Collection Series: Article II

Collecting...A family tradition

Campbell remembers parents through collections

Editor's Note: This is the second article of a series dedicated to collectors and their collections. With so many different items to collect, we want to know what you have saved and the stories behind the collections.

by Brandon LaChance

There is no way for him to deny it, Bruce Campbell was born a collector.

Born and raised in Dwight and living in the same house for the last 55 years, Campbell watched and assisted his father and mother collect.

Joe Campbell had a stash of beer mugs, steins, and glasses.

Beverly Campbell was always shopping and scoping out garage sales for multiple groupings such as Precious Moments, where she had 2,000 plus pieces, Hallmark ornaments that easily filled 30 totes, glassware of multiple varieties, Campbell Soup memorabilia, Raggedy Ann dolls, Trolls, and ceramic cats.

Just to name a few.

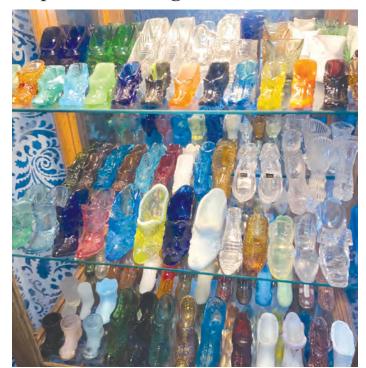

"I could blame them for me being a collector. I keep some of the pieces to keep their memories," Bruce Campbell said. "I'll never not have my memories with my parents, but it makes it easier when I see something and it sparks a mem-

"My parents loved to go to garage sales and they loved to collect things. When my dad passed away, almost 20 years ago, I was mom's chauffeur and we went to garage sales. There were things she liked to collect and I started collecting on my own. There were a couple of things we started collecting together and we did it until she passed away.'

The mother and son collector duo purchased glass shoes, salt bowls, and clear candlesticks

Glass shoes were their favorite together collection as Bruce now has 170 pairs.

"Some of the stuff I'm keeping because there are memories behind it. But a lot of the stuff, I'm going to try to sell. About a year ago, I sold the Precious Moments and Hallmark ornament collections to one person," Bruce Campbell said. "I wanted to know what she had, so I went into the basement and there were about 60-70 boxes in the basement of just glassware. I have some of the glassware set up so I can see what is

BRUCE CAMPBELL was born into collecting. His father, Joe Campbell, collected beer mugs, steins, and glasses while his mother, Beverly, stocked, stored, and cherished many items. Bruce and Beverly collected together as they put together a display case of a small sample size of their 170 pairs of glass what. My mom was a collector, Wars Pez dispensers, drink topbut she was also a hoarder. I pers, mugs, goblets, Hot don't like to say that about her, but she was."

While he was aiding his parent's collections, he developed some of his own.

At first, he was bargaining and partially becoming a salesman or entrepreneur.

Until he realized how much he liked his collections and wanted to keep them for him-

"I like anything brass like brass figurines. I started out where I would buy them cheap and then sell them," Bruce Campbell said. "I have a few animals like an alligator. I'm big into Star Wars. I have Star Wheels. I have about 300 Star Wars Hot Wheels.

"I also have a bunch of the Star Wars Hallmark ornaments. I started collecting those while my mom was adding to her collection."

Whether it's adding on to the glass shoes, Star Wars, or brass, every piece he buys, he knows where to say thank you or to place blame...mom and dad.

Michael Leone, Gardner-South Wilmington band director.

Leone to be Part of the Country's Biggest Parade

Band director to be honored at 2023 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

by Brandon LaChance

During his eight-year tenure as the Gardner-South Wilmington band director, Michael Leone has showcased his Panthers across the country and has made them nationally known.

GSW has marched in Washington D.C., Nashville, South Dakota, and recently performed at a University of Illinois football game.

