Gardner Village Board Meets

by Don Phillips

The Gardner Village Board met in regular session June 14.

A village resident addressed the board asking the salary of the village attorney, and if he represents any unions. He then asked the board about their views on white supremacy.

The board discussed and approved the ordinance regulating grass, weeds, and plant maintenance. The ordinance clarifies that property owners are responsible for maintaining the property, including between the property line and curb line. The ordinance also regulates the height of plants to six

The board discussed and approved modifications to the building ordinance. The modifications address fees and language regarding permits and inspections as discussed in prior meetings.

Commissioner Tim Hill reported he has received more complaints regarding go carts, dirt bikes, ATV's, and other non-licensed vehicles. Serena suggested the village can contact the Sheriff's department regarding unlicensed vehicle enforcement. Commissioner Erik Smith suggested consider- nance for the next meeting.

ing an ordinance regarding specific vehicles. Serena expressed concern for the village's liability related to allowing unlicensed operators of motor vehicles. Village attorney Bryan Wellner commented there is a state statute allowing for operation of non-highway vehicles, with one of the primary stipulations being the crossing of state highways. He confirmed the village cannot allow the operation of motor vehicles by unlicensed opera-

Village Engineer Casey Mc-Collum reported the progress on the new water tower. The painters were expected back in town last week, with two or three weeks to complete painting, followed by disinfection, flushing, filling, drainage, and refilling. The old tower will remain in place for a short period until the new tower is verified operational. McCollum estimated the end of July for the new tower to come on line.

Village Clerk Pat Malinowski reported the Motor Fuel tax audit was returned as satisfactory. With the board's approval, Malinowski will prepare the appropriations ordi-

Village of Dwight will be the recipient of an Illinois Transportation Enhancement Program (ITEP) Grant. The announcement was made at the June 14 session of the Dwight Village Board of Trustees.

The $735,000 grant will be used to create a bike and walking path by restoring the outof-service southbound lane of Rt. 66 from Lions Lake to Morris Road, then continuing south along Morris Road and connecting with Renfrew Park. Work on the project is not expected to begin until next year.

Dwight's Mayor Paul Johnson thanked Village Administrator Kevin McNamara for his work to facilitate and secure the ITEP grant.

In new business, two new fulltime police officers will join the Dwight Police Department effective July 1. Brandon Larson, Braceville, and Matthew Sheldon, Plainfield, have been hired at Step A. Starting salaries for both will be $46,779. Both will attend police academy training beginning July 6.

Brandon Sheldon has been hired as an EMT Basic, Step A, effective July 1. Sheldon's starting salary will be $34,000. Brandon Sheldon is a resident of Dwight and a member of the Dwight Fire Department.

Dwight's Farmers Market returns to the downtown area with the first market taking place on June 19 and markets continuing through August. Vendors can be found on the north end of East Main Street. All board members were in favor of the DEA request regarding the downtown farmers market.

A downtown railing proposal from Metals by Marla was approved. The proposal includes 71 feet of railing and a floating staircase with railing that will be installed at the north end of East Main Street (at the Franklin Corner location). The approved quote for the budgeted project is $11,900. All board members approved with Trustee Kinkade abstaining.

ComEd has announced that tree trimming will be taking place in the village over the summer. Trees and branches that interfere with power lines will be removed, and in some cases, tree removal may be re-

Work began June 21 on the Illinois Route 47 bridge over Interstate 55. During the project, IL 47 will be reduced to one lane in each direction. The project will include the removal and replacement of the bridge over I-55. D Construction is the contractor for the $9,396,853 project which is expected to be complete in the summer of 2022. Traffic delays should be expected in the area and alternate routes are recommended, if possible.

In reports to the board, Mayor Johnson thanked Public Works Director Cory Scoles, and the public works crew, for their work to get the pool, park and ball fields ready for summer. It was noted that the public swimming pool looks exceptional and has seen some of the highest attendance rates in recent years. Mayor Johnson also thanked those that have adopted and planted the downtown area flower pots.

Edward Jones MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

Even "Singles" Need Estate Plans

If you don't have a spouse or children, you might think you don't need to do much estate planning. But if you have any assets, any familial connections, any interest in supporting charitable groups - not to mention a desire to control your own future - you do need to establish an estate plan.

In evaluating your needs for this type of planning, let's start with what might happen if you die intestate - that is, without a last will and testament. In this scenario, your assets will likely have to go through the probate process, which means they'll be distributed by the court according to your state's intestate succession laws, essentially without regard to your wishes. Even if you don't have children yourself, you may have nephews or nieces, or even children of cousins or friends, to whom you would like to leave some of your assets, which can include not just money but also cars, collectibles, family memorabilia and so on. But if everything you own goes through probate, there's no guarantee that these individuals will end up with what you wanted them to have.

