “Vicki” Carter, 62, of Mazon passed away peacefully Sunday, July 14, 2019 at Heritage Health in Dwight.

Visitation will be held from 4 until 7 p.m., today, Wednesday, July 17, at the U.C. Davis-Callahan Funeral Home, 301 W. Washington Street in Morris.

A Celebration of Vicki’s Life will be at 11 a.m., Thursday, July 18, at the funeral home, officiated by Dr. Daniel Woodward of the First Baptist Church of Dwight. Aqua cremation rites will be accorded.

Vicki was born November 21, 1956 in Litchfield, daughter of the late Russell Reader and the late Darlene Hildebrand (Harry) Dustman.

After working several years for Rockwell International, she went on to become the dietary manager at Heritage Health, where she worked for nearly 20 years. She loved to spend time with her seven grandchildren.

Vicki also enjoyed her time in the yard with her flowers. Prior to her illness, she spent all her Friday nights at the Grundy County Speedway with her husband, Scott Carter. Vicki liked to read, especially Stephen King novels. She liked her Sci-Fi shows on TV, along with “The Big Bang Theory.”

She is survived by daughter, Sara (Eric) Gallet, and son, Terry (Michelle) Wilkey, both of Dwight; and seven grandchildren: Jack Gallet, Luke Gallet, Jackson Lounius, Terry Wilkey, Jr., Jacob Wilkey, Nathan Wilkey and Allison Wilkey.

Minutes with Boma

Grades from the Past Week

Over these last few weeks or so I feel like I’ve taken in a fair amount of content and experienced a fair amount of things, so this column is going to be my review of what I’ve done and experienced.

Here we go.

Spiderman: Far From Home - This Spiderman installment was the first one post the big Avengers End Game finale that took place earlier this year. It tied up some of the loose threads from that movie. This featured Tom Holland and Zendaya as Peter Parker and MJ and I think these two have been the best Peter/MJ combination thus far. The movie as a whole is as strong as a Spiderman movie has been since the turn of the century. Grade: A

Riding Electric Scooters Around Chicago: I was on record saying that as a driver these scooters are not very much to navigate, but, I also said that I wasn’t going to give my full review until I had a chance to ride one myself. With that being said, they are very fun to ride, but somewhat anxiety-inducing as riding alongside Chicago traffic is no easy feat. Given the inherent danger this creates lowers it’s grade. Grade C+

Stranger Things: Season 3 - The newest installment of Stranger Things is upon us, Netflix’s darling child has returned. This season provided more of the same, and some of the new. Come for the ’80s nostalgia hangs, stay for the extraterrestrial battles. This new season carried everything you would want from Stranger Things and then some. Grade B+

Piece Pizza: This will be the final thing that I decide to grade for this installment of my column. Often times, Chicago gets talked up for its Deep Dish Pizza, and deservedly so, the Deep Dish is incredible. Piece Pizza is not Deep Dish, but it is maybe the best pizza in Chicago and I wanted to finally put it in print. Piece Pizza is the best pizza in Chicago and I don’t care who knows it. The best pizza, if anyone reading this ever ventures, is the Hot Doug’s Atomic Sausage, which features sausage from the now closed, only available in the Wrigley Field bleachers restaurant, Hot Doug’s. Grade: A++

New Voter ID Cards for Kankakee County

Dan Hendrickson, Kankakee County Clerk, has issued new voter identification cards to all registered voters in Kankakee County.

“It is important that all eligible residents of Kankakee County make sure their voter registration is current and correct. I encourage everyone to review their new identification card, printed with the American Flag, to see where they should vote as there have been some changes to several voting locations throughout Kankakee County. If you do not receive a voter’s card in the mail and believe that you are registered to vote you should contact our office,” said Hendrickson. “Issuing these cards to verify voter registration is also required by Illinois Law.”