Along the way, Leone has been recognized for his band's accomplishments. In August, he received another unforgettable phone call as he was asked if he would be part of the 2023 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

"I got the call about a month ago saying I was being selected to be honored at the 2023 Macy's Thanksgiving Parade," Leone said, 'Oh, heck yeah.' This time the parade is only 2 ½ miles long instead of 5 ½ miles. The Rose Parade (for the Rose Bowl Leone marched in this year) was 5 ½ miles.

"I have to be out there the Sunday before the parade. I'm going to miss a couple of days of school because I'll be in New York City. Then there is a banquet on Wednesday where they hand out awards to the top directors in the country."

Leone was called and recognized by the Michael Soule Foundation.

Michael Soule was a longtime band director. When he passed away, his wife Mary started the foundation to pay homage to her husband, his line of work, and to those who are giving their all to kids through music.

"You don't go home every night feeling like you've accomplished everything. I teach band. I'm not a coach and don't coach a sport," Leone said. "Band directors go unnoticed within a school building. Gardner-South Wilmington has a Teacher of the Year award. I've been at the school for eight years, built a program from nothing to a program that for the last six years has won everything. We've won overall championships. We've won our division for the last six years. I haven't got a sniff of that award.

"It's tough to get recognized sometimes. To get recognized by the Michael Soule Foundation means the GSW band and I have accomplished something. I will probably not win the Teacher of the Year award, so this is a pretty good consolation to have people in the music field recognize what I

Leone has also been named a semifinalist for a Grammy Award, Music Educator of the Year. This is back-to-back semifinalist selections and he was a quarterfinalist three years

The band director is honored with the awards, opportunities, and accomplishments. But for him, it starts and ends with the interaction between his young musicians and the community.

"One of the things I always tell them is, 'If you want to be successful, you have to let people feel like they're a part of the program. I've seen programs where parents and the community are kept at an arm's length away," Leone said. The parents of my students all have my phone number. They can call and talk to me about anything they want. I'm open for questions at any time. My parents all feel like they're a part of the program. I'm not shielding anything or anyone away from the kids. It takes all of us to develop this program and a great band.

"I have an amazing community that loves us. We were marching at 7 a.m. You would be shocked to see how many people come out and watch us practice. We're struggling a little bit out there because we're not crispy clean all of the time, but they're out there supporting those kids."

What Should Alzheimer's Caregivers Know?

If you have a family member who has been diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease, or is starting to show symptoms, you will face some real challenges. Navigating the Alzheimer's experience involves a long journey, and there's no easy answer for how you can cope with your emotions. But you can at least address some of the financial issues involved to · Plan for care costs and identify insurance coverage. The list of Alzheimer's-related medical expenses is long and includes ongoing medical treatment, medical equipment, home safety modifications, prescription drugs and personal care supplies. As a caregiver, you'll want to know the extent of your loved one's health insurance: Medicare, supplemental policies, veteran's benefits if applicable, and so on. One big question is how much coverage they might have for adult day care services, in-home care services and full-time residential care services, and other long-term care options. Long-term care is one of the largest health care costs not covered by Medicare, so you'll want to determine if your loved one · Identify assets and debts. You'll need to know your family member's financial position, both what they own — bank accounts, investments, property, etc. — and what they owe, such as credit card debt, a mortgage, lines of credit, and so

Look for tax breaks available to caregivers. If you're a caregiver, you may have to pay for some care costs out of pocket. Consequently, you could receive some tax credits and deductions. These benefits vary by state, so you'll want to • Ensure necessary legal documents are in place. As a caregiver, you may need to ensure some legal documents are in place, such as a durable power of attorney for finances, which lets you make financial decisions for your loved one with Alzheimer's, and a durable power of attorney for health care, which lets you make health care and medical decisions on their behalf. It's important to have these and other necessary documents drawn up before someone is diagnosed with Alzheimer's or when they're just starting to exhibit the earliest signs of the disease, so they can understand what documents they are signing. If you wait until they no longer have this cognitive ability, things will get much more challenging. You could apply to become a conservator, which grants decision-making abilities similar to a power of attorney, but the conservatorship process takes time and could involve court procedures. To avoid this potential difficulty, work with your tax

Alzheimer's support groups that can offer practical suggestions for coping. As for the financial issues, consider working with a financial professional who can look at your family's overall situation and recommend appropriate actions.