If you want to leave something to family members or close friends, you will need to indicate this in your last will and testament or other estate planning documents. But you also may want to provide support to one or more charitable organizations. Of course, you can simply name these charities in your will, but there may be options that could provide you with more benefits.

One such possibility is a charitable remainder trust. Under this arrangement, you'd transfer appreciated assets - such as stocks, mutual funds or other securities – into an irrevocable trust. The trustee, whom you've named – in fact, you could serve as trustee yourself - can then sell the assets at full market value, avoiding the capital gains taxes you'd have to pay if you sold them yourself, outside a trust. Plus, if you itemize, you may be able to claim a charitable deduction on your taxes. With the proceeds, the trust can purchase income-producing assets and provide you with an income stream for the rest of your life. Upon your death, the remaining trust assets will go the charities

Aside from family members and charitable groups, there's a third entity that's central to your estate plans: yourself. Everyone should make arrangements to protect their interests, but, in the absence of an immediate family, you need to be especially vigilant about your financial and health care decisions. And that's why, as part of your estate planning, you may want to include these two documents: durable power of attorney and a health care proxy.

A durable power of attorney lets you name someone to manage your finances should you become incapacitated. This arrangement is especially important for anyone who doesn't have a spouse to step in. And if you become incapacitated, your health care proxy - also known as a health care surrogate or medical power of attorney - lets you name another person to legally make health care decisions for you if you can't do so yourself.

Estate planning moves can be complex, so you'll need help from a legal professional and possibly your tax and financial advisors. You may not have an immediate family, but you still need to take steps to protect your legacy.

Dwight Fire Incidents 6/10 - 6/17

The Dwight Fire Department, and several other fire departments, responded to several Mutual Aid requests for structure fires over the past week.

"Providing mutual aid to neighboring communities is critical for the preservation of life and property, and most importantly, the safety of all first responders," stated Deputy Fire Chief Justin Dyer. "Battling a structure fire is a very labor intensive process that requires many firefighters and various types of equipment."

The Fire Departments in Livingston and Grundy Counties are a combination of fulltime, paid on call, and volunteer departments, with staffing levels requiring the town or city with a structure fire to call for assistance from neighboring fire departments. Just last week, DFPD was assisted by several neighboring Fire Departments as they battled two house fires within a four-hour time frame.

"Being able to provide and receive mutual aid is critical to providing the best and safest response to those complex emergency incidents," Dyer adds.

Dwight Fire Protection District responded to the following incidents:

June 11: Mutual aid to Coal City - Structure Fire - canceled. June 12: Automatic Fire Alarm - East Mazon Ave.

Student Discipline Problems Way Down at GSW; Summer Sports Programs in Place

The Gardner-South Wilmington High School District #73 Board of Education held a Regular Meeting June 16.

Principal, Mr. John Engelman, reported on the following: • Student Discipline - Discipline was way down during the 2020-21 school year.

• School Social Worker – Jillian Wills – who is full-time, has been more accessible and deals with student issues to keep the overall discipline down. She also helps out where needed in the building, wearing many hats. Mr. Engelman thanked the board for this hire a few years ago.

• Teachers / staff – there is very low to no turn-over at GSW HS. Teachers are not leaving and want to be here working. Several sub teachers have commented on how great the kids are and how well behaved they Athletic Director, Mr. John Engelman, reported on the following:

 Softball and Baseball Award Ceremonies were held this month. Both teams played in regional championship games, but fell short of a win.

• Summer sports programs are in full-swing, with open gyms, scrimmages, and camps being

Mr. Josh DeLong presented the following:

- Summer Work Update:
- Cafeteria painting is complete and the tile flooring is being removed. The new floor will be done soon.

- Business Lab – painting is complete and the carpet will be installed soon. New tables, chairs, and desktop computers will be installed. This revamp is part of a CTE grant.

• Old gym mats / ice machine – GSW will be selling its old GSW logo gym end mats and old ice machine on its Facebook page. They have purchased a new, smaller table-top ice maker that is really only used for athletics.

• Baseball field work - GSW will be playing fall baseball again. Once the games are over, they will look to do some field work. They need to add some dirt, do some edging and other cosmetic updates. They are also looking into the potential purchase of a new scoreboard. It did not work during the spring baseball season.