If information on the card is not correct, the voter should return the card within seven days with the corrected address. If a voter receives a card for a previous resident of the address, they should write “Return to Sender” on the card and return it to the office. If the information is correct, voters should sign the card on the appropriate line and retain the card for Election Day.

For additional information contact the County Clerk’s office at 937-2990 or email countyclerk@k3county.net. Voters can also stop by the office located in the County Administration Building, 189 East Court St., Kankakee. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The next election is the General Primary Election, to be held March 17, 2020.

Letters to the Editor in The Paper should be limited to 250 words. Letters must be signed when submitted and received by Friday noon prior to Wednesday publication. Letters are limited to one every 60 days per household. Political letters will not run the week prior to an election. We welcome your thoughts.

Dwight Tightens Branch Pickup Regulations

Smoke Free Parks Still Under Review / July 8 Board Actions

by Madelyn Fogarty
Dwight residents are being asked one more time to comply with branch removal requirements as more issues with the village’s chipper was cause for discussion and action when the Dwight Village Board of Trustees met on July 8.

The current chipper, used for tree branch removal, is down with a cost of $8,800 to repair. After discussion, the board approved a Properties Committee recommendation for the Public Works Department to shop for a new chipper with like capabilities.

Estimated cost of the new equipment is $37,000. With no extra money available in the village’s budget, the board approved financing of the new chipper not to exceed 5.12 percent or a payment of $707 for 60 months.

The committee discussed possible future recommendations such as an addition of .50 cents per month on each water bill for tree branch service to help finance the chipper. Currently, the village issues approximately 1,600 water bills every other month which would add $800 in monthly revenue to cover the chipper cost. No action was taken at this time regarding the discussed increase.

On another branch removal topic, the board approved an Ordinance Committee recommendation changing current village regulations regarding branch pickup which will reduce the allowed tree branch diameter size from a maximum 11 inches to 6 inches maximum and changing the ordinance wording to include “If work is hired done, the company MUST remove the branches.”

Village Public Works employees continue to express frustration with residents not following rules for branch pickup and alternatives for a solution were discussed. Suggested alternatives included eliminating branch pickup service altogether forcing residents to find their own means of branch disposal or adding a branch removal fee on all water bills. No action was taken at this time regarding elimination of branch removal service or implementing a fee.

As a reminder, branch removal is on Monday and Friday alternating between the north and south side of town each week. Branches should be piled by the curb with all branches cut to a reasonable size and neatly stacked with all branches going in the same direction. A six inch diameter branch is the maximum allowed. There is no alley pickup. Residents taking down large branches or whole trees must have that waste removed by a tree service provider.

In other business, representatives from the group Teens Terminating Tobacco were on hand to request that the board continue to consider their request for the adoption of an ordinance banning the use of all tobacco products and vaping devices in Village of Dwight parks. The group of DTHS teens took on the project as part of their health class studies and made their initial presentation to the board in May advocating for smoke free parks in Dwight.

“Just like schools, parks and baseball/softball fields are places for kids to have fun and learn,” said the group in their presentation. “By making them tobacco-free and vape-free, we keep these places healthy and safe for everyone, especially kids.”

The group emphasizes setting positive examples for youth while encouraging healthy behaviors along with improving the environmental impacts caused by discarded smoking and vaping products. The group is targeting local parks including Renfrew Park, Stevenson Swimming Pool, Florence W. Garrett Park (Dwight baseball/softball fields) and Dwight Lions Lake as the population using these areas is largely child and family based. Hundreds of area residents have signed a petition in support of the effort along with several letters of support received including backing by Livingston County Sheriff Tony Childress and Dwight Police Chief Tim Henson, among others. “They want to make something for a better Dwight,” DTHS Health Teacher Mitch Thompson told the board about the group of students. “To have 15 and 16-year-old kids thinking about their future children and grandchildren, I feel like that is very important – that is thinking above yourself.”

Livingston County Health Education and Marketing Director Erin Fogarty said the ordinance request is not about issuing tickets and collecting fines, but about encouraging healthy behaviors and providing cleaner recreation areas.