Finally, you don't have to go it alone. To help deal with the emotional challenges of caregiving, you can find local

Sign the Petition to repeal the SAFE-T Act

Early last year Illinois en- safer, not less safe. acted a bill known as the SAFE-T Act, which was advertised as criminal justice reform.

In reality, it has made it harder for police officers to do their jobs and made it easier for criminals to be released back onto the streets. On January 1 Illinois will end cash bail for most offenses. This means that the number of crimes for which a person can be held in jail between arrest and trial will be greatly reduced. Persons arrested for some serious crimes could be released almost as soon as they are arrested.

The bill was opposed by almost every law enforcement group in the state, and I agreed with them. I voted "No" because I believe this will make Illinois less safe. Lawsuits have been filed by state trying to halt the law, and we are still working to bring about change through the legislative process. But we need your help. The only way to generate enough pressure to force changes is to show that there is public demand for stopping this law before it takes effect on January 1.

We need to stop this dangerous law and start over, this time involving and listening to our law enforcement officers and state's attorneys. We need to be taking action to make Illinois

Illinois gaming activity sharply increases. A recent report from the Commission on Government Forecasting and Accountability found that gaming activity in Illinois has increased sharply in the past year.

This is important to state government because the gambling industry is heavily taxed by the state and provides substantial revenue for schools, capital reinvestment and the state's general revenue fund.

Legal gambling in Illinois includes licensed casinos and video gaming terminals, but also licensed sports wagering and the Illinois State Lottery. Illinois saw a 38.2% rise in tax revenue from gambling, amounting to a $1.88 billion gain to the state treasury. It is not likely that Illinois will be able to sustain this size of gain, as it was largely due to the diminishment of the COVID-19 pandemic and the re-opening of most wagering facilities over the past year. In 2019 Illinois authorized six new casino licenses throughout the state, and development of some of those casinos is already underway. Some other aspects, like horse racing, are in decline.

Mr. David Stokes talked about the biodiversity and habitats that can be found in our backyards.

Western heat wave could boost Illinois pumpkins. Illinois leads the nation in pumpkin production, and pumpkin farming is an important part of our central Illinois economy. This year Illinois pumpkins could take on a little bit more importance as high temperatures in California have reduced the pumpkin crop of that part of the country. Pumpkins do not typically do well in sustained temperatures of over 90 degrees, the kind of weather which California faced for parts of this growing season, but which Illinois saw much less of.

The result of this weather could be greater demand for Illinois pumpkins in the western United States. While this is good news for Illinois pumpkin farmers, it could also lead to higher prices for our jack of lanterns and pumpkin pies later this fall.

How much do we owe? As of the time of this writing, the State of Illinois owes $1,741,854,776 in unpaid bills to state vendors. One year ago, the backlog stood at $3.7 bil-

This figure represents the amount of bills submitted to the office of the Comptroller and still awaiting payment. It does not include debts that can only be estimated, such as our unfunded pension liability which is subject to a wide range of factors and has been estimated to be more than $137 billion.

Long Standing Tradition Lives On in Morris Hospital's New Serenity Garden

After more than three years of planning and preparations, Morris Hospital's new Serenity Garden is now open adjacent to the hospital's main entrance, providing an outdoor area for patients, visitors and staff that offers a quiet and peaceful place for reflection.

Funded by the Morris Hospital Foundation, the Serenity Garden is accessible through a dedicated doorway off the main lobby and features a variety of seating areas that offer varying levels of privacy, including a semi-private meditation space separated by foliage. The "halo" gathering nook features a half arch pergola that was custom made for Morris Hospital. The garden is open during the hospital main lobby hours of operation.

Even without stepping outside, patients and visitors can enjoy the garden's beauty through the floor to ceiling windows in the main lobby hallway. Night time features make the garden visible from the hallway after dark, which will be especially appreciated during the winter months.