• Summer Work for 2022 – The parking lot will be the main project next summer. They will fill in existing potholes for this school year. They will also look into new lockers on the second floor and new flooring for the entire third floor. Quotes will be needed before determining if all this work can be done next summer, as the parking lot will be a major project.

Mr. DeLong presented on the following:

• School Board Conference –

November 19-21, 2021 -Board members are registered and will be attending this year's conference in-person.

Expected end-of-the-year budget balance – It is anticipated that they will end up about $200,000 in the black.

• Next year's levy figures -EAV went up 5%, the tax rate is $2.57, which is .06 cents less than last year. In addition, the state budget (EBF) is supposed to increase by $375 million. They don't know their figures yet, but as a Tier 1 district, they will receive an increase over last year's total. With the potential solar farm in a couple of years, and the potential of a TIF extension looming, the long term financial picture will be looking pretty good.

• Reopening next school year – There are still a lot of unknowns for the start of school in August and how things will look. They will closely follow all of the updated regulations for the remainder of the summer. They will try to keep everyone informed and updated on what mandated rules they will have to follow as a school district. In order to be covered by insurance and under tort immunity, they are required to fol-ISBE and guidelines. They are hopeful that masks will be optional.

House meets; no energy bill

Talks are continuing on an energy bill after it failed to gain enough support to be brought up for a vote earlier last week. The Senate met on Tuesday and the House on Wednesday with the understanding that a deal was in place to enact an energy bill to subsidize Illinois' nuclear power plants and upgrade the state's power grid. But the bill was not brought up for a vote in the Senate after a number of objections were raised.

The proposal would have been bad for rural downstate communities. It included farreaching eminent domain provision that had the potential to harm our farmers by making it far too easy to seize their land for projects. The proposal threatened to force large price increases on local residents who get their power from electric cooperatives.

I support clean energy, but this proposal needed more work. I am glad that it is going back to the drawing board so that it can be improved.

Budget bill changed at last minute to correct serious oversight. There was a lot wrong with the budget that was passed a few minutes before midnight on May 31. It spends more than we take in, it raises taxes on small businesses and it was a 3000-page bill rammed through in the middle of the night with very little debate.

It was that last part that proved to be a problem this week. Just before signing the budget into law, the Governor's office discovered a drafting error which would have prevented the state from spending much of the appropriated money before next summer.

Upcoming Summer Events

September 16-19

 Herscher Labor Day September 4-6 Dwight Harvest Days – The Governor had to issue an "amendatory veto" and send the corrected budget back to the General Assembly for another vote.

These are the kinds of mistakes which happen when major legislation is rushed to passage with little transparency or review. It is a good argument for much more openness in our budgeting process.

State, County Fairs return for summer 2021. After both state fairs were cancelled last year due to the pandemic. both the Illinois State Fair in Springfield and the DuOuoin State Fair in southern Illinois are on for later this summer. Cyber threats on the rise in Illinois. The Illinois Department of Employment Security is warning Illinoisans about another phishing scam, this one designed to obtain your personal information. Illinoisans have been receiving fraudulent text messages, email and social media messages from someone claiming to be an IDES representative. The scammer tries to get the victim to reveal personal information. If you have been the victim of one of these scams, go to the IDES fraud website for assistance.

There has been an increase in cyberattacks reported in Illinois. A ransomware attack hit St. Clair County, causing a week's worth of problems.

The Illinois Attorney General's office was hit by ransomware earlier this spring. Information technology professionals encourage everyone to strengthen their passwords and avoid clicking in links or attachments from unknown senders.

How did local programs do in the state tournaments?

By Brandon LaChance

Last spring, baseball, softball, girls soccer, boys tennis and boys and girls track and field, were not allowed to have a postseason because of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Although 2020-21 seasons were shortened, most only played conference opponents and they were pushed from the spring to the summer, the Illinois High School Association opened state tournaments for the programs. With the chance to shine on the biggest stage, local athletes performed to the best of their abilities and created many memories they, their coaches, their family and their fans will never forget.

Here is how local athletes and teams performed in the IHSA summer state tournaments and state meets:

Dwight

Baseball: The Trojans entered the Class 1A Illini Bluffs Sub-Sectional as a No. 5 seed and fell in a regional semifinal to Illini Bluffs 10-0.

Softball: Coach Chuck Trainor led the Lady Trojans to their third regional title since 2017 – winning in 2017 and 2018 (under Erik Black), losing in the regional tournament in 2019, there wasn't a 2020 regional and adding another regional plaque in 2021 - making it to the Class 1A Newark Sectional semifinal.