Members of the Ordinance Committee voted 2-1 on July 2 not to recommend adoption of a tobacco/smoke free park ordinance citing enforcement issues and concerns around adding more rules and regulations to the municipal code and suggested instead signage to encourage smokers to be more mindful of others and their surroundings.

However, after discussion, board members voted 3-2 to revisit the matter at an upcoming board meeting with Mayor Jared Anderson encouraging projecting a positive focus for youth particularly where athletic events take place and youth gather, or where an environmental impact to wildlife exists.

Voting in favor of revisiting the ordinance request for banning the use of tobacco products and vaping devices in some or all of Village of Dwight parks were Mayor Anderson, Jerry Curtis and Chuck Butterbrodt. Opposed were Randy Irvin and Marla Kinkade. Trustees Jennifer Johnson and Justin Eggenberger were absent.

In reports to the board, Jane Anderson, representing the Dwight Economic Alliance, provided an update for the board. The July 4 fireworks celebration was successful and enjoyed by a large crowd with the BBQ & Baker food truck vendor selling out by 8 p.m. Anderson also reported that the Farmers Market is going well in this summer’s St.

Patrick’s parking lot location. Dwight’s Farmers Market runs Saturday mornings from 8 a.m. – 11 a.m.

For its next event, the DEA is teaming up with the Dwight Historical Society for an Ice Cream Social on the evening of August 4. The event, sponsored by Edward Jones, will take place at the old depot in Dwight’s downtown and will include musical entertainment by Luke and Sarah Windham.

Mayor Anderson thanked the DEA for its work to provide this year’s July 4th celebration.

Village Engineer Ryan Hansen provided an update on projects in the village. Hansen stated the East Main Street project is going well and a little ahead of schedule, with 90 percent of the building side curbing and sidewalk installed. The James Street storm sewer project has received approval to move forward with next steps being to set a bid date and advertise for bids.

Clinton Street landscaping has been established with that project wrapping up and preparing for submission of final payment pending resolution of a manhole issue at William and Clinton.

Work on West Northbrook Drive is slated for an anticipated August/September start following the completion of the East Main Street project. Lastly, it was noted that an updated flood plain study is being submitted.

In other business, the board approved:

- payment of bills totaling $73,826.18.
- approved a Grundy Economic Development Council membership payment of $2,130.00.
- a recommendation to update ordinance regulations with regard to temporary signs.
- refer to plan commission special use request for 146 E. Main.

The next meeting of the Dwight Village Board of Trustees will be at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, July 22, in the Public Services Complex.

Gardner Village Board Meeting

The Gardner Village Board met in regular session Monday and opened with payment of the bills, including $100,000 toward the water project, with an additional $10,000 withheld pending completion of landscape work.

Bill Pohl, representing the Knights of Columbus, addressed the board requesting permission for the K of C to conduct their annual Tootsie Roll drive in the village on September 20-22. Funds raised support the K of C charitable activities including special education. The board gave unanimous approval to the request.

Commissioner Dick Hileman reported the village renewed a CD and will be renewing another in the upcoming months. The appropriations ordinance will be voted on at the next meeting. Under a new Illinois Law, the village can be held responsible for accidents caused by grass blown on the street if they do not inform residents of the requirement to not blow grass on the street.

Commissioner Erik Smith

will be touring the village to identify sidewalks and streets needing repair. He invited any residents with concerns to contact him or the village. Smith expressed concern with route 129 and the ongoing deterioration on the road. The road remains a state road and the state has already stated they will not maintain the road. Smith is also looking at options to post a sign near the new Pilot station to draw traffic downtown. Village engineer Casey McCollom suggested signage similar to the blue, way-finder signs IDOT places as a financial model.