Serenity Garden that was created in 2006 was converted to indoor space for the new Women's Imaging Center as part of the hospital's main campus renovations that have been ongoing since 2019. Planning for the new Serenity Garden involved input from a team of employees who worked together to conceptualize the new garden, share ideas, and eventually approve the plans and renderings.

George McComb, President of the Morris Hospital Foundation Board of Directors, and Michael Hoover generously donated their time to plant the new garden and will remain two of the dedicated volunteers who care for the new space, with all costs including the purchase of trees and plants funded by the Morris Hospital Foundation.

All of the memorials and engraved bricks from the original garden are being moved to the new location. The Morris Hospital Foundation continues to accept tribute and memorial gifts through the purchase of stone pavers for the garden.

Meanwhile, higher gasoline demand amid tight supply and fluctuating oil prices have increased the national average. Crude prices have increased due to market concerns about oil supply. Bulls!

Training camp has started for the National Basketball Association, which means it's time for a season preview

The Chicago Bulls had quite the roller coaster ride last season, starting out red hot, and at one point being the number one seed in the Eastern Conference. The team was hit by both Covid and injuries and that led to the roller coaster coming back down the way it came up. The Bulls struggled in the second half, ultimately ending up as the 6 seed in the Eastern Conference, and losing to the Milwaukee Bucks in the first round, 4 games to 1.

It was a weird way to get to where they ended up, but I think most people prior to the season starting had them spotted in that 5-6 seed range.

Fast forward to this year. Not really that much has changed. They made some moves on the fringes of the roster adding Goran Dragic, a veteran point guard, and Andre Drummond, a veteran backup center, but a lot of the roster was left intact.

There will be one fairly big person missing from the opening night starting lineup and that's Lonzo Ball. He suffered a torn meniscus last year, which led to a bone bruise which did not heal properly and he had to have a second surgery on the meniscus to address the issues that arose from the first surgery.

Typically you don't like to go under the knife for the same body part twice before even getting back on the court, but it sounds like the second surgery went well, and he's now expected to make a full recovery.

That means he likely won't be back until after the new year. Unfortunately, most of the other teams the Bulls will be jockeying for position with in the East also got better. I think at their very best the Bulls could be knocking on the door of the top 4 in the East, but given not many upgrades to the roster were made, I think they're likely still looking at landing in that 5-7 range in the playoffs. They were a little strapped for cash with the salary cap, and next offseason will have to be one where they look to make a bigger improvement

My prediction is 45-37 and the 6 seed in the East.

Go, Bulls!

40 Days for Life

September 28 was an important date -- it marked the beginning of the "40 Days for Life" campaigns around the world in which pro-lifers intensified their efforts to save the lives of unborn children.

2022 is the first post-Roe "40 Days for Life"campaign and the largest ever, with 622 cities holding peaceful, sidewalk vigils near abortion clinics where lots of counseling typically takes place.

'40 Days" has saved thousands of babies since the campaigns were organized 15 years ago.

My "Pray to End Abortion" yard sign will be displayed until November 6 with the hope that the post-Roe era will continue to offer the life-saving effects of prayer, fasting and thoughtfulness that will increase awareness of the value of unborn human life.

Rosemary Zell

Rosemary Zell, age 91, of Dwight, Illinois passed away peacefully Wednesday, September 29, 2022, in her home with her dear loved ones, Jenny and George, by her side. Rosemary was born on February 28, 1932 in Joliet, Illinois to the late Anton and Jennie Grskovic. She was raised in Joliet, proudly graduating from Providence High School. She then moved to Dwight, Illinois in the early 2000s.

Rosemary performed clerical work for Coleman Gas Company in Lockport prior to the birth of her children, at which time she dedicated herself to being a full-time mother and homemaker.

Rosemary was forever guided by her faith as she was well-known for praying her rosary on a daily basis. It was very important to her that she be able to live out her life at home, surrounded by loved ones. Her family is very proud of having been able to provide that comfort for her.