Top-seeded Dwight (14-9) beat Iroquois West 15-0 in a regional semifinal and won a regional title with an 11-1 victory over Gardner-South Wilming-

The season came to an end with a 13-7 loss to Ottawa Marquette in a sectional semifinal. Girls Track: Competing at the Class 1A Bloomington Central Catholic Sectional, senior Meghan Scott advanced to state with a win in the 300meter hurdles (51.39 seconds) and the 400 relay team of Scott, Kassy Kodat, Koli Croy and Kayla Kodat took second in

At the Class 1A IHSA State Meet in Charleston at Eastern Illinois University, Scott ran a 51.45 for 18th place and the relay team came in 25h in 54.60.

Boys Track: Senior Abe Rieke advanced to state in two events at the Class 1A Seneca Sectional. Rieke threw the shot put 47 feet, 6 inches for the win and also won discus with a heave of 133 feet.

Rieke wasn't the only Trojan in Charleston as classmate Andrew Kapper was second in shot put with a throw of 42-6.5. Rieke earned a sixth-place medal at state in the discus with a distance of 144-9. He just missed medaling - top nine finishers – in shot put as he was 12th with 47-9. Kapper was 27th in shot with a 39-8.

Gardner-South Wilmington

Baseball: The Panthers rolled to an 18-8 victory over No. 9seeded Lexington in a regional semifinal. However, topseeded GSW was upset by No. 4 Illini Bluffs 6-4 in a regional final.

Annual Water Quality Report for the period of January 1 to December 31, 2020

This report is intended to provide you with important information about your drinking water and the efforts made by the water system to provide safe drinking water.

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and oottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, oonds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Source of Drinking Water

ontaminants that may be present in source water include: - Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.

Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban storm water runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.

Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban storm water runoff, and residential uses.

Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban storm water runoff, and septic systems.

Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the EPAs Safe Drinking Water Hotline at (800) 426-4791.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population.

Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. We cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead.

Source Water Assessment

We want our valued customers to be informed about their water quality. If you would like to learn more, please feel welcome to attend any of our regularly scheduled meetings. The source water assessment for our supply has been completed by the Illinois EPA. If you would like a copy of this information, please stop by City Hall or call our water operator at _815-998-2133. To view a summary version of the completed Source Water Assessments, including: Importance of Source Water; Susceptibility to Contamination Determination; and documentation/recommendation of Source Water Protection Efforts, you may access the Illinois EPA website at http://www.epa.state.il.us/cgi-bin/wp/swap-fact-sheets.pl.

Source of Water: ODELLTo determine Odell's susceptibility to groundwater contamination, a Well Site Survey, published in 1992 by the Illinois EPA, and Source Water Protection Plan were reviewed. Based on the information contained in these documents, six potential sources of groundwater contamination are present that could pose a hazard to groundwater pumped by the Odell community water supply wells. These include four below ground fuel storages, a former petroleum storage facility, and a pesticide/fertilizer application or warehouse. Based upon this information, the Illinois EPA has determined that Odell Wells #3 and #4 are not susceptible to IOC, VOC, or SOC contamination. This determination is based on a number of criteria including: monitoring conducted at the wells; monitoring conducted at the entry point to the distribution system; and the available hydrogeologic data for the wells. In anticipation of the U.S. EPA's proposed Ground Water Rule, the Illinois EPA has determined that Odell's community water supply wells are not vulnerable to viral contamination. This determination is based upon the evaluation of the following criteria during the Vulnerability Waiver Process: the community's wells are properly constructed with sound integrity and proper site conditions; there is a hydrogeologic barrier that restricts pathogen movement; all potential routes and sanitary defects have been mitigated such that the source water is adequately protected; monitoring data did not indicate a history of disease outbreak; and the sanitary survey of the water supply did not indicate a viral contamination threat. However, having stated this, the U.S. EPA is proposing to require States to identify systems in karst, gravel and fractured rock aquifer systems as sensitive. Water systems utilizing these aquifer types would be required to perform routine source water monitoring. Because the community's wells are constructed in a confined aquifer, which should provide an adequate degree of protection to prevent the movement of pathogens into the wells, well hydraulics were not considered to be a significant factor in the vulnerability determination.

by Madelyn Fogarty madelynfogarty@yahoo.com

Dwight Common School District #232 Board of Education met on June 16 where class sizes and summer board sessions were discussed.

In continual efforts to keep section sizes at an optimal learning number, especially in the early, foundation grades, class size discussions took place with Principal Julie Schultz providing a breakdown by grade level. Preliminary numbers for the Fall 2021/22 school start reflect an approximate total enrollment of 457 students with most grade levels at two sections. First Grade is planned at three sections.