Rep. Tom Bennett Reports

Fair Maps Issue Is Still Alive

The U.S. Supreme Court issued a ruling late last month regarding political gerrymandering: the practice of politicians drawing districts to help elect or defeat certain candidates. The Court ruled that federal courts do not have standing to intervene in disputes over gerrymandering: that the issue remains in the hands of state legislatures.

The ruling makes clear that states with partisan gerrymandered maps, like Illinois, will continue to operate under those maps until their state Constitutions are amended to create a fairer system.

I co-sponsored such a Constitutional amendment in the General Assembly this spring, but Speaker

Madigan assigned it to the Rules Committee and it did not come to the floor for a debate or a vote.

How much do we owe? As of the time of this writing, the State of Illinois owes $5,487,717,946 in unpaid bills to state vendors.

One year ago, the backlog stood at $6.6 billion. This figure represents the amount of bills submitted to the office of the Comptroller and still awaiting payment. It does not include debts that can only be estimated, such as our unfunded pension liability which is subject to a wide range of factors and has been estimated to be approximately $130 billion.

Easier access to vaccines for low-income children. The Illinois Department of Public Health and the Department of Healthcare and Family Services are making vaccines available for children covered under the Children’s Health Insurance Plan. The program will allow a larger number of providers to offer vaccines and make them more available for low-income families. The move comes in part due to an increase in the number of measles cases in Illinois to a level not seen in more than a quarter century.

Additional details about the VFC vaccine program can be obtained from the Department of Public Health.

New laws require five-hour school day, pay raise for DCFS workers. Under a change to state law which became effective July 1, students in Illinois public schools must now receive at least five hours of instruction time in every school day. The law has required a five-hour minimum school day for several years, but this legislation takes into consideration students who are involved in career development programs off school grounds and those who are enrolled in dual-credit college classes.

Employees of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) who work with at-risk children will receive a 5% increase in their reimbursement rates effective with the start of July. This is the first increase these employees have had in several years. It comes after we in the legislature were reminded of how dangerous the job of DCFS employees can be. This spring the House also passed legislation to toughen penalties for assaults on DCFS workers.

Did you know? Henry Dement served as Illinois Secretary of State from 1881 until 1885. He was a Civil War veteran who fought at Vicks-burg and later served in the state legislature.

As Secretary of State he was the custodian of the Capitol building. In that role he is remembered for his devotion to keeping pigeons from roosting on the Capitol dome. Dement was known to climb to the roof and fire a shotgun to scare the birds away.

Pastor Randy Heading to India

He will also be speaking at two churches, conducting a leadership training for youth, and will speak to youth and young couples about God’s perspective on dating and marriage.
Pastor Randy will also try to connect with the Rotary in Mumbai and hopes to meet with the city’s mayor in a diplomatic mission. He has met with officials in past mission trips, leaving with them gifts from Dwight and Illinois as a token of goodwill and peace.
Pastor Randy prepares himself for mission trips and the poverty he is likely to see by spending a few weeks in fasting and prayer. It’s worth the sacrifice; he said he has been blessed that God has allowed him to travel. He’s been on mission trips to Mexico, Netherlands, Ireland, Slovakia and Poland. He has also visited the gypsy neighborhoods in Czech Republic, and is planning to return there next year.

Although he personally funds his own missions, some people do give money and every penny goes toward the trip. People may support this one by writing a check to New Life Church and putting “India trip” in the memo.
Pastor Randy is also constantly on the lookout for items that may be beneficial to the residents he’ll meet. He recently found affordable shoulder bags at Walmart that he’ll give out -- “just something to say thank you for letting us be with you.”
“I truly believe that if we bless people then we’re blessed for it,” he said. “It’s just an honor to be part of humanity.”

THE BASEBALL FIELD AT GARRETT PARK in Dwight has been named Jim Enger Field in honor of the man who has been active in Dwight youth baseball and softball for decades. He’s known as “Mr. Baseball.”

AT RIGHT: A list of MVPs from this year’s Jim Enger Tourney.