She enjoyed many years at her cabin on the Fox River, surrounded by family and friends, and her late husband of 43 years, Anton (1997). She was extremely fond of the many ac-

dear friend, George Buric. Whether spending an afternoon fishing, meeting friends at the Park Church in Streator for a musical jam session, taking a car ride, or enjoying a dinner

out; just being together was precious to her.

Rosemary also wanted to make mention of her best friend, and beautician, Trudy DeLong, who went out of her way to make sure that her hair always met her high expectations, every day, without fail.

Rosemary's time on this Earth has come to a close, but her love and humor will live

Rosemary is survived by her children, Susan (William) Gilbert, and Anton Zell, Jr.; grandchildren, Jennifer (Paul) Johnson, Nicole (Jamie) Dransfeldt, Anton Zell III. David Zell, Jillian Zell; greatgrandchildren, Amanda (Jack) Steichen, Maci and Cason Johnson, Bailey and Jake Dransfeldt; and her dear friend, George Buric.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Anton Zell Sr.; and her brothers, Edward and Raymond Grskovic.

Private funeral services will be held at St. Mary Nativity tivities that she shared with her Cemetery in Crest Hill, Illinois.

DTHS/GSW Trojans Football

Friday, September 30 DTHS/GSW vs. Central

The varsity Trojans hosted Central in homecoming action September 30 in Dwight, coming up short -48-36.

The Trojans got things started off with a 37-yard touchdown pass from Conner Telford to Austin Burkhardt to put DTHS/GSW up 7-0 in the first quarter, following a successful Angel Martin extra point kick.

However, Central would put up four scores before the Trojans would find paydirt again on a Caiden Nelson rush for three yards. After another Marextra point kick, DTHS/GSW would find themselves down 28-14.

After allowing another Comets' TD, the Trojans would get back on the board and back in the game with a 14-yard touchdown run by A. Burkhardt. DTHS/GSW would trail 35-22 after A. Burkhardt took it in for two.

But Central came roaring back with another score to go back up 41-22.

Telford would connect with Thomas Dochterman in the fourth on a 10-yard pass for six, and Telford would put up two to cut the deficit to just 11 points.

Just a little over five minutes later, though, the Comets were back in the end zone celebrating their 48-30 advantage.

Before it was all said and done, Telford would find A. Burkhardt again, this time for 55 yards, putting the Trojans within 12 points. But that's as close as it would get.

Telford churned out 136 passing yards on a 6-9 showing that included three TDs and an interception. He would also run for 77 yards on 16 carries.

A. Burkhardt racked up a game-high 145 yards on the ground on 18 touches, while making three catches for 108 yards – tallying three touchdowns in total.

Nelson had 26 yards and a TD on 10 rushes, also making one eight-yard catch. Evan Cox came up with eight rushing yards, followed by two from Rvan Hilt. Bennett Grant and Dochterman (TD) each made a 10-yard catch.

Defensively, A. Burkhardt and Joey Starks led the way with five tackles each, while Dylan Crouch came up with 3.5 tackles. Cox and Terry Wilkey each tallied 2.5 tackles, with Dawson Carr and Grant getting two tackles each. Michael Gamble tackled 1.5, while Telford, Jacob Weissmann, and Landon Burkhardt (sack) each added a tackle.

NOTICE TO LIVINGSTON COUNTY TAXPAYERS ASSESSED VALUES FOR 2022

Valuation Date (35 ILCS 200/9-95): January 1, 2022 Required level of assessment (35 ILCS 200/9-145): 33.33% Valuation based on sales from (35 ILCS 200/1-155): 2019, 2020 & 2021

Publication is hereby made for equalized assessed valuations for real property in this township in accordance with 35 ILCS 200/12-10.

Pursuant to 35 ILCS 200/10-115, the farmland assessment for the 2022 assessment year will increase by 10% of the preceding year's median cropped soil productivity index as certified by the Farmland Assessment Technical Advisory Board resulting in a $38.73 per acre increase for each soil productivity index.

As required by 35 ILCS 200/9-210 and 35 ILCS 200/10-115, the following equalization factors have been applied to all Residential, Commercial, Industrial, Farm Homesites & Dwellings and Other Land & Improvements to bring the assessments to the statutorily required three-year median level of 33.33%.

Township	Level of Assessment	Twp Multiplier
Nevada	31.33	1.0640
Dwight	32.36	1.0300
Round Grove	30.30	1.1000
Odell	30.30	1.1000
Union	31.33	1.0640
Broughton	30.30	1.1000

Property in each Township, other than farmland, is to be assessed at a 33.33% median level of assessment, based on the fair cash value of the property. You may check the accuracy of your assessment by dividing your assessment by 33.33%. The resulting value should equal the estimated fair cash value of your property. If the resulting value is greater than the estimated fair cash value of your property, you may be over-assessed. If the resulting value is less than the fair cash value of your property, you may be under-assessed.

If you believe your property's fair cash value is incorrect or that the equalized assessed valuation is not uniform with other comparable properties in the same neighborhood, the following steps should be taken:

- 1. Contact your township assessor's office to review the assessment.
- 2. If not satisfied with the assessor review, taxpayers may file a complaint with the Livingston County Board of Review. For complaint forms, instructions, and the Rules and Procedures of the Board of Review, call (815) 844-7214 or visit livingston.illinoisassessors.com for more information.
- 3. The final filing deadline for your township is generally 30 days from this publication date, or November 4, 2022. After this date, the Board of Review is prohibited by law from accepting assessment complaints for properties in these townships. For more information on complaint deadlines, call (815) 844-7214 or visit livingston.illinoisassessors.com.

The following list contains all properties that received an individual change for those townships. The print order is alphabetical based on records of the Office of Supervisor of Assessments as of the date of the creation of this list. The list contains the parcel number, the name of the taxpayer, the assessed value of the buildings (improvements) and the total assessed value according to the records in the office of Supervisor of Assessments. To determine the land assessed value, subtract the improvement assessed value from the total assessed value.

Your property tax bill will be calculated as follows:

Final Equalized Assessed Value – Exemptions = Taxable Value
Taxable Value x Current Tax Rate = Total Tax Bill

Your property may be eligible for homestead exemptions, which can reduce your property's taxable assessment. For more information on homestead exemptions, contact the Livingston County Supervisor of Assessments Office at (815) 844-7214.

If you have any questions on this heading or on property assessed value, please feel free to contact the Livingston County Supervisor of Assessments Office at (815) 844-7214 or by mail at 112 W Madison St, Pontiac IL 61764 during normal business hours of Monday – Friday 8:00 am - 4:30 pm.

All equalized assessed valuations are subject to further equalization and revision by the Livingston County Board of Review as well as by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

A complete list of assessments for the aforementioned townships for the current assessment year, is as follows:

that I'm pretty ashamed of my-self. I decided I'm going to shed some weight and start working out. The staff at the shelter have started me on a weekly workout routine. I'm starting with mouse laps, I have to do at least 3 laps around the room chasing a mouse. Problem is...these fake mice don't move plus I don't like to run! I then have to attempt to jump 5 times for these feathers that hang from a cat tree...I get the landing, get into position, look up and decide it's too high, I could hurt myself! Let's be honest, I could do sit ups, push ups, weights and all the diet fads out there but the only thing that is going to get me to lose this extra weight is a true love's kiss. If I could find a family that would love me, kiss me, pet me and keep me safe, I know I would lose weight because I would follow them everywhere.

As Leone would say, "I'm on the back nine of my career."

This means, he is enjoying and celebrating every second of every moment including being called to join the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

It also means, time is bringing him closer and closer to his ultimate, final, most important goal.

"My son is a senior and he wants to be a band director. My dream is that he takes over for me after I retire," Leone said.

"Then I get to hang out, assist him, and be the background guy. They wouldn't even have to change the nameplate on the door because his name is Michael Leone also.

"We've marched parades together. He's always right there for every performance. It would mean the world to me for him to take over the GSW band."
